2016 FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Clay Helton already has 10 games to his name as USC's head football coach. The 2016 season, however, presents a fresh start for Helton as he finally gets to lead the Trojans from the start of a season.

Helton was USC's interim head coach for the 2013 Las Vegas Bowl victory and again for the Trojans' final 7 regular-season games of 2015 before the interim tag was dropped prior to last year's Pac-12 Championship Game and subsequent Holiday Bowl. Last season, he guided Troy to the co-championship of the challenging Pac-12 South Division and was named the Los Angeles Sports Council Coach of the Year.

"I'm very excited about being the head coach at USC for my first full season," said Helton, who began at Troy in 2010 as the quarterbacks coach before adding the roles of passing game coordinator and then offensive coordinator. "I, along with our coaches and players, understand where the bar is set and we welcome the high expectations. Our goal will never change here at USC. We are about winning championships and all of us will work tirelessly toward that goal."

In that pursuit, Helton will welcome back in 2016 a group of 14 starters (9 on offense, 5 on defense) from last year's team that, despite a mid-season coaching change, went 8-6 overall (including winning 5 of its last 6 regular-season games) and had a 6-3 league mark to capture the Pac-12 South (prevailing in all of its in-division contests).

The 2016 Trojans, with 80 players expected on scholarship when fall camp opens, could be USC's deepest team of the decade, with experience showing at every position group but quarterback, defensive line and the kicking game. Even USC's younger players have been tested; over the past 2 years, 26 true freshmen have played, including 15 who have started and 6 who have won Freshman All-American first team acclaim.

In all, 78 USC squadmen return from 2015 (including 59 who saw action), with 33 of those on the season-ending 2-deep chart and 34 having started at least once in their career. Joining them will be 7 promising true freshmen who enrolled at USC for the spring semester and participated in spring practice. Another 13 highly-regarded newcomers will become Trojans in the fall and, along with the 7 mid-year enrollees, comprise a 2016 recruiting class that was ranked in the Top 10 nationally (and best in the Pac-12).

Although much of USC's fulltime assistant coaching staff is new in 2016, there are some familiar faces. Joining holdovers Tee Martin (now the offensive coordinator in addition to continuing to coach the wide receivers) and Johnny Nansen (now the linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator besides remaining as the assistant head coach) are defensive coordinator Clancy Pendergast, who used a 5-2 alignment to turn the 2013 Trojan defense into one of the nation's best as its DC before going to coach the San Francisco 49ers' linebackers last season; special teams coordinator/tight ends coach John Baxter, who made a huge impact at USC from 2010 to 2013 before spending last year at Michigan; defensive line coach Kenechi Udeze, a former USC All-American who was a first round NFL Draft pick and starter; running backs coach/run game coordinator Tommie Robinson, who coached USC's runners in 2013 before moving to Texas; quarterbacks coach/pass game coordinator Tyson Helton, Clay's younger brother who coordinated Western Kentucky's highly-ranked, record-setting offenses the last 2 years while also coaching the Hilltopper signalcallers; offensive line coach Neil Callaway, who played for Bear Bryant at Alabama and has 37 years of coaching experience, most recently at Western Kentucky after being the head coach at Alabama-Birmingham; and secondary coach Ronnie Bradford, a one-time Colorado and NFL defensive back who has coached a dozen years at the NFL and college levels.

USC's offense, which brings back a pair of 900-yard runners, its top 5 pass catchers and the entire line from a year ago, features 9 returning starters: wide receivers JuJu Smith-Schuster, a candidate for the Biletnikoff Award and All-American honors in 2016 who is 13th on Troy's career receptions chart (143) after grabbing 89 passes for 1,454 yards with 10 TDs last year as an All-Pac-12 first teamer and ranking in the national Top 20 in receptions, receiving yards and receiving TDs, and Darreus Rogers (71 career catches, including 28 last year); tailback Justin Davis (902 rushing yards in 2015 and 1,848 in his career); tackles Zach Banner (a 2015 All-Pac-12 first teamer and now an All-American candidate) and Chad Wheeler; guards Damien Mama and Viane Talamaivao; center-guard Khaliel Rodgers; and tight end Taylor McNamara (4 TDs among his 12 receptions in 2015). Other offensive players back with starting experience are center Toa Lobendahn, a 2-year line starter before suffering a season-ending knee injury midway through last year, tailback Ronald Jones II (whose team-best 987 rushing yards in 2015 was a USC freshman record), wide receivers Steven Mitchell Jr. (37 catches in 2015), Isaac Whitney and Ajene Harris (he might also play cornerback), linemen Chuma Edoga, Chris Brown and Nico Falah, tight end Tyler Petite and quarterback Jalen Greene, whose starts came as a wideout.

The 5 returning starters on the Trojan defense include the entire secondary—2016 All-American candidate and Thorpe/Hornung Award nominee cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson, a 2015 All-Pac-12 first team selection and Hornung finalist when he had 35 tackles on defense, 27 catches on offense and 941 return yards with 2 scores, 2015 and 2016 Freshman All-American first team cornerback Iman Marshall (67 tackles, 3 interceptions last year) and safeties Chris Hawkins (70 tackles in 2015) and John Plattenburg—plus inside linebacker Cameron Smith (another 2015 Freshman All-American first teamer who had 78 stops last fall before a late knee injury). Other defenders back with career starts are safeties Leon McQuay III and Marvell Tell III, inside linebackers Olajuwon Tucker and Michael Hutchings, defensive ends Porter Gustin, Jabari Ruffin and Uchenna Nwosu, cornerback Jonathan Lockett and tackle Noah Jefferson.

USC must find a new placekicker (although kicker Matt Boermeester saw action in the last 4 contests of 2015), punter and holder in 2015. But Jackson, Justin Davis and Smith-Schuster are experienced returners and Zach Smith has been Troy's snapper the past 3 years.

"I am looking forward to entering the 2016 season as a new coach not only with a roster of talented players with whom I already have a relationship, but with a coaching staff that I believe is exceptional," said Helton. "We want to run the ball on offense, stop the run defensively, play great special teams and not turn over the ball. However, there is a lot of development that must be done before the 2016 season. I have no doubt that this staff will prepare our players well for the upcoming season.

USC's biggest offensive loss is 3-year starting quarterback Cody Kessler, the most efficient QB in USC history. He established school career records for completion percentage (67.5%) and interception rate (1.51%), and he is in the Trojan all-time Top 4 in TD passes (88), completions (851), passing yards (10,339) and total offense (9,914). A 2-time Unitas Golden Arm Award finalist, he hit 66.8% of his throws last season for 3,536 yards with 29 TDs and just 7 picks. He also owns USC season records for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7%), passing efficiency (167.1), interception rate (1.11%) and TD passes (39), all set in 2014 when he also threw a Trojan record 7 TDs in a game.

Among the other offensive losses are tailback Tre Madden, who had 1,155 yards (452 in 2015) and 32 receptions in an oft-injured career, and fullbacks Jahleel Pinner and special teams player extraordinaire Soma Vainuku, as well as center Max Tuerk (38 career starts at center, guard and tackle), who suffered a season-ending knee injury in the fifth game of 2015 after earning All-Pac-12 first team honors the previous year.

Outside linebacker Su'a Cravens, a 3-year starter and 2-time All-Pac-12 first teamer who made 206 tackles and 9 interceptions as a Trojan, declared for the NFL Draft following a 2015 junior season in which he led USC in tackles (86), tackles for loss (15) and sacks (5.5). Other key defensive losses include all 3 starting defensive linemen—tackles Antwaun Woods (a 3-year starter and an All-Pac-12 first teamer in 2015 when he had 41 tackles, with 7 for losses) and Delvon Simmons (another starter for 3 years collegiately; he had 57 tackles, 10.5 for losses, 4 sacks in 2015) and end Greg Townsend Jr. (44 tackles, 6.5 for losses in 2015)—plus inside linebacker Anthony Sarao, a 3-year starter with 217 career stops, including 59 in 2015, and outside linebacker Scott Felix, who had 28 tackles last year. Also gone are cornerback Kevon Seymour (24 starts and 126 tackles in his career), inside linebacker Lamar Dawson (21 career starts with 168 tackles) and end Claude Pelon.

Kris Albarado, USC's punter the past 3 years (he had a 39.6 career average, with more than a quarter of his 204 punts pinning opponents within the 20-yard line), and placekicker Alex Wood (13 field goals and 74 PATs in his career) both are gone.

USC's 2016 schedule, one of the most challenging in the nation, features 6 home games in the Coliseum, including the annual battle with intersectional rival Notre Dame, Oregon's first visit to the Coliseum since 2012 and a Thursday night contest against California. Overall, USC's 12-game slate features 11 teams that played in 2015 bowls (including 3 in New Year's Six bowls), 7 that won at least 8 games (including 4 that had 10-plus victories) and 5 that were in the final AP Top 25 poll. Troy's non-conference opponents in 2016 are Alabama, Notre Dame and Utah State. The Trojans will play nine Pac-12 foes in the 2016 regular season (all but Oregon State and Washington State).

USC opens on Sept. 3 of Labor Day weekend against defending national champion Alabama at AT&T Stadium in Arlington, Tex. (the first meeting between the Trojans and Crimson Tide since 1985). The Trojans then have their home opener as they welcome Utah State of the Mountain West Conference on Sept. 10. Next, for the sixth year in a row, USC will play the Pac-12's first conference game of the year when it travels to defending league champion Stanford on Sept. 17. USC then goes to Utah, which tied for the Pac-12 South crown, for a Friday night encounter on Sept. 23. Troy then returns home for a pair of games, first versus Arizona State on Oct. 1 and then Colorado on Oct. 8, before traveling to Arizona on Oct. 15. After a bye, USC hosts California on Thursday night, Oct. 27 (just the fourth non-Thanksgiving or non-bowl Thursday game that Troy has played in the Coliseum). The Trojans remain at home the following week to host Oregon on Nov. 5, the Ducks' first appearance in the Coliseum in four years. USC then will play its first game in Husky Stadium since 2009 when it faces Washington on Nov. 12 (Troy's last game against UW in Seattle was at CenturyLink Field in 2012 while Husky Stadium underwent renovations). Troy stays on the road when it meets crosstown rival UCLA on Nov. 19 in the Rose Bowl. USC then concludes its regular season by hosting traditional foe Notre Dame in a Thanksgiving weekend clash on Nov. 26.

"This is an exciting schedule that not only captures the attention of our players, but should excite our fans and all college football fans," said Helton. "Our players and coaches are looking forward to the opportunity of competing against the likes of Alabama, Notre Dame and Utah State, as well as our Pac-12 opponents. I always have believed that if you want to be the best, you have to play the best. This schedule certainly allows for that."

OFFENSE

Nine starters return on offense from 2015: wide receivers JuJu Smith-Schuster and Darreus Rogers, tackles Zach Banner and Chad Wheeler, guards Damien Mama and Viane Talamaivao, center-guard Khaliel Rodgers and tight end Taylor McNamara. Others back with starting experience are center Toa Lobendahn, tailback Ronald Jones II, wide receivers Steven Mitchell Jr., Isaac Whitney and Ajene Harris (he might also be used at cornerback), linemen Chuma Edoga, Chris Brown and Nico Falah, tight end Tyler Petite and quarterback Jalen Greene.

Although USC must develop a new quarterback for the first time since 2013, the Trojans return 8 of their top 9 ball carriers (75% of Troy's ground output of 2,355 yards from 2015 is back this season) and 13 players who caught passes last fall, including their leading 5 pass catchers (92% of USC's 309 receptions are back from a year ago). USC's offensive output in 2015 (437.9 total yards, including 269.7 passing, and 33.9 points) was nearly equal to what it was in 2014, when Troy's total and passing yardage was its best in a decade. Last fall, the Trojans ranked ninth nationally in fumbles lost (5, none by a running back), 11th in both passes had intercepted (7) and completion percentage (.667), 16th in fourth down conversions (.654) and 20th in passing efficiency (153.6).

Wide receiver coach Tee Martin has taken over the offensive coordinator duties in 2016, with quarterbacks coach Tyson Helton assisting as the pass game coordinator and running backs coach Tommie Robinson serving as the run game coordinator.

"Our offense will be very consistent to what Trojan fans have seen in the past," said Helton. "Tee not only is an outstanding play caller, but he has been with us long enough to understand what works well here. We want to keep defenses off balance by being balanced offensively. We believe we have the personnel to run the ball effectively and physically and to be explosive in the passing game. At the end of the day, though, we know that we must be able to run the ball and not turn it over."

QUARTERBACKS

USC's biggest offensive challenge will be replacing quarterback Cody Kessler. The 3-year starter, who ranks in the school's all-time Top 4 in touchdown passes (88), completions (851), passing yards (10,339) and total offense (9,914), had the most efficient career in Trojan history as he set school career standards for completion percentage (67.5%) and interception rate (1.51%). The 2-time Unitas Golden Arm Award finalist completed 66.8% of his aerials last season for 3,536 yards with 29 TDs and just 7 picks. That was coming off a 2014 junior campaign in which he established USC season marks for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7%), passing efficiency (167.1), interception rate (1.11%) and TD passes (39). He also once threw 7 TDs in a game, another Trojan record. He was a third round selection in the NFL Draft.

Four players will battle to replace him. The most experienced is junior Max Browne (8-of-12, 66.7%, 113 yds in 2015), the 2012 National High School Player of the Year who has seen mop-up action in 9 games over the past 2 seasons.

Then there are Sam Darnold, a high-potential redshirt freshman who has shown ability in practices with both his arm and legs, sophomore Jalen Greene (10 rec, 104 yds, 10.4 avg in 2015, plus 3-of-4 passing, 75.0%, 127 yards, 1 TD and 3 tcb, 7 yds, 2.3 avg), who has returned to the quarterback position after an impressive 2015 at wide receiver (he even completed 3 flanker passes) following a 2014 season redshirting as a quarterback, and mobile first-year freshman Matt Fink (Glendora High in Glendora, Calif.), a prep All-American who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this past spring.

Also in the quarterback ranks is walk-on redshirt freshman Thomas Fitts.

"One of our most important goals is to identify our quarterback for 2016 after losing the most efficient quarterback in USC history," said Helton. "All of our quarterbacks performed very well in the spring, so we will go into fall camp before naming a starter. I'm looking forward to a very competitive atmosphere between 4 talented players."

RUNNING BACKS

USC is loaded at tailback, missing only Tre Madden from last year's roster. He ran for 1,155 yards (with 6 100-yard outings) and had 32 receptions in his career (452 and 17 in 2015) while starting 13 times, but was injured throughout much of his Trojan career.

Leading the 2016 tailback corps are senior Justin Davis (169 tcb, 902 yds, 5.3 avg, 7 TD in 2015, plus 18 rec, 189 yds, 10.5 avg and 11 KOR, 211 yds, 19.2 avg), an 8-game starter in 2015 whose 1,858 career yards is 22nd on USC's all-time list, and exciting sophomore Ronald Jones II (153 tcb, team-best 987 yds, 6.5 avg, 8 TD in 2015, plus 7 rec, 39 yds, 5.6 avg, 1 TD), who broke Charles White's USC freshman rushing record and joined LenDale White as the only true freshmen to lead the Trojans in rushing in a season. Jones' 177 rushing yards versus Arizona in 2015 eclipsed LenDale White's USC freshman game mark.

Sophomores Dominic Davis (14 tcb, 69 yds, 4.9 avg in 2015, plus 7 rec, 102 yds, 14.6 avg and 1 KOR, 2 yds, 2.0 avg and 1 tac), who doubles as a sprinter for USC's track team, and Aca'Cedric Ware (12 tcb, 36 yds, 3.0 avg, 1 TD in 2015) also flashed in 2015 as true freshmen and will battle to get into the tailback rotation in 2016.

Two walk-on tailbacks add depth: junior James Toland IV (3 tcb, 23 yds, 7.7 avg in 2015, plus 6 tac) and sophomore Lance Mudd, who sat out 2015 after transferring from Cal Poly.

Joining the tailback mix in the fall as a freshman is Vavae Malepeai (Mililani High in Miliani, Hi.).

"It will be exciting to watch this young, skilled running back corps continue to develop," said Helton. "They gained invaluable experience in 2015 and we believe that will carry over to this year."

There are no true fullbacks on Troy's 2016 roster after the graduation of Jahleel Pinner and Soma Vainuku, both of whom were used mostly as blockers (Vainuku also was a superb special teams player, being recognized as an All-Pac-12 first teamer in such a role in 2013). So USC will use tight ends as hybrid fullbacks, similar to how current NFLer Rhett Ellison was employed during his Trojan days, or Troy might call upon converted inside linebacker Reuben Peters (6 tac in 2015, plus 1 KOR, 3 yds, 3.0 avg), a walk-on sophomore.

"Since I have been at USC, at times we have used tight ends as fullbacks and we have had success doing that," said Helton. "Our offense actually has been very productive that way, enabling our tight ends to get out in space. Since we are heavy at tight end this year, we'll mainly go that route."

WIDE RECEIVERS

USC's receiving unit remains fully stocked, as the Trojans suffered no significant departures here (except for the move of Jalen Greene back to quarterback). Not counting Greene, Troy returns 7 wideouts who caught passes in 2015 and they totaled 214 receptions with 21 touchdowns between them.

Leading the wideouts is junior JuJu Smith-Schuster (team-best 89 rec, team-best 1,454 yds, 16.3 avg, 10 TD in 2015, plus 4 KOR, 51 yds, 12.8 avg and 1 tac), a candidate for All-American and the Biletnikoff Award in 2016 (last year, he was an All-American second teamer and a Biletnikoff semifinalist). The 2015 All-Pac-12 first team pick, who ranks 13th on Troy's career receptions chart (143), was in last fall's national Top 20 in receptions, receiving yards and receiving TDs. He has 8 career 100-yard games, including 6 times in 2015.

Senior Darreus Rogers (28 rec, 289 yds, 10.3 avg, 3 TD in 2015, plus 1 tcb, 1 yd, 1.0 avg), who has 71 career catches, returns after starting opposite Smith-Schuster last year. Junior Steven Mitchell Jr. (37 rec, 335 yds, 9.1 avg, 4 TD in 2015, plus 1 PR, 1 yd, 1.0 avg) also is back. He saw ample playing time last fall, even starting 6 times.

As he has the past 2 years, junior Adoree' Jackson (27 rec, 414 yds, 15.3 avg, 2 TD in 2015, plus 35 tac, 1 int with 1 TD, 8 dfl, 1 FF and 24 PR, 251 yds, 10.5 avg, 2 TD and 30 KOR, 690 yds, 23.0 avg and 7 tcb, 36 yds, 5.1 avg) will see action at wideout in addition to his cornerback and return duties (16% of his 981 total plays in 2015 came on offense). He is a candidate for All-American honors and both the Thorpe and Hornung Awards in 2016 after earning All-Pac-12 first team notice in 2015 in addition to being a Hornung semifinalist. Last year, he was the only player nationally with at least 400 yards receiving, 600 in kickoff returns, 200 in punt returns and 30 tackles. In his career, he has scored a touchdown via reception, interception, punt return and kickoff return. He missed 2016 spring practice while long jumping and sprinting for the Trojan tracksters (he was the 2015 Pac-12 long jump champ).

Also back are seniors De'Quan Hampton (15 rec, 165 yds, 11.0 avg in 2015, plus 1 tac) and Isaac Whitney (8 rec, 112 yds, 14.0 avg, 2 TD in 2015), who were productive in 2015 after both transferred to Troy from junior colleges, even though Whitney played in only the season's first 5 games before breaking his collarbone. Then there is sophomore Deontay Burnett (10 rec, 161 yds, 16.1 avg in 2015), who contributed in limited opportunities last year.

Soph Ajene Harris, who redshirted last year with a hip injury, returns healthy in 2016 and looks to re-enter the playing mix. He might also be used at cornerback.

Also available are 3 untested walk-ons in juniors Jackson Boyer (he sat out last fall after transferring from North Carolina) and Milo Stewart and redshirt freshman Jake Russell.

TB RONALD JONES II

Six first-year freshmen join the 2016 wide receiver corps, including a pair—prep All-Americans Josh Imatorbhebhe (North Gwinnett High in Sugar Hill, Ga.), whose brother, Daniel, is a tight end at USC, and Michael Pittman Jr. (Oaks Christian High in Westlake Village, Calif.), whose father played in the NFL—who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this past spring. The others are prep All-Americans Trevon Sidney and Tyler Vaughns (both from Bishop Amat High in La Puente, Calif.) and Keyshawn Young (Miami Senior High in Miami, Fla.), who might also be used at cornerback, plus Velus Jones Jr. (Saraland High in Saraland, Ala.). Another freshman enrolling in the fall, prep All-American Jack Jones (Long Beach Poly High in Long Beach, Calif.), possibly will be used like Jackson, as a cornerback and wide receiver.

"This is probably the most explosive group of wide receivers USC has had since I've been here," said Helton. "With our depth, we now have the ability to put 3 or 4 wideouts on the field at the same time, each of whom causes a mismatch for defenders."

TIGHT ENDS

Tight end is another deep and experienced position for USC.

There is senior Taylor McNamara (12 rec, 83 yds, 6.9 avg, 4 TD in 2015, plus 1 KOR, 10 yds, 10.0 avg), who started all last season after transferring from Oklahoma, where he had received his bachelor's degree. He averaged a TD every 3 catches in 2015.

Soph Tyler Petite (15 rec, 145 yds, 9.7 avg, 1 TD in 2015) also is back after seeing extensive action as a first-year freshman.

Adding to the unit are redshirt freshman Daniel Imatorbhebhe, who sat out last fall after transferring from Florida (he's the older brother of Trojan wide receiver Josh), and walk-on sophomore Alec Hursh.

Joining the tight end mix in the fall as a freshman is prep All-American Cary Angeline (Dowington East High in Exton, Penn.).

"Tight end was our most improved group last year, as they began as a question mark and really became a stable unit by year's end," said Helton. "We expect this will be one of our deeper units in 2016 with the returnees and the new additions. We'll use them in a variety of roles."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC will field one of the premier offensive lines in the nation in 2016, as all the starters—and then some—return. The only loss is center Max Tuerk, a 3-year starter at every line position whose 2015 season ended after 5 games because of a knee injury. A 2014 All-Pac-12 first teamer, he was picked in the third round of the NFL Draft

Both starting tackles are back as seniors: Zach Banner (1 tac in 2015) on the right side and Chad Wheeler on the left. Banner, a 2015 All-Pac-12 first team choice, now is an All-American candidate.

The starting guards return as juniors in Viane Talamaivao (19 career starts), who was a Freshman All-American first teamer in 2014, and Damien Mama (1 tac in 2015), who has 17 career starts.

Junior Khaliel Rodgers is back after starting the last half of 2015 at center. He also had some starts at left guard in 2014. He had shoulder surgery after the 2015 season, which limited him in 2016 spring practice.

Versatile junior Toa Lobendahn, another 2014 Freshman All-American who has 20 career starts, returns after being sidelined for the last 7 contests of 2015 with a knee injury. So far as a Trojan, he has started at left guard, left tackle, right guard (including the first 5 games of 2015) and center (for 2 mid-season games in 2015 when Tuerk went down). He was slowed in 2016 spring practice while recovering from his knee surgery.

Also in the line mix are junior tackle Nico Falah (he is also able to play center) and sophomores Chuma Edoga at tackle and Chris Brown at guard. All of them had starting opportunities in 2015 (Falah actually started at center once).

Angling to get into the playing rotation are senior guard Jordan Simmons, sophomore Jordan Austin and redshirt freshmen Roy Hemsley and Clayton Johnston at tackle, and redshirt frosh center Cole Smith, as well as walk-on soph center Richie Wenzel.

Prep All-American tackle Nathan Smith (Murrieta Mesa High in Murrieta, Calif.) graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this past spring as a freshman. Fellow prep All-American tackles Frank Martin II (Mater Dei High in Santa Ana, Calif.) and E.J. Price (Archer High in Lawrenceville, Ga.) will come aboard in the fall as freshmen.

"Without question, the offensive line is the most experienced unit on a very experienced offense," said Helton. "For the first time since I've been at USC, it feels like we are 3-deep at every line position."

DEFENSE

Five defensive starters return from 2015: cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson, inside linebacker Cameron Smith, cornerback Iman Marshall and safeties Chris Hawkins and John Plattenburg. Other defensive players back with career starts are safeties Leon McQuay III and Marvell Tell III, inside linebackers Olajuwon Tucker and Michael Hutchings, defensive ends Porter Gustin, Jabari Ruffin and Uchenna Nwosu, cornerback Jonathan Lockett and tackle Noah Jefferson.

USC's defense returns 3 of its top 4 tacklers, as well as its leaders in interceptions, deflections and fumble recoveries. The Trojans were third nationally in defensive TDs (5), 11th in turnover margin (0.8), 18th in fourth down conversion defense (.381) and 21st in sacks (2.6). Troy returned 5 turnovers for touchdowns in 2015. However, last year USC allowed 400.8 total yards (its second most ever, behind only 2014), including 149.3 rushing yards (the second most since 2002), and 25.7 points, the second highest total since 2001.

Clancy Pendergast, who employs an attacking 5-2 defensive system that morphs into a 3-4 and a 4-3, has returned to USC as defensive coordinator this year. He handled that responsibility in 2013 when the Trojans finished in the national Top 20 in total defense, pass efficiency defense, rushing defense and scoring defense. In half of USC's 14 games in 2013, opponents were held to 300 total yards or less; they also were kept to 14 points or less 7 times.

"After seeing how effective the 5-2 defense was here in 2013 under Clancy, I'm excited to see it in action with the current personnel we have," said Helton. "It's an aggressive, attacking system and I believe it's the perfect fit for us. We want to stop the run and get to the quarterback, and create turnovers."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

The front line of USC's defense will be challenged in 2016. All of the starters are gone, leaving mostly young players who will have to step up quickly. In Pendergast's 5-2 system, there is a trio of interior defensive tackles, while last year's outside linebackers now move up to the line as defensive ends, with the ability to rush, run stop or drop in coverage.

USC will have to replace all 3 of its starting inside linemen from 2015: nose tackle Antwaun Woods, tackle Delvon Simmons and end Greg Townsend Jr. Woods was a 3-year starter who last year earned All-Pac-12 first team honors while notching 41 tackles (including 7 for losses). Simmons, who also started for 3 seasons (the first at Texas Tech and the last 2 at Troy), recorded 57 tackles in 2015, including 10.5 for losses with 4 sacks. Townsend was solid in his only year as a starter, notching 44 tackles, with 6.5 for losses in 2015.

If that's not difficult enough to overcome, the Trojans also lost both outside linebackers. Su'a Cravens, a 3-year starter, declared for the NFL Draft at the conclusion of his 2015 junior campaign and was a second round pick. The 2-time All-Pac-12 first teamer had 206 tackles and 9 interceptions as a Trojan. Last fall, he led USC in tackles (86), tackles for loss (15) and sacks (5.5). Scott Felix, who had 28 tackles last year (including 5.5 for losses with 4 sacks), lost his 2016 senior season of eligibility after testing positive for an over-the-counter supplement banned by the NCAA.

High-potential sophomore tackles Rasheem Green (19 tac, 1 for loss, 0.5 sack, 1 FR for TD in 2015) and Noah Jefferson (23 tac in 2015) gained invaluable playing time up front last year and they will compete for starting roles. Junior tackle Kenny Bigelow Jr. (10 tac, 3 for loss, 3 sack, 1 dfl in 2015) was expected to battle for key playing time, but he tore knee ligaments in 2016 spring drills and is sidelined this season..

Other returnees looking to get into the tackle action are sophomores Jacob Daniel (3 tac, 1 dfl in 2015) and Malik Dorton (2 tac in 2015) and redshirt freshman Kevin Scott.

There also are 2 new faces at tackle. First-year freshman Liam Jimmons (Huntington Beach High in Huntington Beach, Calif.) graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this past spring as a freshman, while joining the line unit in the fall as a junior will be Josh Fatu (Long Beach City College in Long Beach, Calif.).

There are a number of talented players vying for action at defensive end: senior Jabari Ruffin (11 tac, 1 FF in 2015, plus 2 KOR, 21 yds, 10.5 avg), junior Uchenna Nwosu (31 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 dfl in 2015), sophomores Porter Gustin (25 tac, 7 for loss, team-best 5.5 sack in 2015) and Don Hill (7 tac, 0.5 for loss in 2015), who sat out 2016 spring practice because of a team rules violation, and redshirt freshmen John Houston Jr. and Christian Rector. Also available is walk-on redshirt freshman Matt Bayle.

Prep All-American and Nigeria native Oluwole Betiku Jr. (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.), another player who graduated from high school a semester early and enrolled at USC this past spring, and Connor Murphy (Brophy Prep in Phoenix, Ariz.), a fall enrollee whose brother plays in the NFL, are first-year freshmen ends.

"The defensive line, especially in the interior, certainly is the youngest spot on our team, as we lost some quality veterans," said Helton. "It is imperative that we have a great fall camp not only to continue to develop our young players on the line but to get everyone comfortable with the 5-2 system."

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Although USC lost 3-year starting inside linebacker Anthony Sarao, who recorded 217 stops in his career (59 in 2015), as well as 2015 backup Lamar Dawson, who had 21 career starts and notched 168 tackles, the Trojans are in good shape here.

Leading the way is sophomore Cameron Smith (78 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack, 3 dfl, 1 FR, team-best 3 int with 1 TD in 2015), a 2015 Freshman All-American first team selection and the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year. He was on pace last fall to become the first true freshman to top the Trojans in tackles in a season since records were first kept in 1954, but then was sidelined by a late-season knee injury (he was limited in spring practice while recuperating from that and a shoulder sprain).

Senior Michael Hutchings (13 tac in 2015) and junior Olajuwon Tucker (40 tac, 3.5 for loss, 2.5 sack in 2015) have starting experience. Then there is senior Quinton Powell (12 tac, 1 FF in 2015), a one-time outside linebacker who also shines on special teams, and sophomore Osa Masina (25 tac, 1.5 for loss, 1 FR for TD in 2015).

Two walk-ons add depth to the inside linebacker corps: junior Joel Foy (1 tac in 2015) and sophomore and converted outside linebacker Grant Moore (1 tac in 2015).

Enrolling in the fall as a first-year freshman inside backer will be Jordan Iosefa (St. Louis High in Honolulu, Hi.).

"Inside linebacker is among the deepest and most talented positions on our team," said Helton. "We had some young players gain invaluable playing experience here last year and that should carry them forward into 2016."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

USC's entire starting secondary returns in 2016 and there is ample depth.

The secondary's marquee player is junior cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson (27 rec, 414 yds, 15.3 avg, 2 TD in 2015, plus 35 tac, 1 int with 1 TD, 8 dfl, 1 FF and 24 PR, 251 yds, 10.5 avg, 2 TD and 30 KOR, 690 yds, 23.0 avg and 7 tcb, 36 yds, 5.1 avg). The 2-year starter and 3-way performer is among the nation's most exciting players. In addition to his cornerback duty, the Thorpe and Hornung Award candidate and All-American nominee will see action again as a wideout and returner. He made the 2015 All-Pac-12 first team as a defensive back and was a Hornung semifinalist when he was the only player in college football with at least 400 yards receiving, 600 in kickoff returns, 200 in punt returns and 30 tackles.

ILB CAMERON SMITH

CB-WR ADOREE' JACKSON

Also the 2015 and 2016 Pac-12 long jump champion (and runnerup in the 100 meters at the 2016 Pac-12 meet) and twice finishing fifth inthe NCAA long jump, his competing with the USC track team kept him out of 2016 spring football participation.

The returning cornerback starter opposite Jackson is physical sophomore Iman Marshall (67 tac, team-best 3 int, team-best 9 dfl in 2015), who was a 2015 Freshman All-American first teamer.

Both of last year's starting safeties are back: juniors Chris Hawkins (70 tac, 1.5 for loss, 2 FR with 1 TD, 2 int in 2015) at free and John Plattenburg (34 tac, 3.5 for loss, 1 sack, 2 int in 2015) at strong. Hawkins was limited in 2016 spring drills while recovering from post-season ankle surgery.

Two other safeties with starting experience—senior Leon McQuay III (18 tac, 1.5 for loss, 3 dfl, 1 FR, 1 FF in 2015) and sophomore Marvell Tell III (36 tac, 1 for loss, 4 dfl in 2015), whose future appears bright—also return. Then there is redshirt freshman safety Ykili Ross, who was limited in spring ball after having post-season shoulder surgery.

Pushing to get into the cornerback playing rotation are junior Jonathan Lockett (18 tac in 2015), who has started a couple times in the past, and sophomore Isaiah Langley (12 tac, 1 dfl in 2015).

There are 6 walk-ons available: junior cornerbacks Kevin Carrasco and Yoofi Quansah (a converted wide receiver) and sophomore Jalen Jones, along with safeties Matt Lopes (14 tac, 1.5 for loss in 2015), a junior who has seen significant action (a foot injury slowed him for the last half of 2015), senior Deion Hart and soph Davonte Nunnery.

A quartet of prep All-Americans will fight for action in the defensive backfield as first-year freshmen: safety C.J. Pollard (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.), who graduated a semester early from high school in order to enroll at USC this past spring (his father played for the Trojans), along with fall enrollees Jamel Cook (Miami Central High in Miami, Fla.) at safety and cornerbacks Jack Jones (Long Beach Poly High in Long Beach, Calif.) and Keyshawn Young (Miami Senior High in Miami, Fla.). Both Jones and Young also could see action at wide receiver.

"I am very excited about the quality of our returning starters in the secondary," said Helton. "It is important, however, that we develop some depth and versatility here."

SPECIAL TEAMS

USC will have a new punter, placekicker (although Matt Boermeester kicked some in the final 4 games of 2015) and holder in 2016. But the Trojans return their snapper (Zach Smith) and their top return men (Adoree' Jackson, Justin Davis and JuJu Smith-Schuster).

Last season, USC returned 2 punts for a touchdown for the third consecutive year and nailed 13 field goals. But the Trojans also allowed 2 blocked punts and a scoring punt return, had only 11 of their 87 kickoffs go as touchbacks and ranked in the nation's bottom 25 in kickoff returns, net punting and punt return defense.

John Baxter is back as USC's special teams coordinator. During his previous 4 years at Troy (2010-13), the Trojans blocked 24 kicks and punts, had 8 scoring kick/punt returns (including an NCAA record-tying 3 punt runback TDs in a game), scored 2-point conversions 10 times and made first downs on fake punts and kicks. He produced a pair of players who earned All-Pac-12 first team honors as special teams performers (and another as a kick returner), as well as having a Freshman All-American kicker.

"We are extremely fortunate that John came back to coach our special teams," said Helton. "He is one of the most respected special teams coordinators in the game. His trademark is impactful, creative special teams play.

"John's ability to teach and develop skills will be especially important for us this year after losing our punter and kicker. It will be very important for us to establish an identity and consistency at both spots and I expect that the battle to do so will be very competitive. And, while our return game brings back some dynamic players, we will continue to seek players who can help us in this area."

PUNTERS

USC must find a punter now that 3-year starter Kris Albarado, who had a career punting average of 39.6 (41.0 in 2015), has departed. Of his 204 career punts, 58 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line.

Untested sophomore Chris Tilbey, a native of Australia who has played Australian Rules Football, and left-footed walk-on Reid Budrovich will vie for the punting job, with soph placekicker Wyatt Schmidt also a possibility.

PLACEKICKERS

The Trojans also must unveil a new placekicker, now that Alex Wood has graduated. In 2015 in his year as Troy's primary kicker, Wood connected on all 13 of his career field goals and 54 of his 74 career PATs. He also kicked off the last half of 2014 and all but the final 4 games of 2015, although he managed just 24 touchbacks on his 113 career kickoffs.

Junior lefty Matt Boermeester (4-of-4 PAT in 2015, plus 3), whose father was a noted kicker at UCLA, has a bit of experience here, as he handled some of Troy's kicking chores in the final 4 games of 2015. He kicked off in all of those contests and did the placements in a game for an injured Wood.

Sophomore Wyatt Schmidt, who has yet to see action at USC, also will get a look. He is able to punt, too.

SNAPPERS

Senior Zach Smith returns for his fourth year as USC's snapper on punts and placements, a duty he has performed flawlessly.

Another snapper on the roster is blind walk-on redshirt freshman Jake Olson, the winner of the 2016 Uplifting Athletes Rare Disease Champions Award. He was born with retinoblastoma (a cancer of the retina) and had both of his eyes removed as a youth. He snapped in high school for 2 years despite his blindness. Although USC currently prevents contact during any practice drills in which he is involved to make sure he is protected, the hope is he will snap in a game some day.

HOLDERS

A new holder for placekicks must be found after the graduation of quarterbacks Conner Sullivan and Cody Kessler, who handled the duty previously (Sullivan in 2014 and 2015, Kessler in 2012 and 2013).

RETURNERS

USC's main returners from the past 2 years are back and each is a threat: junior cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson (24 PR, 251 yds, 10.5 avg, 2 TD in 2015, plus 30 KOR, 690 yds, 23.0 avg), senior tailback Justin Davis (11 KOR, 211 yds, 19.2 avg in 2015) and junior wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster (4 KOR, 51 yds, 12.8 avg in 2015), who has 15 career kickoff runbacks. Jackson, who already ranks fourth on USC's career kickoff return chart with 1,374 yards, has returned 2 punts and 2 kickoffs for scores as a Trojan. Last year, the 3-way player was honored not only as an All-Pac-12 first team defensive back, but also made the second team as a return specialist (in addition to being a Hornung Award finalist).

It's also possible other Trojans, including some incoming freshmen, will be tried as returners.

HEAD COACH CLAY HELTON

After starting the 2015 season as the offensive coordinator/quarterbacks coach, Clay Helton was named USC's permanent head coach on Nov. 30, dropping the interim head coach title he had held since Oct. 12 (for USC's final 7 regular season games). He signed a 5-year contract.

The 44-year-old Helton, who has been at USC since 2010, is 6-4 as the Trojan head coach (5-4 in 2015, with wins over a pair of Top 25 teams), including 0-2 as the permanent head coach. He guided the 2015 Trojans to 5 wins in the last 6 regular-season games (including victories over No. 3 Utah and No. 22 UCLA), the co-championship of the challenging Pac-12 South Division, a berth in the Pac-12 Championship Game and a trip to the Holiday Bowl. He was named the 2015 Los Angeles Sports Council Coach of the Year.

"After weeks of searching the collegiate and pro ranks, interviewing candidates, and speaking with head coaches, athletic directors, NFL executives, and very knowledgeable football people, and after observing Clay in action the past seven weeks, it became abundantly clear that what we were searching for in a coach was right here in front of us," said then-USC athletic director Pat Haden upon announcing Helton's hiring. "Choosing a coach is an inexact science. In Clay's case, there is exactness. We have a man with unquestioned integrity. He is a fantastic person and he is real. Clay is a leader of young men. He is a terrific communicator. He brings high character, stability, continuity, consistency, toughness and resiliency to our program.

"We have known Clay well for the past six years. He earned this opportunity. He has been positive and upbeat handling adversity. He was built to be a head coach. Football is his family business. He is a coach on the rise and he will be coaching a team on the rise. As our interim head coach, Clay brought back USC's style of physical football. I have been impressed with how hard and how inspired our team has played for him, as well as the support they have shown for him."

Helton joined the USC staff in February of 2010 as the quarterbacks coach after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013.

As the coordinator of USC's offense in 2015, the Trojans ranked ninth nationally in fumbles lost (5) , 11th in both passes had intercepted (7) and completion percentage (.667), 16th in fourth down conversions (.654) and 20th in passing efficiency (153.6). USC averaged 437.9 total yards and 33.9 points a game. Quarterback Cody Kessler, a finalist for the Unitas Award and a NFL Draft third round pick, ranked in the national Top 20 in completion percentage (13th at .668), passing TDs (15th at 29) and passing efficiency (19th at 151.7). Kessler ended his career in USC's career Top 4 in TD passes, completions, passing yards and total offense (and set school career records for completion percentage and interception rate). All-Pac-12 first team wide receiver JuJu Smith-Schuster was in the Top 20 nationally in receiving yards (11th at 103.9), receiving TDs (17th at 10) and receptions (20th at 6.4). Tailbacks Justin Davis and Ronald Jones II each had 900-plus yard rushing seasons. Jones set the USC frosh season rushing record and was just the second Trojan first-year freshman to top the squad in rushing.

In 2014, quarterback Cody Kessler had the most efficient passing season in USC history (69.7%, 39 TDs, 5 interceptions) while setting USC season records for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1) and interception rate (1.11) and tying USC season marks for TD passes (39) and 300-yard passing games (7). He also threw a school record 7 TD passes against Colorado and a Notre Dame opponents record 6 TDs against the Irish. USC's offense ranked in the national Top 25 in passing efficiency, passing offense, third down conversions and scoring offense in 2014. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

In 2013, he served as USC's interim head coach in its victory over Fresno State in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Trojan offense was in the national Top 25 in red zone scoring.

In 2012, quarterback Matt Barkley won the Wuerrfel Trophy and was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award as he became the Pac-12 career recordholder for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), touchdowns (116) and total offense (12,214). He also was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. He was a fourth round pick in the 2013 NFL draft. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

In 2011, Barkley was a Manning Award and Wuerrfel Trophy finalist as he set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes (39) and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage (69.1%), as well as school game standards for completions (35), pass yardage (468), passing TDs (6) and total offense (470). He was eighth nationally in passing efficiency and 16th in total offense. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Helton began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for 3 seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next 4 seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach the final 3 years. He served as Memphis' interim head coach for several months in early 2006 when head coach Tommie West had off-season heart surgery.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running recordholder DeAngelo Williams, who went on to finish seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and be an NFL first round selection.

As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006), as well as the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top 6 in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single season records for completions, passing yards and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

Memphis played in 5 bowls during Helton's time: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season, but was there just 2 months before coming to USC.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for 3 seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton.

He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

He played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. In 1993, he completed 1-of-3 passes in late duty in Houston's 49-7 loss to USC in the Coliseum.

He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994.

He prepped at Clements High in Sugar Land (Tex.)

He was born on June 24, 1972. He and his wife, Angela, have 3 children: sons Reid, 19, and Turner, 13, and daughter Aubrey, 17. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, is the running backs coach and pass game coordinator at USC after assistant coaching stops at Western Kentucky, Cincinnati, Alabama Birmingham, Memphis and Hawaii and playing at Houston.

ASSISTANT COACHES

JOHN BAXTER
Special Teams Coordinator
Tight Ends

John Baxter, known for producing extremely productive special teams units and for also working with tight ends for nearly half of his coaching career, returned to USC in January of 2016 as its special teams coordinator and tight ends coach after spending a season at Michigan.

Baxter, who most recently was at USC in 2013, has 34 years of coaching experience.

Baxter was Michigan's special teams coordinator in 2015. The Wolverines finished 12th nationally in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking (they were No. 1 two-thirds of the way into the season) after being 96th the previous year. Michigan was third nationally in kickoff returns, Jabrill Peppers was 19th in punt returns, Jehu Chesson returned a kickoff for a TD, UM allowed only 3 kickoff returns longer than 30 yards, Blake O'Neill had a Michigan Stadium record 80-yard punt and 43% of his punts were downed inside the 20-yard line and Kenny Allen hit 18-of-22 field goals and 44% of his kickoffs were touchbacks (O'Neill and Allen entered the season as non-scholarship players). Michigan won the 2016 Citrus Bowl.

Baxter, 53, spent 4 years (2010-13) at USC as the associate head coach and special teams coordinator. He added the tight ends to his coaching duties in 2013.

In 2013, fullback Soma Vainuku made the All-Pac-12 first team as a special teams player and Nelson Agholor was an All-American second team pick as a punt returner. USC blocked 6 kicks, returned 3 punts for TDs in a game to tie an NCAA record and allowed no punt return yards in 8 games. The Trojans won the 2013 Las Vegas Bowl.

In 2012, USC ranked ninth nationally on ESPN's special teams efficiency chart. Punter Kyle Negrete was a finalist for the Allstate AFCA Good Works Team. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

Baxter was named the 2011 FootballScoop.com Special Teams Coordinator of the Year. For the second consecutive year, USC blocked 7 kicks in 2011. The Trojans also had a scoring kickoff return, made a 2-point conversion and converted a fake punt for a first down while ranking No. 8 nationally in special teams efficiency by ESPN. In 2011, placekicker Andre Heidari made Freshman All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team, and his 88.2% field goal percentage was third in the nation among kickers with at least 10 made field goals (and best among freshmen kickers). Tight end-fullback Rhett Ellison made All-Pac-12 first team as a special teamer.

In 2010, USC's special teams blocked 7 kicks and punts, returned a punt and kickoff for a touchdown, scored 5 times on 2-point conversions, had a defensive PAT and made first downs on a fake punt and fake field goal. Troy was seventh nationally in ESPN's special teams efficiency ranking. USC ranked high nationally in punt returns (seventh at 14.6) and kickoff returns (17th at 24.5) with wide receiver Ronald Johnson placing 12th nationally in punt returns (14.2). Wide receiver Robert Woods made the All-Pac-10 first team as a kick returner. Johnson was a sixth round pick in the 2011 NFL draft.

In 13 years (1997-2009) at Fresno State, Baxter was the associate head coach and special teams coach in addition to handling either the tight ends (1997-2001, 2003, 2009) or wide receivers (2002, 2004-2008).

Baxter turned the Bulldogs' special teams into one of the top units in the nation annually. During his time, Fresno State blocked 84 kicks and punts (including a national-best 49 from 2002 through 2009) and scored 39 special teams touchdowns (with 3 safeties). The Bulldogs topped the nation in fewest punt return yards allowed in 2004 and 2005. A.J. Jefferson led the nation in kickoff returns in 2007. Clifton Smith's 189 punt return yards with 2 touchdowns against Weber State in 2005 were Fresno State game records, while his 5 career scoring punt returns also was a school mark. Six of Baxter's Bulldog kickers and punters earned All-Western Athletic Conference first team honors.

During his time at Fresno State, the Bulldogs posted a 100-66 record, played in 10 bowls (1999 Las Vegas, 2000-01-02-03 Silicon Valley, 2004 MPC Computers, 2005 AutoZone Liberty, 2007 Roady's Humanitarian and 2008-09 New Mexico) and won the WAC title in 1999.

Along with his coaching duties at Fresno State, Baxter developed the highly-successful and nationally-regarded program, "Academic Gameplan." His innovative and comprehensive study-skills program teaches students the rules, fundamentals, techniques and life skills needed to succeed in the classroom. "Academic Gameplan," which is now being used at schools throughout the country, was a key reason for the academic success of the Fresno State football program, which during Baxter's tenure produced 141 Academic All-WAC players and an NCAA APR score nearly 20 percentage points higher than the national average.

He was selected as the Clovis Co-Citizen of the Year in 2006, along with Fresno State head coach Pat Hill.

Baxter began his coaching career at his alma mater, Loras College, where he served for 5 seasons (1981-85) as a student assistant (working with the running backs) during his undergraduate time.

He then moved on to Iowa State for 2 seasons (1986-87) as a graduate assistant working with the defensive line and special teams before the first of 2 stints at Arizona. He was with the Wildcats in 1988 (as a graduate assistant working with the defensive backs and special teams), went to Maine in 1989 for his first full-time job coaching the outside linebackers and special teams when the Black Bears made it to the NCAA Division I-AA playoffs and returned to Arizona in 1990 and 1991 as the tight ends and special teams coach (the Wildcats played in the 1990 Aloha Bowl). He then was at Maryland for 2 seasons (1992-93) handling the running backs and special teams and Tulane for 3 years (1994-96) in charge of the tight ends and special teams before going to Fresno State.

He earned his bachelor's degree in physical education from Loras in 1985 and then his master's in higher education from Iowa State in 1987.

He prepped at Loyola Academy in Chicago (Ill.).

He was born on June 28, 1963. He and his wife, Jill, have 2 daughters, Kelly, 20, and McKenzie, 18. His father-in-law is former Utah and Weber State head coach Ron McBride.

RONNIE BRADFORD
Secondary

Ronnie Bradford, a former 10-year NFL defensive back who has 12 years of coaching experience in the NFL and collegiately, was named USC's secondary coach in January of 2016.

Bradford, 45, spent the past 3 seasons (2013-15) as the defensive backs coach and special teams coordinator at Louisiana Tech.

In 2015, Louisiana Tech cornerback Bryson Abraham ranked 14th nationally in passes defended and he scored 4 defensive TDs, while the Bulldogs blocked 4 kicks, seventh best in the nation, and played in the New Orleans Bowl. In 2014, Louisiana Tech ranked first nationally in interceptions with 26 and 26th in pass efficiency defense, and also blocked 3 kicks and was 12th in kickoff returns while winning the Conference USA West Division and the Heart of Dallas Bowl. In 2013, the Bulldogs were 13th in interceptions with 18 and 30th in pass efficiency defense while also ranking seventh in punt return defense.

Bradford was the safeties coach for Memphis in 2011.

He was a defensive administrative assistant at California in 2010. The Golden Bears were 13th nationally in sacks, 18th in total defense and 21st in pass defense.

Before coaching in college, Bradford spent 7 years as an NFL assistant, the first 6 (2003-08) with the Denver Broncos and 2009 with the Kansas City Chiefs.

With the Broncos, he was a special teams assistant in 2003, the special teams coach in 2004 through 2006, a defensive backs assistant in 2007 and the defensive backs coach in 2008. As the special teams coach, he worked with kicker Jason Elam, who had the NFL's third most field goals and points from 2003-06, and as the defensive backs coach, he coached NFL standouts Champ Bailey and Dre Bly.

He was a defensive assistant with the Kansas City Chiefs in 2009.

Bradford played 10 seasons in the NFL as a defensive back with the Broncos (1993-95), Arizona Cardinals (1996), Atlanta Falcons (1997-2001) and Minnesota Vikings (2002). In his career, he played in 136 games (99 starts), getting 523 tackles, 14 interceptions (with 1 TD), 70 pass deflections, 4 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries. He intercepted a pass in Super Bowl XXXIII as a member of the 1998 NFC titlist Falcons.

Bradford was 4-year letterman cornerback (1989-92) at Colorado, starting for 2 seasons and being named All-Big 8 first team as a 1992 senior. As a sophomore, he was a member of the Buffaloes' 1990 national championship team and his block of Notre Dame's PAT attempt in the final minutes of the Orange Bowl preserved CU's 10-9 victory.

He graduated from Colorado in 1995 with a bachelor's degree in communication.
He prepped at Adams City High in Commerce City (Colo.).
He was born Oct. 1, 1970. He and his wife, Trish, have 3 children: Tony, Kaylee and Justin.

NEIL CALLAWAY
Offensive Line

Neil Callaway, who has 37 years of coaching experience, including a stint as the head coach at Alabama Birmingham and stops as the offensive line coach with 3 Southeastern Conference teams, joined the USC staff in January of 2016 as the offensive line coach.

Callaway spent the previous 3 seasons (2013-15) as the offensive line coach at Western Kentucky. Under Callaway, WKU's offensive line blocked for the school's season passing and rushing record setters. In 2015, the line ranked 13th nationally in sacks allowed (1.1) and lineman Forrest Lamp made the All-Conference USA first team. The Hilltopper offense was in the national Top 10 in 2015 in passing efficiency (first at 177.4), scoring (third at 44.3), passing (fourth at 372.2), first downs (eighth at 349) and total yards (ninth at 526.4). The Conference USA champions went 12-2 in 2015 (tying a school wins record) and were ranked 24th by AP after posting a victory in the Miami Beach Bowl. In 2014, WKU became the first NCAA program with a 4,500-yard passer and 1,500-yard rusher while winning the Bahamas Bowl to finish 8-4. That season, they were second nationally in passing (374.3), fourth in total offense (534.6) and sixth in scoring offense (44.4) and first downs (351). The 2013 Hilltopper offense set school records for average total yards (458.5), passing yards (261.7) and rushing yards (196.8).

Prior to Western Kentucky, Callaway was UAB's head coach for 5 years (2007-11), going 18-42. His 2009 squad's offense was seventh nationally in rushing, while the 2010 Blazers were in the national Top 30 in passing offense and total offense.

From 2001 to 2006, he was the offensive coordinator at Georgia as the Bulldogs posted 61 victories, 2 SEC titles, 3 SEC East titles, 4 bowl wins and 4 Top 4 poll finishes. The 2002 Georgia squad led the SEC in scoring offense and passing efficiency, while the 2005 offense was second in scoring. Six of Callaway's Bulldog offensive linemen earned All-SEC honors, including 2005 All-American Max Jean-Gilles.

Before Georgia, Callaway was the offensive line coach at Alabama, his alma mater, for 4 years (1997 to 2000), while also serving as the Crimson Tide's offensive coordinator the final 3 seasons. Alabama won an SEC title during his time there.

He was the assistant head coach and offensive coordinator at Houston under Kim Helton for 4 seasons (1993-96). The Cougars' offensive line allowed just 19.5 sacks per season during his Callaway's tenure, including just 10 in 1996. Houston won the inaugural Conference USA championship in 1996.

TYSON HELTON
Quarterbacks
Pass Game Coordinator

Tyson Helton, the younger brother of USC head coach Clay Helton, joined the USC staff in January of 2016 and serves as the quarterbacks coach and pass game coordinator.

He spent the previous 2 years (2014-15) as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Western Kentucky the past 2 years (2014-15). WKU broke more than two dozen school offensive records under Helton, including the points scored record in each of his 2 years. The Hilltopper offense was in the national Top 10 in 2015 in passing efficiency (first at 177.4), scoring (third at 44.3), passing (fourth at 372.2), first downs (eighth at 349) and total yards (ninth at 526.4). The Conference USA champions went 12-2 in 2015 (tying a school wins record) and were ranked 24th by AP after posting a victory in the Miami Beach Bowl. In 2014, WKU became the first NCAA program with a 4,500-yard passer and 1,500-yard rusher while winning the Bahamas Bowl to finish 8-4. That season, they were second nationally in passing (374.3), fourth in total offense (534.6) and sixth in scoring offense (44.4) and first downs (351).

Helton, 39, was among 4 finalists for the 2015 FootballScoop.com Offensive Coordinator of the Year Award. He coached quarterback Brandon Doughty to back-to-back Conference USA MVP honors as he threw 97 touchdown passes in 2014 and 2015 (the most in NCAA history in consecutive seasons). Doughty led the nation in 2015 in completion percentage (71.9%), passing TDs (48), passing yards (5,055) and points responsible for (304) while ranking second in passing efficiency (176.5). That came off a 2014 campaign in which he threw for national bests of 4,830 yards and 49 TDs while winning the Sammy Baugh Award from the Touchdown Club of Columbus as the nation's top quarterback. Hilltopper wide receiver Taywan Taylor ranked second in the nation in 2015 in receiving TDs (17) and was third in receiving yards (1,467), both school season records as was his 86 receptions. Fellow receiver Jared Dangerfield had 82 catches in 2015, second most in school history.

Helton came to Western Kentucky after spending 2013 as Cincinnati's special teams coordinator and tight ends coach. Cincinnati set a school season total offense record (6,137 yards) as Helton coached tight end Blake Annen and kick returner Ralph David Abernathy IV to All-American Athletic Conference first team honors.

He spent the previous 6 seasons (2007-12) at Alabama Birmingham, the first 5 years as the quarterbacks coach and then 2012 coaching the running backs and serving as the recruiting coordinator. Under Helton's guidance, Joe Webb developed into one of the most prolific quarterbacks in NCAA history. In 2009, when he finished sixth nationally in total offense and ninth in passing efficiency, Webb became the first player in NCAA history to pass for 2,000 yards and rush for 1,000 yards in consecutive seasons. The 2009 and 2010 Blazer offenses produced the two highest total offense yardage totals in UAB history, both topping 5,000 yards. Then in 2012, running back Darrin Reaves was an All-Conference USA first teamer as he ran for 1,037 yards and a school-record 13 scores.

Helton coached tight ends and special teams at Memphis for 3 years (2004-06). Tigers' kicker Stephen Gostkowski, who established the school career scoring record, was Conference USA's Special Teams Player of the Year in 2005 and played in the NFL.

Helton began his coaching career at Hawaii for 4 years (2000-03), the first year as a graduate assistant working with the special teams and the final 3 seasons as the special teams coach. In 2001, his first as a full-time coach, the Warriors led the nation in kickoff return yardage and broke the NCAA record for season kickoff return average. Return specialist Chad Owens set NCAA game records for most combined return yardage and most kickoff return yardage and tied an NCAA record with 2 scoring kick returns in a game.

Helton played quarterback at Houston (1996-99), where he earned a bachelor's degree in business in 1999, after starring at Clements High in Sugar Land (Tex.). His father, Kim, was the head coach at Houston during Tyson's tenure.

He was born on June 20, 1977. He and his wife, April, have 2 daughters, Shelby Grace, 12, and Presley, 10, and 6-year-old twin boys, Cole and Clay. Besides being Houston's head coach (1993-99), his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and CFL (Toronto Argonauts).

CLANCY PENDERGAST
Defensive Coordinator

Clancy Pendergast, who has coordinated some of the top defenses in the NFL and in college since the mid-2000s and is known for his aggressive defenses that use creative schemes to create pressure, returned to USC in January of 2016 as the defensive coordinator after spending a season with the San Francisco 49ers.

This is the third stint at USC for Pendergast, who most recently was at Troy in 2013 and molded the Trojan defense into one of the nation's best that season. He has 24 years of coaching experience, including 16 in the NFL.

Pendergast, 48, was the 49ers' linebackers coach in 2015. He tutored Pro Bowl linebacker NaVorro Bowman, the NFL's 2015 tackle leader.

Pendergast was USC's defensive coordinator and secondary coach in 2013. That year, he helped the Trojan defense rank in the national Top 25 in total defense, scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, sacks, interceptions, red zone scoring defense, third down conversion defense and fourth down conversion defense. Safety Su'a Cravens was a Freshman All-American first team pick.

He spent the previous 3 years (2010-12) as the defensive coordinator at California. The Golden Bears led the conference in total defense, pass defense and fewest first downs allowed in each of his first 2 seasons while producing 9 NFL players, including first rounder Cameron Jordan, and 3 All-Conference first teamers, including 2011 Pac-12 Defensive Player of the Year Mychal Kendricks.

In 2010, Cal topped the Pac-10 in sacks and was in the league's top 5 in scoring defense, rushing defense, pass efficiency defense and opponent third down conversions while holding 4 opponents to 10 or less points (the most by a Golden Bear defense since 1968) and 3 foes to under 200 total yards.

In 2011, Cal was in the Pac-12's top 3 in rushing defense, pass efficiency defense, sacks and tackles for loss while notching 23 turnovers and 34 sacks and holding 5 teams under 70 rushing yards. The Golden Bears played in the Holiday Bowl.

His young 2012 Cal defense, with only 5 returning starters, held the wide-open offenses of UCLA and Washington State to just 17 points each.

Pendergast went to Cal after 6 seasons as an NFL defensive coordinator with the Arizona Cardinals (2004-08), including when the Cardinals won the 2008 NFC title to earn a berth in Super Bowl XLIII, and Kansas City Chiefs (2009). His squads had 176 takeaways during those 6 years.

In his 5 seasons with Arizona, his defense finished 20th or better in the final NFL rankings 37 times in categories such as points allowed, total yards allowed, rushing yards allowed, passing yards allowed, yards allowed per play, opponents third down percentage, sacks, interceptions and fumbles recovered.

Cardinal linemen Bertrand Berry and Darnell Dockett were Pro Bowlers in his defense. He also worked with Arizona's secondary, coaching safety Adrian Wilson to a pair of Pro Bowls.

In 2004, Arizona was 12th in the NFL in total defense and scoring defense, as well as in the top 5 in third down defense and fumble recoveries, and it forced 30 turnovers. Linebacker Karlos Dansby was an All-Rookie honoree.

His 2005 unit was in the NFL's top 10 in total defense, third down efficiency, first downs allowed and fumble recoveries, while his 2006 defense forced 33 turnovers, the most by the Cardinals since 1998 and tied for fifth in the NFL that year.

In 2007, Arizona was ninth in the NFL in run defense and set a modern-day NFL record by holding the Detroit Lions to minus 18 rushing yards. Its 6 scoring interception returns and 551 interception return yards that season were franchise records as the Cardinals tied for 10th in the NFL in interceptions.

In 2008, Arizona tied for fifth in the league with 30 takeaways, including forcing 13 turnovers during its playoff run.

In 2009 with Kansas City, a young Chiefs defense had 28 takeaways and 22 sacks. The unit improved significantly in sacks, rushing touchdowns allowed and third down conversions from the previous year.

Pendergast began his NFL coaching career in 1995 as a defensive assistant/quality control coach with the Houston Oilers.

He then spent 7 seasons (1996-2002) with the Dallas Cowboys as part of staffs that won 2 NFC East titles (1996 and 1998) and made 3 NFC playoff appearances (1996, 1998-99). He was a defensive assistant and quality control coach his first 4 seasons (1996-99), then oversaw Dallas' nickel defense packages in 2000 before coaching the defensive backs in his final 2 campaigns (2001-02). The Cowboys were third in the NFL in pass defense in 2000 and 2001. He tutored safety Roy Williams, who was an All-Rookie selection in 2002, as well as All-Pro and 3-time Pro Bowl safety Darren Woodson.

He then was the linebackers coach with the Cleveland Browns in 2003.

Pendergast started his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Mississippi State in 1991 before becoming a USC defensive assistant in 1992 under head coach Larry Smith. He then was a graduate assistant/tight ends at Oklahoma for 2 seasons (1993-94). Each of those college teams played in a bowl, as Mississippi State qualified for the Liberty Bowl, USC for the Freedom Bowl and Oklahoma for the John Hancock and Copper Bowls.

He prepped at Tolleson (Ariz.) High, then received his bachelor's degree in agriculture from Arizona in 1990.

Born on Nov. 29, 1967, he is single.

TOMMIE ROBINSON
Running Backs
Run Game Coordinator

Tommie Robinson, who has coached running backs at the collegiate and NFL levels, rejoined the USC staff as the running backs coach and run game coordinator in January of 2016 after spending the previous 2 seasons at Texas.

Robinson, 53, has 30 years of coaching experience. As Texas' running backs coach in 2014 and 2015, he helped the Longhorns rank 17th in the nation in rushing in 2015, averaging 224.8 yards a game while scoring 27 times on the ground. UT played in the 2014 Texas Bowl.

He was USC's running backs coach and passing game coordinator in 2013. Troy's 29 rushing touchdowns (all but 2 by running backs) were its most since 2005. The Trojans played in the Las Vegas Bowl.

He handled the Arizona Cardinals' running backs the previous 3 years (2010-12). In 2011, he helped Beanie Wells become the first player in franchise history to run for at least 1,000 yards and 10 touchdowns. Wells also set a franchise game rushing record with 228 yards against the St. Louis Rams that season. The Cardinals' rushing attack was hampered in 2012 by injuries and the 2010 offense was primarily pass oriented.

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2007-09) as the running backs coach at Miami (Fla.), helping the Hurricanes to the 2008 Emerald Bowl and 2009 Champs Sports Bowl, after working in 2006 with the running back at Memphis.

Before Memphis, he coached 4 seasons (2002-05) at Georgia Tech, coaching wide receivers the first year and then tight ends the next 3 seasons. Tech wideouts Kerry Watkins and Will Glover finished their careers in 2002 among the school's Top 5 all-time receivers. Tight ends John Paul Foschi and Darius Williams played in the NFL. The Yellow Jackets played in the 2002 Silicon Valley Classic, 2004 Humanitarian Bowl and 2004 Champs Sports Bowl.

He spent 2001 as the running backs coach at Oklahoma State, working with future NFLer Tatum Bell.

He was an offensive assistant with the Dallas Cowboys for 3 years (1998-2000), working with the wide receivers (including future Hall of Famer Michael Irvin) and special teams. The 1998 and 1999 Cowboys advanced to the NFL playoffs and the 1998 squad won the NFC East title.

He went to the Cowboys after a 3-month stop as the running backs coach at UNLV early in 1998. Before that, he coached running backs at Utah State for 2 years (1992-93), helping the Aggies to the 1993 Las Vegas Bowl, and wide receivers at TCU for 4 seasons (1994-97), as the Horned Frogs played in the 1994 Independence Bowl.

He began his college coaching career as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1991, as the Razorbacks played in the 1991 Independence Bowl.

He started coaching at the high school level, guiding Woodham High in Pensacola (Fla.) in 1986 and 1987 and Central High in Phenix City (Ala.), his alma mater, from 1988 to 1990.

During his various college stops, he also served minority coaching internships with the New Orleans Saints, St. Louis Rams, Dallas Cowboys and Miami Dolphins.

He was a 3-year starter at strong safety and team captain as a senior at Troy State, where he was a member of the 1984 Division II national championship team. He received his bachelor's degree in criminal justice at Troy State in 1985.

He was born on April 4, 1963. He and his wife, Lartonyar, have 3 children: sons Dantrell, 29, and Trey, 19, and daughter Tawanda, 22.

KENECHI UDEZE
Defensive Line

Former USC All-American defensive end Kenechi Udeze, a first round NFL Draft pick and 4-year NFL starter whose inspirational story saw him overcome cancer that ended his playing days and led to a career in coaching, was named USC's defensive line coach in January of 2016.

Udeze, 33, spent the 2015 season as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at USC. He also assisted in the Trojan football office and for 3 weeks leading up to the Holiday Bowl he served as the team's defensive line coach.

Prior to USC's 2015 season, he served an NFL minority coaching fellowship with the Buffalo Bills during their fall camp and pre-season, working with the defensive line.

He began his coaching career as an assistant strength and conditioning coach at Washington for 3 years (2009-11), where he also worked with the defensive line. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl and 2011 Alamo Bowl.

In 2012, he was the assistant defensive line coach with the Seattle Seahawks as the team advanced to the NFC playoffs, then in 2013 he was with the Minnesota Vikings during fall camp and the pre-season as part of an NFL minority coaching fellowship (he was involved with the defensive line).

He was the assistant strength and conditioning coach at Pittsburgh in 2014, helping with the defensive line (the Panthers played in the Armed Forces Bowl).

Udeze was a 3-year (2001-03) starting defensive end at USC, recording 135 tackles, 51 tackles for loss, 28 sacks, an NCAA record-tying 14 forced fumbles and 3 fumble recoveries in his career.

As a junior in 2003 on USC's national championship team, he was a consensus All-American first teamer (Troy's first All-American first team defensive end since Tim Ryan in 1989), as well as a Hendricks Award finalist, the Washington D.C. Pigskin Club National Defensive Player of the Year, an All-Pac-10 first team selection and USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year. That season, he led the nation in sacks (16.5 for a 1.3 average), was fourth in tackles for loss (26 for a 2.0 average) and was ninth in forced fumbles (5 for a 0.4 average), the only player in the nation in the Top 9 in each of those categories. His 26 tackles for loss and 16.5 sacks in 2003 were the most by a Trojan defensive lineman since Ryan in 1989 and he was the first Trojan with double digits in sacks since 1992 (Willie McGinest). He also had 56 tackles, 5 forced fumbles, a fumble recovery (for a touchdown), 3 deflections and a blocked field goal in 2003.

After redshirting in 2000, Udeze was a Freshman All-American second team pick in 2001 when he had 35 tackles, 9 tackles for loss, 4 sacks, a fumble recovery, 3 forced fumbles and a deflection as USC played in the Las Vegas Bowl.

As a sophomore in 2002, he made All-Pac-10 second team and was USC's Defensive Lineman of the Year when he had 44 tackles, 15 tackles for loss, 7.5 sacks, a school record 6 forced fumbles, a fumble recovery, an interception and a blocked field goal (the Trojans won the 2003 Orange Bowl and finished ranked fourth nationally).

He declared for the NFL Draft after his 2003 junior season and was a first round selection (20th overall pick) by the Vikings in 2004. He started 47 of 51 games in his 4 years (2004-07) with the Vikings, compiling 117 tackles, 11 sacks, 3 fumble recoveries and 2 forced fumbles.

As a rookie in 2004, he recorded 36 tackles, 5 sacks, a forced fumble and a deflection while starting 15 games for the Vikings playoff squad. He suffered a knee cartilage injury in the third game of 2005, sidelining him for the season after 2 starts. He started 15 times in 2006, getting 29 tackles, then had 47 tackles, 5 sacks a deflection and forced fumble with another 15 starts in 2007.

He was diagnosed with acute lymphoblastic leukemia (a blood cancer) in 2008 and placed on injured reserve that season. He received chemotherapy treatments and had a bone marrow transplant from his brother. He was the Vikings' recipient of the 2008 NFL Ed Block Courage Award, as voted by his teammates. After attempting to return to the playing field in 2009 but struggling with peripheral neuropathy in his feet as a result of chemotherapy, Udeze retired from the NFL that summer. His leukemia is in remission.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from USC in 2010.

He was a prep All-American lineman at Verbum Dei High in Los Angeles (Calif.), where he also was a shot putter on the track team.

He was born on March 5, 1983. His first name means "God's love will always be with me" in Nigerian. His nickname as a USC player was "BKU," which stood for Big Kenechi Udeze (he enrolled at USC weighing 375 pounds, but left at 275). He has been involved with charities that raise money for cancer research. His wife's name is Katherine. He has a daughter, Bailey, 8.

2015: A first-year freshman tight end, he sat out the 2015 season because of NCAA transfer rules. He transferred to USC in the fall of 2015 from Florida and was awarded a scholarship by virtue of an NCAA rule known as "blueshirting" (it allows a non-recruited student-athlete to receive athletic financial aid after beginning practice and have that student-athlete count towards the next year's signing class if the school has reached its NCAA-maximum aid limit for the current year).

FLORIDA: He enrolled at Florida in the spring of 2015 after graduating a semester early from high school and participated in 2015 spring practice as a first-year freshman tight end.

HIGH SCHOOL: He had 32 catches for 487 yards (15.2 avg) with 8 TDs as a 2014 senior wide receiver at North Gwinnett High in Sugar Hill (Ga.). As a 2013 junior, he had 29 receptions for 358 yards (12.3 avg) with 2 TDs, helping North Gwinnett advance to the Class AAAAAA state championship game.

He also played basketball at North Gwinnett.

PERSONAL: He was born in Los Angeles, then moved to Virginia and Georgia. His brother, Josh, is a freshman wide receiver at USC.

He has 24 career starts (21 at cornerback, 1 at safety, 1 at wide receiver and 1 concurrently at cornerback and wide receiver).

2016: Jackson, perhaps the most exciting player in college football, is a candidate for All-American and the Thorpe and Hornung Awards as a junior in 2016. He returns for his third year as a starting cornerback and also makes an impact as a wide receiver and returner. USC's first 3-way player in nearly 20 years, he has drawn comparisons with former Michigan Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson (they have posted comparable statistics). Jackson also is the 2-time defending (2015 and 2016) Pac-12 long jump champion for USC's track team and he was fifth at both the 2015 and 2016 NCAA Meets to twice earn All-American status. He made the 2015 All-Pac-12 first team (as a defensive back) and second team (as a return specialist), AP All-Pac-12 first team (as a defensive back) and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team (as a defensive back) and second team (as a punt returner). He was USC's MVP.

He had 2 punt returns for 40 yards and a 23-yard kickoff return against Arkansas State while getting 2 plays on offense, 6 on defense and 4 on special teams before being sidelined in the second quarter with an abdominal strain. 2014: Jackson made quite an impact on defense, offense and special teams as a first-year freshman cornerback, wide receiver and returner/coverage man in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 10 times at cornerback (at Stanford and then in USC's last 9 games) and once concurrently at wide receiver (Notre Dame), he had 49 tackles, including 4 for losses, 10 deflections, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery on defense, plus 10 receptions for 138 yards (13.8 avg) with 3 TDs and 1 carry for 5 yards (5.0 avg) on offense and 23 kickoff returns for 684 yards (29.7 avg) with 2 TD and 2 punt returns for 12 yards (6.0 avg).

He was used as a 3-way player in 8 games in 2014 (the first 4 and the last 4). Against Notre Dame in 2014, Jackson became the first Trojan to start on offense (wide receiver) and defense (cornerback) in a game since at least the late 1960s when starting records were first reliably kept during the 2-platoon era. Jackson's 2014 statistics were comparable to those of Michigan's 3-way star Charles Woodson when he won the Heisman in 1997.

He made the 2014 CollegeSportsMadness.com All-American second team (as a kickoff returner), as well as Football Writers Freshman All-American first team, Sporting News Freshman All-American first team, USA Today Freshman All-American first team, Scout Freshman All-American first team, Phil Steele Freshman All-American first team, CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American first team, ESPN.com True Freshman All-American first team and 247Sports True Freshman All-American first team. He is second nationally in kickoff return TDs (2, first in Pac-12) and fifth in kickoff returns (29.7, second in Pac-12).

He had a tackle along with 3 receptions for 36 yards (with an 18-yard TD) and a 10-yard punt return against Fresno State while playing 52 plays (13 offense, 25 defense, 14 special teams). At Stanford, he played 36 plays (23 defense, 9 offense, 4 special teams), but did not have any statistics. He had 2 tackles for loss, plus he caught a pass for minus 4 yards and returned 3 kickoffs for 81 yards at Boston College while playing 45 plays (2 offense, 30 defense, 13 special teams). Against Oregon State, he had a tackle and 2 deflections (including one that he tipped to teammate

Leon McQuay, who made the interception) along with 2 kickoff returns for 58 yards while playing 44 plays (4 offense, 28 defense, 12 special teams). He had 5 tackles and returned 2 kickoffs for 56 yards against Arizona State. At Arizona, he had 7 tackles and returned a kickoff 34 yards. He had a 15-yard kickoff return and made a tackle before being sidelined with a hip injury against Colorado. He had 4 tackles (1 for a loss), a deflection, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery (on the same play) plus he returned 2 kickoffs for 127 yards (with a school record-tying 100-yarder for a TD) and a punt for 2 yards at Utah to earn College Football Performance Awards National Kickoff Returner of the Week and Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He had 8 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 deflections, plus 3 kickoff returns for 67 yards, at Washington State. He had 3 tackles and a deflection and caught a 16-yard TD against Notre Dame as he became the first Trojan to start on offense (wide receiver) and defense (cornerback) in a game since at least the late 1960s when starting records were first reliably kept during the 2-platoon era while playing 49 snaps (35 on defense, 6 on offense, 8 on special teams) before being sidelined late in the first half with a concussion. Against Nebraska, he made 7 tackles and a deflection, caught 3 passes for 73 yards with a 71-yard TD and returned 3 kickoffs for 130 yards with a Holiday Bowl-record 98-yard TD while playing 103 plays (78 on defense, 21 on special teams, 4 on offense) to earn USA Today All-Bowl Team, CBSSports.com All-Bowl Team and ESPN.com Pac-12 All-Bowl Team honors.

In his other 100 meter outing in 2015, he was sixth at the UCLA Dual (10.54). In his other long jumps, he won the Pac-12 title with a leap of 25-3.50 and also won at the UCLA Dual meet (25-2 wind-aided) and the Trojan Invitational (24-4.15), plus he was seventh at the Mt. SAC Relays (24-4.25) and the NCAA West Prelims (25-8 wind-aided). He occasionally ran a leg on USC's 400-meter relay team, even helping the quartet at the NCAA West Prelims advance to the NCAA Meet, where he then anchored the 400-meter relay team that finished fourth in 38.75 (second fastest in USC history).

In 2016 outdoor while repeating as an All-American, he had legal bests of 10.38 (career best) in the 100 meters while winning the UCLA Dual (he also had a wind-aided 10.35 while running ninth at the Mt. SAC Relays, 25-5.25 (wind-aided) to place third at the NCAA West Prelims (to qualify for the NCAA Meet), 25-4.75 while winning the UCLA Dual, 25-3.50 while winning the Pac-12 Championships, 25.2 while placing second at the Pepsi Invitational and 25-1.75 for fifth at the NCAA Meet (the first USC long jumper to score in consecutive NCAA Meets since Ed Tave in 1983-84). He also ran often on USC's 400-meter relay team (usually the anchor or third leg), including helping the quartet clock a season-best 39.74 for second at the Pac-12 Championships, and occasionally ran a leg on the 1600-meter relay squad, including on the team that placed fourth at the Pac-12 Championships in 3:10.46.

USC TRACK BEST MARKS: Outdoor—10.41 100 meters (2016), 21.08 200 meters (2016), 25-11.50 long jump (2015). Indoor—6.75 60 meters (2016), 21.28 200 meters (2016), 25-1.75 long jump (2016).

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT ADOREE' JACKSON

Tee Martin, USC offensive coordinator and wide receivers coach: "He has an unbelievable amount of talent. He can handle the installation on offense and defense and it's seamless. The one thing that stands out is how smart and productive he is."

USC quarterback Max Browne: "I'm just impressed with the way he moves back and forth between offense and defense."

USC head coach Clay Helton: "Whether it's defense, offense—we fight over him every day. I've been fortunate enough to be around here and in other years it's, 'There's Robert Woods, there's Marqise Lee, there's Nelson Agholor.' Who is the next superstar? This guy is. He's an ultra-special talent and I don't care if it's wideout, running back, corner. He's just really special...Every time he touches the ball, you hold your breath because he can take it 80 yards. He's electric. He's such an offensive weapon that I'm glad we're allowed to borrow him at times."

Jake Davidson, Daily Trojan: "Jackson already is the best cover corner in the secondary. His return skills are so feared that teams are already kicking away from him. Not to mention the fact that though he has touched the ball sparingly on offense, he is a threat to score every time he gets his gloves on the pigskin."

Lindsey Thiry, Los Angeles Times: "There's no dream too big for Adoree' Jackson. He is intent about winning the Thorpe Award, Heisman Trophy and a medal in track and field at the 2016 Olympics."

Michael Lev, Orange County Register: "If you're looking for something to feel good about regarding the present and future of USC football, look no further than Adoree' Jackson. What a player. What a playmaker...It's safe to say no one on the Trojans' roster impacts more elements of the game than Jackson. Besides his God-given tools–speed, quickness, leaping ability–Jackson has terrific instincts for the cornerback position and a relentless competitive drive. He simply refuses to allow opponents to beat him."

Tom Fornelli, CBSSports.com: "Oh how I adore Jackson...He could easily wind up being the country's most exciting player. Jackson is the kind of talent who could cause a coaching staff civil war as offensive and defensive coaches battle to keep Jackson to themselves. While it'd be understandable to want to limit Jackson to one side of the ball, USC is probably better served just getting him on the field as often as possible, because good things happen when he is."

Vincent Bonsignore, Los Angeles Daily News: "Jackson isn't just fast, he's really fast. Mix that with uncanny football skills, Floyd Mayweather head fakes and the ability to make his hips go one way and the rest of his body another is the sort of unfair combination most opponents can't quite deal with."

Cooper Perkins, Fox Sports: "Fans and media watching practices struggle to understand why opposing quarterbacks would so much as consider throwing in Adoree's direction. With his fantastic closing ability and natural feel for the cornerback position, he is already leaps and bounds ahead of the curve."

Kyle Bonagura, ESPN.com: "His presence alone had a tendency to affect play calling and decision-making...Jackson is a rarity in college football for the number of ways he can change a game. Whether it's on defense, offense or special teams, there's always the potential to see something special from him...He's one of the most exciting players in college football."

Ted Miller, ESPN.com: "Jackson could become a Heisman Trophy candidate as a two-way player, and as a cornerback he's among the nation's elite in coverage."

Chris Low, ESPN.com: "Jackson is one of college football's most versatile and exciting players...He has everything it takes to be a shutdown cornerback at the next level. A big junior season would make him a hot commodity."

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT JUJU SMITH-SCHUSTER

Jake Davidson, Daily Trojan: "JuJu Smith-Schuster is a physical phenom with the potential to go down as the best Trojan receiver ever. His rare mix of speed and power combined with a penchant for elusive moves is truly remarkable."

Michael Lev, Orange County Register: "There's nothing he can't do on a football field...If every Trojan worked and played as hard as Smith-Schuster, USC would be undefeated...Smith-Schuster is deadly after the catch, using strength to power through defensive backs and speed to run away from them. He also has proved he can catch the ball in tight quarters. In short, Smith-Schuster has become the go-to guy he was destined to be...His physical gifts are extraordinary. No Photoshopping would be required to put him in ESPN The Magazine's 'Body Issue.' He has excellent speed for a 215-pounder. He also offers a lot in the way of intangibles. He is among the Trojans' most enthusiastic and hardest-working players. His positive attitude is infectious. He's already a team leader. Smith-Schuster is unquestionably one of USC's most valuable players."

Jeremy Shapiro, WeAreSC.com: "JuJu Smith-Schuster is a mismatch for defenses—too fast for safeties and too strong for most corners."

2015 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – September 5, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 55, Arkansas State 6
Att: 79,809

Arkansas State	0	0	6	0	—	6
USC	14	14	14	13	—	55

QB Cody Kessler threw 4 touchdown passes, TB Tre Madden ran for 102 yards with a TD (he also had a scoring reception) and the Trojan defense had 4 takeaways to help No. 8 USC get its 2015 campaign off to a convincing start with a 55-6 thrashing over Sun Belt member Arkansas State before 79,809 fans in the Coliseum and a Pac-12 Networks audience.

It was the first meeting between the teams. It extended USC's winning streak in season openers to 17 (not including 1 win vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: 18). It was USC's most points in an opener since 2009 and was the fewest points scored by Arkansas State in any game since 2008.

USC piled up 509 yards of total offense on just 64 plays (8.0 average), while Arkansas State held the ball 35:31 and ran 87 plays while getting 401 total yards. Troy struck quickly on its 7 offensive scoring drives, which averaged 1:25 each (none exceeded 3:17 and only 2 were longer than 1:14).

WR JuJu Smith-Schuster hauled in a career-long 61-yard scoring pass from Kessler on the fourth play of the game. USC built up a 28-0 halftime lead as WR Steven Mitchell Jr. caught a 14-yard Kessler TD pass at the end of the first quarter, then Madden raced a career-best 65 yards for a touchdown and Kessler found TE Taylor McNamara on a 2-yard scoring toss on consecutive possessions in the middle of the second quarter.

After Arkansas State scored on the opening drive of the second half on a 9-yard run by RB Michael Gordon, USC scored on 4 of 5 possessions beginning midway through the third quarter: Madden caught an 8-yard Kessler TD pass, TB Ronald Jones II raced 44 yards for a TD, ILB Osa Masina picked up an errant Red Wolves lateral and sped 46 yards for a score early in the final quarter and TB Aca'Cedric Ware had a 6-yard TD run.

Kessler was good on 73.1% of his passes (19-of-26) for 240 yards while playing just 3 quarters, but was sacked 5 times. Madden had 117 all-purpose yards (102 on 12 rushes for an 8.5 average and 15 on 2 receptions). Jones added 86 yards on 6 carries, while Smith-Schuster (89 yards) and Mitchell (32 yards) each had 4 grabs.

ILB Cameron Smith, who became the first USC true freshman to start an opener at inside linebacker since Riki Gray (Ellison) did so in 1978 against Texas Tech, and S Matt Lopes led USC with 7 tackles each. OLB Su'a Cravens had 6 stops and an interception, while S Chris Hawkins had 5 tackles, an interception and a fumble recovery.

USC had 23 players make their Trojan playing debut, including 13 true freshmen.

For Arkansas State, QB Fredi Knighten completed just 34.8% of his passes (8-of-23) for 86 yards with 2 picks and he ran for a team-best 58 yards on 14 carries, while QB James Tabary came off the bench to hit 7-of-11 throws for 95 yards. Gordon rushed for 53 yards on 11 tries and RB Warren Wand added 52 yards on 10 attempts. WR J.D. McKissic caught 5 passes for 36 yards for the Red Wolves.

GAME 2 – September 12, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 59, Idaho 9
Att: 72,422

Idaho	0	3	6	0	—	9
USC	21	17	14	7	—	59

WR JuJu Smith-Schuster caught 2 long touchdown passes, QB Cody Kessler threw 3 TDs and TBs Tre Madden and Justin Davis each ran for a pair of scores as No. 8 USC steamrolled Idaho, 59-9, on a hot and muggy evening in the Coliseum in front of 72,422 fans and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

It was USC's ninth victory in as many tries over former conference foe Idaho. It was the first time since 2004-05 that USC scored at least 45 points in 4 straight games and the first time since 2005 that it scored at least 50 points in back-to-back games. USC's combined 114 points scored in its first 2 outings of 2015 were its most scored in the first 2 games of a season since 2005 (133), while its 15 points surrendered were its fewest in a season's opening 2 outings since 2008 (10).

The Trojans piled up 737 total yards (453 through the air), their most since getting 745 versus Washington State in 2005, to Idaho's 311 (just 71 rushing) despite holding the ball only 25:36 (Troy's 9 scoring drives averaged nearly 75 yards each but took just 2:09 of time each). USC averaged 10.0 yards per play, including 7.7 on the ground, and had no turnovers and gave up no sacks. But Troy converted just 1-of-6 third downs. Nearly all the Trojans' active roster got into the game, as 81 players saw action (including 14 true freshmen).

USC scored on its first 2 possessions, 8 of its first 9 and 9 of its first 11. Davis had scoring runs of 1 and 7 yards early in the first quarter, then Kessler hit Smith-Schuster with a 50-yard TD bomb late in the quarter. After PK Austin Rehkow's 20-yard field goal got Idaho on the board at the top of the second quarter, Madden got into the end zone on 7- and 9-yard runs before PK Alex Wood kicked his first career field goal (a 24-yarder) near the end of the half.

Idaho scored on the opening possession of the second half on a 10-yard pass from QB Matt Linehan to TE Trent Cowan, but USC responded with Kessler TD tosses to WR Isaac Whitney (28 yards) and Smith-Schuster (41 yards) on Troy's next 2 drives. TB Ronald Jones II's 1-yard scoring run, a play after his 44-yard burst, closed out the game's scoring midway through the final quarter.

Kessler completed 83.9% of his passes (26-of-31) for a career-high 410 yards while playing the first 3 quarters (he hit 11 of his first 12 aerials and 16 of his first 18). Smith-Schuster had 10 catches for 192 yards, both career bests, and was 1 of 14 Trojans to catch a pass (CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson had 4 grabs for 62 yards). Jones led all rushers with 83 yards on 8 carries, while Davis added 74 yards on 5 tries and Madden had 40 on 7 attempts.

LB Cameron Smith led USC with 6 tackles, while ILB Anthony Sarao and DT Delvon Simmons added 5 stops each.

For Idaho, Linehan was 20-of-32 for 194 yards and QB Jake Luton was 8-of-13 for 46 yards off the bench. WR Jacob Sannon caught 9 passes for 79 yards, TE Deon Watson added 6 grabs for 66 yards and WR Callen Hightower had 5 catches for 49 yards.

GAME 3 – September 19, Los Angeles Coliseum
Stanford 41, USC 31
Att: 78,306

Stanford	7	17	7	10	—	41
USC	14	7	7	3	—	31

RB Remound Wright ran for 3 short touchdowns and QB Kevin Hogan threw for 279 yards with a pair of TDs to help Stanford overcome an 11-point first half deficit and defeat No. 6 USC, 41-31, in the Pac-12 opener before 78,306 fans in the Coliseum and a national ABC audience.

It was the Trojans' fifth loss since 2008 in league openers. It was the sixth consecutive USC-Stanford game decided by 10 points or less. The game closed out Troy's season-opening 3-game homestand. It was just the second time in Stanford's last 39 games that the Cardinal surrendered at least 30 points.

Stanford had 474 yards of total offense (279 passing) and 26 first downs on 73 plays while holding the ball 39:29 (the most against USC since the Cardinal had the same amount in 2000) and converting 8-of-12 third downs. The Cardinal scored on 7 of its 9 possessions, including 4 in a row in the first half and 3 consecutive to seal the game in the second half. USC ran only 60 plays, getting 427 total yards (272 passing) and 20 first downs, and Troy converted just 4-of-10 third downs and had 8 penalties.

USC scored on the game's opening drive on TB Tre Madden's 5-yard run, but Stanford countered later in the first quarter on Hogan's 16-yard TD toss to TE Austin Hooper. USC answered right back with a 6-yard scoring pass from QB Cody Kessler to WR Steven Mitchell late in the first quarter, only to see Stanford close the gap on PK Conrad Ukropina's 42-yard field goal early in the second quarter. USC extended its lead to 21-10 on the ensuing possession as Kessler hit WR JuJu Smith-Schuster on a 54-scoring aerial. But Stanford scored on its next 2 possessions, first on Wright's 1-yard run and then on Hogan's 17-yard TD pass to WR Devon Cajuste with 3 seconds left in the half to take a 24-21 lead.

USC came out and scored on its first drive of the second half with another Kessler-to-Mitchell TD pass (this one for 1 yard). But back-to-back 1-yard Wright TD runs built Stanford's lead to 38-28 early in the final quarter before the team's exchanged field goals (first a 36-yarder by PK Alex Wood and then Ukropina's 46-yarder).

Kessler was 25-of-32 for 272 yards and the 3 scores (he started off by hitting 16 of his first 18 passes for the second straight week), Smith caught 8 passes for 153 yards (both game highs) and Madden gained 64 yards on 9 rushes (a 7.1 average). OLB Su'a Cravens led USC with 13 tackles and had one of the team's 3 sacks, while ILB Cameron Smith added 12 stops.

For Stanford, Hogan was 18-of-23 for 279 yards, RB Christian McCaffrey had 249 all-purpose yards (115 on 26 carries, 37 on 3 receptions and 97 on 5 kickoff returns), Hooper caught 4 passes for 79 yards and ILB Blake Martinez had 14 tackles.

GAME 4 – September 26, Tempe, Arizona
USC 42, Arizona State 14
Att: 61,904

USC	7	28	0	7	—	42
Arizona State	0	0	7	7	—	14

QB Cody Kessler threw 5 touchdowns, including a pair to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster and an 80-yard catch-and-run to CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson, and the Trojan defense forced 4 turnovers that each led to TDs as No. 19 USC thoroughly handled Arizona State, 42-14, on a hot (95 degrees) evening in Tempe in front of 61,904 fans and a national ESPN audience.

Not only did Troy—making its first road trip of 2015—bounce back from its Pac-12 opening loss to Stanford, but the Trojans snapped a 2-game losing streak to ASU.

USC built a 35-0 halftime lead thanks to a 28-point second quarter. On USC's second possession of the game (after OLB Scott Felix recovered a fumble forced by OLB Su'a Cravens), Jackson took a Kessler swing pass and raced 80 yards for a TD, a career long reception. Then, early in the second quarter following an interception by CB John Plattenburg, Kessler hit WR Steven Mitchell on a 27-yard TD. Late in the half, Kessler and Smith-Schuster hooked up for a 4-yard TD. On the following series ASU drove to USC's 1 before DT Delvon Simmons forced a fumble, which S Chris Hawkins picked up an jetted 94 yards for a TD. The Sun Devils fumbled away the ensuing kickoff, as OLB Quinton Powell's hit led to FB Soma Vainuku's recovery, and Kessler soon after hit Smith-Schuster on a 10-yard scoring toss with 3 seconds to go in the half. ASU also missed a pair of field goals in the half.

The Sun Devils scored twice after intermission on 1- and 4-yard runs by RB Demario Richard, sandwiching Kessler's 10-yard TD strike to WR Isaac Whitney early in the fourth quarter.

Kessler was 19-of-33 for 375 yards with the 5 scores, but his interception at the ASU 1-yard line in the game's opening drive snapped his streak of 103 passes without an interception. Smith-Schuster had 5 catches for 103 yards (including a 52-yarder on the game's opening play), while Jackson had 184 all-purpose yards on just 5 touches (a career-best 131 receiving on 3 receptions, with a 45-yarder on third-and-six to keep a TD drive live to go along with his 80-yard score, and 53 yards on 2 punt returns, including a ridiculous 45-yarder where he juked, jumped and slipped defenders). TB Ronald Jones led USC with 54 yards on 10 carries. Cravens and S Marvell Tell each had 6 tackles, with 2 of Cravens' for losses.

Arizona State ran off 13 more plays than USC (79 to 66), but the teams were nearly even in total yardage (455 for USC to ASU's 454), but the Sun Devils had more first downs (26 to 18) and possession time (32:22). Just 76 of USC's yards came on the ground (ASU ran for 182 yards). Troy had 10 penalties (ASU had just 2), but converted 10-of-16 third downs and posted 3 sacks.

For ASU, which converted just 5-of-13 third downs, Richard had ran for 131 yards on 14 tries, QB Mike Bercovici completed 23-of-44 passes for 272 yards and WR Gary Chambers had 5 grabs for 103 yards.

GAME 5 – October 8, Los Angeles Coliseum
Washington 17, USC 12
Att: 63,623

Washington	0	3	7	7	—	17
USC	3	3	0	6	—	12

Unranked Washington stunned No. 17 USC by posting a 17-12 Thursday night upset in the Coliseum in front of 63,623 fans and an ESPN audience.

It was Troy's fewest points against the Huskies since being shut out in 1997 and it gave USC its first back-to-back home losses in a season since 2001. Because of the Pac-12 schedule rotation, it was the first meeting since 2012 between USC and Washington, the former stop of USC head coach Steve Sarkisian.

Washington, which owned the Pac-12's top unit in total, rushing and scoring defense, limited USC to season lows in total yards (346), passing yards (156) and points (12). The Trojans converted just 1-of-13 third downs, had 3 turnovers and 8 penalties, gave up 5 sacks and were tackled for losses 11 times and held the ball just 27:31. UW's offense also struggled, getting only 299 total yards, including just 164 passing, both USC opponent season lows.

USC held a 3-0 lead following a 34-yard field goal by PK Alex Wood late in the first quarter even though the Huskies advanced to at least the Trojan 35-yard line on their first 3 possessions (UW missed a field goal and CB Iman Marshall had an interception on 2 of those series, both of which started following interceptions of QB Cody Kessler passes). The Huskies answered Wood's field goal with a 21-yarder by PK Cameron Van Winkle on its ensuing drive early in the second quarter, but USC took a 6-3 lead into intermission on Wood's 21-yard field goal at the first half gun.

USC fumbled on its first series of the second half and Washington used a trick play to score on the next play, a 27-yard toss from WR Marvin Hall (who had taken a lateral from QB Jake Browning) to wide-open TE Joshua Perkins. Washington built its lead to 17-6 early in the fourth quarter on a 1-yard TD run by TB Myles Gaskin, but USC countered on the next possession with a 1-yard TD run by TB Ronald Jones (Troy's 2-point conversion try failed). The Trojans got the ball twice more in the game and even advanced to UW's 25-yard line on the second drive, but couldn't put up any points.

Kessler was 16-of-29 for 156 yards with the 2 picks, TB Tre Madden had 120 yards on 17 carries, Jones added 65 yards on 8 attempts and WR JuJu Smith-Schuster had 6 catches for 82 yards. LB Cameron Smith had a game-best 12 tackles and DT Delvon Simmons added 8 stops.

For UW, Browning was 16-of-32 for 137 yards, Gaskin had 134 yards on 22 carries, WR Jaydon Mickens had 6 grabs for 49 yards and Perkins had 4 for 57 yards.

GAME 6 – October 17, South Bend, Indiana
Notre Dame 41, USC 31
Att: 80,795

USC	10	14	7	0	—	31
Notre Dame	21	3	0	17	—	41

No. 14 Notre Dame scored 17 unanswered points in the final quarter to thwart a valiant comeback effort by USC and post a 41-31 victory in South Bend on a cold night (temperatures dipped into the mid-30s during the game) in front of a sold-out crowd of 80,795 and a national NBC audience.

It was Notre Dame's most points against USC since getting 49 in 1977. The Trojans were led by interim head coach Clay Helton, who took over earlier in the week upon the termination of Steve Sarkisian for conduct not up to the standards of a USC head coach.

USC, which trailed 21-10 late in the first half before tying it at 24-24 by halftime, held a 31-24 lead entering the fourth quarter. But Notre Dame went on a 90-yard drive to tie the score at 31-31 on a 6-yard run by RB C.J. Prosise, followed by a 91-yard drive on its next series that culminated with a 10-yard touchdown pass from QB DeShone Kizer to WR Corey Robinson. Then, on their next drive, the Irish finished the scoring by tacking on a 32-yard field goal by PK Justin Yoon following an interception.

USC had 590 yards of total offense, including a Notre Dame opponent record 440 passing, against a defense that had been allowing just 333.7 total yards and 153.5 passing yards. But the Trojans had 10 penalties, 2 turnovers, a punt blocked for a TD and a missed field goal. Notre Dame had 476 total yards (262 passing, 214 rushing) on just 60 plays.

The game got off to a wild start, with 31 points in the first quarter (ND's 21 points were its most ever in a quarter against the Trojans). USC scored on the game's opening series, with QB Cody Kessler running for a 3-yard score. But on Notre Dame's first play of the game, Kizer hit WR Will Fuller for a 75-yard score. USC countered right back, as PK Alex Wood nailed a career-long 42-yard field goal. The Irish responded with a 25-yard Prosise scoring run. Then, on USC's next series, WR Equanimeous St. Brown blocked a Trojan punt and WR Amir Carlisle returned it 5 yards for a TD late in the opening quarter (it was the first blocked punt for a touchdown against USC since the Irish did it in 2002).

Notre Dame nearly scored again at the top of the second quarter, but ILB Cameron Smith recovered a fumble in the end zone that was forced by CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson. Yoon's 32-yard field goal late in the second quarter upped the Irish lead to 21-10, but on USC's ensuing play WR Jalen Greene took a lateral and fired a 75-yard TD to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (career longs for both players). After USC got the ball back, Kessler hit Jackson on a short pass and Jackson raced a career-long 83 yards for a TD to tie it at 24-24 late in the half (Wood's 36-yard field goal try at the end of the half hit the left upright after the Irish called 3 timeouts to ice him).

USC built a 31-24 lead on its first possession of the second half on Kessler's 4-yard TD pass to TE Taylor McNamara (set up by a 65-yard run by TB Ronald Jones).

Kessler was 30-of-46 for 365 yards and the 2 TDs, but threw a pair of fourth quarter picks. Smith-Schuster (139 yards) and TB Tre Madden (47 yards) each had a game-best 6 receptions. Jones ran for 73 yards on 6 carries. Smith led USC with 11 tackles, while OLB Su'a Cravens added 10 stops.

For ND, Prosise ran for 143 yards on 19 carries and had 5 receptions for 32 yards, Kizer was 15-of-24 for 227 yards (he also rushed for 47 yards on 14 tries) but was sacked 4 times and Fuller caught 3 balls for 131 yards.

USC athletic director Pat Haden was taken from the sideline during pre-game while feeling lightheaded, but checked out okay after examination by team doctors and visiting a local hospital.

GAME 7 – October 24, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 42, Utah 24
Att: 73,435

Utah	14	3	0	7	—	24
USC	7	21	7	7	—	42

True freshman ILB Cameron Smith had 3 interceptions, including a 54-yard scoring runback late in the first half to break open the game, and USC rushed for 4 touchdowns as the Trojans defeated unbeaten No. 3 Utah, 42-24, before 73,435 fans in the Coliseum and a national FOX audience.

It was the first time an AP unranked USC team beat an AP Top-3 team since 1975 (when Troy defeated No. 2 Texas A&M in the Liberty Bowl) and the first time any USC team beat an AP Top-3 team since the 2007 Rose Bowl (following the 2006 season) when the No. 8 Trojans beat No. 3 Michigan. It was the most point surrendered by Utah in 2015, as well as USC's most points in the series since getting 51 in 1917. It kept Utah unsuccessful against USC in Los Angeles since 1916. USC interim head coach Clay Helton became the eighth consecutive Trojan head coach to win his first game in the Coliseum.

Smith's 3 picks were the most by a Trojan since Jason Oliver had 3 in 1991 versus Penn State. Smith, who also had a team-best 9 tackles, had 122 return yards on his interceptions, including 41 yards to set up USC's game-tying TD early in the second quarter and 27 yards in the fourth quarter.

The Trojans opened the scoring with a 9-yard run by TB Justin Davis midway through the first quarter. But Utah scored quickly twice late in the quarter, first on a 30-yard pass from QB Travis Wilson to WR Britain Covey and then on WR Bubba Poole's 2-yard sweep that came a play after Covey's 40-yard punt return.

It was all USC after that, as USC tied it on FB Soma Vainuku's 1-yard plunge after Smith's first interception, then TB Ronald Jones' 18-yard TD run on Troy's next possession and then Smith's scoring runback on its next series to put USC up 28-14. Utah PK Andy Phillips nailed a 53-yard field goal with 5 seconds to go in the half, the longest against the Trojans since 2006 and the longest opponent field goal in the Coliseum since 2003.

In the third quarter, USC put together a 17-play, 83-yard drive that consumed 8:53, capped by QB Cody Kessler's 1-yard TD sneak (it was the first time since the 2009 San Jose State game that 4 different Trojans ran for a score). Then, Kessler hit WR JuJu Smith-Schuster with a 25-yard scoring toss on USC's next series. Late in the game, Covey took a short Wilson pass and raced 66 yards for the game's final points.

Kessler hit 75.0% of his passes (21-of-28) for 264 yards, Smith-Schuster had 8 receptions for 143 yards (both game highs), Jones ran for 73 yards on 15 carries and Davis added 66 yards on 19 tries. OLB Su'a Cravens had an endzone interception on Utah's final play of the game, giving USC 4 picks (its most in a game since getting 4 versus Fresno State in 2014).

USC had 380 total yards to Utah's 353 and Troy held the ball 34:50. Utah converted just 3-of-11 third downs and neither of its fourth down tries.

Wilson completed 24-of-36 passes for 254 yards for the Utes, Covey caught 7 passes for 129 yards and TB Devontae Booker ran for a season-low 62 yards on 14 tries (he also caught 6 passes for 49 yards).

USC entered the game with 5 projected starters out with injuries (WRs Darreus Rogers and Steven Mitchell, TB Tre Madden, OT Chad Wheeler and S John Plattenburg) and 2 others got hurt in the first half (C Toa Lobendahn and TE Taylor McNamara).

Cal responded with a 6-yard TD run by RB Daniel Lasco, but USC responded on the next series with a 43-yard Wood field goal.

The Bears closed within 6 points late in the game, but USC was able to run out the clock aided by a pair of third down conversion runs by Madden and then TB Justin Davis.

Jones ran for a game-best 80 yards on 11 carries, Madden added 62 yards on 14 tries and Davis had 42 yards on 15 rushes. QB Cody Kessler hit 81.8% of his passes (18-of-42) for 186 yards, with WR JuJu Smith-Schuster getting 5 grabs for 55 yards and WR Deontay Burnett added 3 catches for 82 yards.

Arizona	7	10	3	10	—	30
USC	0	17	0	21	—	38

USC—behind TB Ronald Jones' long touchdown run while setting a USC freshman game rushing yardage record, WR JuJu Smith-Schuster's long TD catch despite having a broken hand, TB Justin Davis' 2 scoring runs and a defense that limited Arizona's strong running attach to 30 yards—overcame a 14-0 deficit to defeat the Wildcats, 38-30, in front of a Homecoming crowd of 76,309 and a national ESPN audience.

It was the ninth consecutive USC-Arizona game decided by 8 points or less.

Jones, who also caught a scoring pass, ran for 177 yards on 19 carries to break LenDale White's USC frosh (true or redshirt) mark by 28 yards, Smith-Schuster had 8 receptions for 138 yards (he had surgery on his right hand on Monday of game week, as a plate with 8 screws was inserted into his hand and he wore a soft cast in the game) and Davis added 845 yards on 16 tries. QB Cody Kessler was 22-of-36 for 243 yards. The Trojan defense allowed Arizona, which was averaging 512.2 total yards and 265.0 on the ground, to gain just 352 total yards, including only 60 rushing.

USC fell behind 14-0 on a pair of passes from QB Anu Solomon to WRs Nate Phillips (9 yards after a Trojan fumble) and David Richards (3 yards at the top of the second quarter). But USC tied it 17-17 at halftime, first on a 25-yard field goal by PK Alex Wood, then on Smith-Schuster's 72-yard TD grab of a Kessler bomb a play after S John Plattenburg's interception and then, after Arizona PK Casey Skowron hit a 37-yard field goal, on a 9-yard Kessler toss to Jones late in the half.

The Wildcats went back ahead early in the third quarter on a 38-yard Skowron field goal. But, on the first play of the fourth quarter, Davis put USC ahead for good on a 9-yard TD run. After Skowron's 44-yard field goal, Jones jetted 74 yards for a TD and Davis added a 16-yard scoring run late in the half. Arizona closed the scoring with 10 seconds to play on Solomon's 4-yard TD pass to WR Cayleb Jones.

USC has 472 total yards (229 rushing), converted 10-of-18 third downs and posted 6 sacks.

Plattenburg and OLB Su'a Cravens each had a team-best 8 tackles for USC (Cravens had 2.5 tackles for loss), while DT Antwaun Woods had 2 sacks.

Solomon was 31-of-46 for 352 yards, RB Jared Baker ran for 63 yards on 13 attempts, Richards had 9 grabs for 86 yards, WR Johnny Jackson had 8 catches for 89 yards and Phillips added 6 receptions for 94 yards.

GAME 10 – November 13, Boulder, Colorado

Att: 37,905

USC	3	3	14	7	—	27
Colorado	7	10	0	7	—	24

For the second week in a row, USC overcame a 14-point deficit, this time using a trio of second half touchdown passes by QB Cody Kessler and a pair of big plays by DT Delvon Simmons to hold on for a 27-24 win at Colorado on a chilly (temperatures dipped into the mid-30s) night in front of 37,905 fans and an ESPN2 audience in Troy's first game on Friday the 13th.

It upped USC's record versus Colorado to 10-0. It was the first time since the 2015 Arizona State game that USC won after trailing by double digits at halftime.

The Trojans trailed 17-3 late in the first half before PK Alex Wood hit his second 22-yard field goal of the half at the intermission gun. After Wood's first field goal on USC's opening drive, Colorado scored 17 straight points, first on a 4-yard TD run by TB Phillip Lindsay late in the first quarter, then on a 9-yard pass from backup QB Cade Apsay to WR Nelson Spruce following an interception (starting QB Sefo Liufau was lost for the game with a foot injury at the end of the first quarter) and a 28-yard field goal by PK Diego Gonzalez.

But USC came roaring out of halftime by scoring 21 consecutive points on its first 3 drives, all on Kessler passes (4 yards to FB Jahleel Pinner, 2 yards to TE Taylor McNamara after DT Antwaun Woods recovered a fumble forced by Simmons and 36 yards to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster a play after Simmons blocked a Buffalo field goal try early in the fourth quarter.

Colorado pulled within 3 points with 6:13 to play on Apsay's 2-yard TD toss to FB George Frazier (2 plays after Spruce's 45-yard punt return). The Buffaloes got the ball back less than 2 minutes later, but couldn't advance past their 43-yard line and USC was able to run out the clock.

Kessler was 17-of-27 for 2014 yards, TB Justin Davis ran for a game-high 85 yards on 14 carries, Ronald Jones II added 61 yards on 19 rushes, and both Smith-Schuster (66 yards) and WR Steven Mitchell (59 yards) each had 3 receptions.

For the USC defense, which had 6 sacks, OLB Su'a Cravens had 8 tackles (2 for losses) and ILB Anthony Sarao had 7 stops.

For CU, Apsay as 18-of-23 for 128 yards off the bench and Spruce had 7 grabs for 94 yards.

USC had more total yards (333 to 281) and limited the Buffaloes to just 59 rushing yards (just 2 in the fourth quarter).

GAME 11 – November 21, Eugene, Oregon
Oregon 48, USC 28
Att: 59,094

USC	7	7	14	0	—	28
Oregon	14	17	7	10	—	48

QB Vernon Adams Jr. threw a USC opponent record 6 touchdowns as No. 23 Oregon defeated the No. 22 Trojans on a cold (41 degrees at kickoff) day in Eugene in front of a sold-out crowd of 59,094 and a national ESPN audience.

It was the teams' first meeting since 2012 (and the first in Eugene since 2011). Despite the loss, USC remained in control of advancing to the Pac-12 Championship Game, needing a win in the regular season finale against UCLA.

Adams completed 80% of his passes (20-of-25) for 407 yards and threw his TDs to 6 different receivers. Oregon had 578 total yards (9.2 yards per play), while USC had 424. USC held the ball 34:54, but was penalized 12 times (to the Ducks' 4) and gave up 5 sacks.

The teams exchanged touchdowns early on, with Adams hitting WR Bralon Addison on a 48-yard throw midway through the opening quarter, but USC responded on the ensuring series as QB Cody Kessler threw a 27-yard TD to WR Darreus Rogers. But on Oregon's next play from scrimmage, Adams found TE Evan Baylis for a 52-yard score late in the quarter. USC came right back, as Kessler hit TE Tyler Petite on a 12-yard TD early in the second quarter.

The Ducks scored on their final 3 possessions of the half to go up 31-14, first a 37-yard Adams TD toss to WR Darren Carrington, then a 30-yard Adams touchdown aerial to RB Kani Benoit and then a 37-yard field goal by PK Aidan Schneider with 1 second to go. Oregon had the ball only 9:28 in the first half, but had 407 total yards.

The teams traded touchdowns to open the second half, with Adams finding WR Dwayne Stanford for a 21-yard score and then TB Ronald Jones jetting 12 yards for a TD. USC pulled within 38-28 late in the third quarter on CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson's 41-yard scoring punt return. But, after recovering a fumble on USC's next possession early in the fourth quarter, Oregon added to its lead on Adams' 26-yard TD pass to S-WR Charles Nelson on the next play. The Ducks added a 22-yard Schneider field goal on their next drive to finish the scoring.

Kessler was 30-of-41 for 238 yards, including 7 passes to WR Steven Mitchell (31 yards), 6 to WR De'Quan Hampton (47 yards) and 5 each to WR JuJu Smith-Schuster (57 yards) and Rogers (53 yards). TB Justin Davis ran for a career-best 141 yards on 16 carries and Jones added 56 yards on 14 tries. ILB Olajuwon Tucker, in his first career start, had 9 tackles (2.5 for losses, with 1.5 sacks) and S Chris Hawkins had an interception.

Oregon RB Royce Freeman had 147 yards on 20 carries, while Addison caught 5 passes for 105 yards, Carrington had 4 for 66 yards and Stanford had 4 for 57 yards.

USC players entered the field carrying U.S. and French flags and wore stickers of both countries' flags on the back of their helmets in honor of the victims of the recent Paris terrorist attacks.

GAME 12 – November 28, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 40, UCLA 21
Att: 83,602

UCLA	7	7	7	0	—	21
USC	3	17	13	7	—	40

QB Cody Kessler threw 2 touchdowns, TB Justin Davis ran for 130 yards, CB Iman Marshall had 2 interceptions, CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson returned a punt for a TD for the second game in a row, DE Rasheem Green returned a fumble for a TD, PK Alex Wood had a pair of field goals and USC held the ball for more than 40 minutes to defeat No. 22 UCLA, 40-21, in front of 83,602 fans in the Coliseum and a national audience on ABC and ESPN2.

The win not only gave the Trojans a share of the Pac-12 South Division title and a berth in their first Pac-12 Championship game, but it snapped a 3-game losing skid to the Bruins and sent USC's 25 seniors out in style in their final home game.

USC allowed the Bruins to hold the ball just 19:59, including just 1:15 in the fourth quarter when they had only 6 plays and 11 total yards. USC had 410 total yards (235 rushing) on 85 plays, while UCLA had 367 total yards on 66 plays while converting just 4-of-14 third downs.

USC opened the game's scoring on Wood's 30-yard field goal midway through the first quarter, but UCLA went ahead on TB Paul Perkins' 19-yard fourth-down TD run late in the quarter. The teams then exchanged second quarter touchdowns, first on Kessler's 1-yard TD sneak and then on QB Josh Rosen's 19-yard scoring toss to WR Thomas Duarte. USC pulled within a point late in the half on Wood's 21-yard field goal and then went into intermission with a 20-14 lead on Jackson's 42-yard scoring punt return.

The Bruins retook a 1-point lead midway through the third quarter on Perkins' 1-yard run but the Trojans scored the game's final 20 points aided by a pair of UCLA miscues. DE Claude Pelon sacked Rosen on the Bruins' next possession and Green recovered the ball and rumbled 31 yards for a TD. Then, after Marshall picked off Rosen on UCLA's ensuing drive (snapping Rosen's streak of throws without a pick at a school-record 246), Kessler found WR Darreus Rogers for a 20-yard TD aerial late in the third quarter. Kessler hit TE Taylor McNamara with a 7-yard scoring pass midway through the fourth quarter to put the game out of reach.

Kessler was 15-of-26 for 175 yards, 100 of Davis's 130 yards (on 25 carries) came in the fourth quarter as USC was killing the clock, TB Ronald Jones II added 63 yards on 17 carries while setting the USC freshman season rushing yardage record and WR JuJu Smith-Schuster had a game-best 6 catches for 85 yards. Jackson and OLB Uchenna Nwosu each had a team-best 6 tackles.

For UCLA, Rosen was 19-of-37 for 227 yards, while Perkins ran for 95 yards on 17 carries and caught 5 passes for 36 yards.

GAME 13 – December 5, Santa Clara, California
Pac-12 Championship Game
Stanford 41, USC 22
Att: 58,476

USC	0	3	13	6	—	22
Stanford	3	10	14	14	—	41

RB Christian McCaffery had 461 all-purpose yards while running for a touchdown, catching another and even throwing a TD to lead No. 7 Stanford to a 41-22 victory over No. 24 USC in the Pac-12 Championship Game in front of 58,476 fans in Levi's Stadium in Santa Clara (Calif.) and a national ESPN audience.

McCaffery eclipsed Barry Sanders' NCAA season all-purpose yardage record during the game, as he had 207 yards on 32 carries with a TD, 105 yards on 4 receptions with another score, 120 yards on 5 kickoff returns and 29 yards on 2 punt returns (he also threw an 11-yard TD) en route to setting a USC opponent game all-purpose yardage mark.

The Trojans, in their first Pac-12 Championship Game after winning the Pac-12 South Division title, were playing their first contest under new permanent head coach Clay Helton, who had the interim tag removed from his title earlier in the week.

Stanford had 417 total yards (262 rushing) while holding the ball 35:42 and not having a turnover. USC gained 357 total yards, but converted just 4-of-11 third downs.

It was all Stanford in the first half, but USC pulled ahead in the third quarter before the Cardinal regained control. USC had just one possession (running off just 2:25 of time) in the first quarter and had only 8:52 of possession time in the first half.

The Cardinal scored on their first 3 series in the opening half, first on a 30-yard field goal by PK Conrad Ukropina, then on McCaffrey's 11-yard toss to QB Kevin Hogan followed by a 23-yard Ukropina field goal midway through the second quarter (USC stopped Stanford on the 6-yard line on their fourth drive). USC got on the board late in the half on a 40-yard field goal by PK Alex Wood to trail by 13-3.

The Trojans scored TDs on their first 2 possessions of the second half to take a 16-13 lead, first on a 1-yard pass from QB Cody Kessler to FB Jahleel Pinner and then on TB Ronald Jones' 27-yard run. But Stanford came right back to take back the lead, first getting a 7-yard TD run by Hogan and then on USC's ensuing possession ILB Blake Martinez forced a fumble that DE-DT Solomon Thomas returned 34 yards for a score late in the third quarter to go up 27-16.

USC narrowed the margin to 27-22 on its next series as Kessler sprinted 12 yards for a TD early in the fourth quarter, but Troy could get no closer as Stanford scored on its next 2 drives (a 28-yard Hogan-to-McCaffrey pass and then a 10-yard McCaffrey run).

Kessler was 22-of-37 for 187 yards, with WR JuJu Smith-Schuster catching a career-best 11 balls for 87 yards. TB Justin Davis ran for 99 yards on 17 tries and Jones added 50 on 6 carries. ILB Olajuwon Tucker had a game-best 13 tackles.

Hogan completed 9-of-12 passes for 144 yards.

Att: 48,329

USC	0	7	7	7	—	21
Wisconsin	0	13	7	3	—	23

PK Rafael Gaglianone kicked 3 field goals, including a 29-yarder with 2:27 to play, to give No. 23 Wisconsin a 23-21 victory over USC in the National Funding Holiday Bowl on a chilly evening before 48,329 fans in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium and a national ESPN audience.

It was USC's first loss to Wisconsin in 7 meetings (the teams last played in 1966) and it snapped Troy's 13-game winning streak over Big Ten squads (including 8 straight in bowls).

USC trailed the entire game before taking a 21-20 lead with 10:19 to play on a 7-yard touchdown pass from QB Cody Kessler to WR Darreus Rogers. But later in the final quarter, the Badgers drove 42 yards into position for Gaglianone's game-winning 3-pointer.

Overall, USC had only 286 total yards (just 65 rushing) and 16 first downs (all season lows) on 61 plays against a Wisconsin defense that came into the game ranked first nationally in scoring (13.1), third in total yards (267.1), fourth in rushing (97.9) and sixth in passing (169.2). Troy converted just 5-of-14 third downs. Wisconsin ended up with 394 total yards on 75 plays while posting 37:18 of possession time.

After a scoreless first quarter, Wisconsin built a 10-0 lead on Gaglianone's 28-yard field goal early in the second quarter and then a 6-yard scoring run by RB Corey Clement on the Badgers' next possession. USC responded on its ensuing drive with a 1-yard TD run by TB Justin Davis, but Wisconsin answered right back by driving 71 yards on 12 plays to set up Gaglianone's 33-yard field goal with 26 seconds to play in the half to give the Badgers a 13-7 edge. Wisconsin had 238 yards on 39 plays in the first half to USC's 114 yards on 24 plays (Troy had the ball just 9:49).

Wisconsin scored on its first series of the second half as QB Joel Stave hit TE Austin Traylor with a 4-yard TD toss. But the Trojans got a 4-yard Davis TD run on the next series to pull within 20-14 late in the third quarter.

Kessler was 18-of-32 for 221 yards, WR JuJu Smith-Schuster had 4 catches for 65 yards, TB Ronald Jones ran for 47 yards on 8 carries and DT Delvon Simmons had a game-best and career-high 11 tackles (2 for losses).

For Wisconsin, Stave was 18-of-27 for 217 yards to earn Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP honors, while WR Alex Erickson had 5 receptions for 54 yards and Clement ran for a game-best 66 yards on 19 tries. OLB Jack Cichy, the game's Defensive MVP, led Wisconsin with 9 tackles, including 3 consecutive sacks on a third quarter series right after USC had closed to 20-14 (he also hit Kessler's arm to force an interception with 1:44 to play).

ALL-TIME USC RECORD

The following is believed to be an accurate record of the outcome of all games of American football played by the USC varsity team. It was compiled by Michael J. Glenn. USC appreciates his invaluable efforts.

The information in this history is set forth in as brief a fashion as possible. To illustrate this, review the entries under 1989. Reading from left to right, the following information is given on the first line under the coach and captain data: (1) Date (Sept. 4); (2) Result (L-USC loss); (3) USC's Associated Press ranking going into the game (5); (4) USC's opponent (Illinois); (5) An indication that the game began after 5:00 p.m., local time (N); (6) An indication that the winning score occurred with 2:19 left in the game (2:19); (7) USC's opponent's Associated Press ranking going into the game (22); (8) Game score, with USC's point total given first (13-14); (9) An indication that the game was played at USC's home field (H); (10) Game attendance (54,622).

Other information may be noted on the line concerning the UCLA game. The "c" before the attendance figure indicates a capacity crowd. "(UCLA-13:43)" indicates that UCLA made the tying score with 13:43 left in the fourth quarter.

The line beneath the UCLA game record presents USC's regular season record, conference record, and conference finish, in that order. Next come the points scored and points given up.

Beneath this is USC's bowl game result, followed on the next line by USC's final overall record, USC's overall points scored and given up, and the season attendance total.

Other symbols: N1, N2, etc., indicate games played at a neutral site; (HC) indicates USC's Homecoming game; (U) indicates that the game result was a significant upset; (R) indicates that a major portion of the game was played in the rain; (Sn) indicates the game was played in snow conditions; and "Th" indicates a game played on Thanksgiving Day.

N1-Vacant Field bordered by Grand, Hope, Eighth, and Ninth Streets, Los Angeles, California

Note: The idea that USC should field a football team came from Professor Elmer Merrill. In a 1951 letter from Henry Goddard, USC's first coach, to then-sports information director Tom Lawless, the origins were described: "Football was (Prof. Elmer Merrill's) idea. When he learned that I had played on my college team, he said one day: 'Let's teach these boys football. You can play with them and coach them from within and I will coach them from the sidelines.' I readily agreed. He spoke to two or three of the boys that he knew and the game was born. The field was a vacant block, I would guess just S. or S.W. of (Bovard Field)."

So, USC decided not to wait the year, cancelling its home game the following week against Stanford and instead hosting St. Mary's that day. As it turned out, Stanford was back on the USC's schedule in 1925.

Not including 6 wins in L.A. Coliseum and 1 win and 1 loss in Rose Bowl vacated due to NCAA penalty (original record: 435-136-27 in L.A. Coliseum and 33-20-0 in Rose Bowl)*

Athletic Park took its name from its builder, the Los Angeles Athletic Club. Located on the northeast corner of Seventh and Alameda, it opened on Thanksgiving Day, 1891. The first major college football game played there was on Dec. 29, 1894, when Stanford defeated the University of Chicago, 28-0. Athletic Park gained national recognition when Los Angeles and Stockton of the California League played a night baseball game there on July 2, 1893. Los Angeles won, 5-2, before a crowd of 9,000. Twenty kerosene lamps and one swiveled search light were used.

Fiesta Park, located on the northwest corner of Grand and Pico, also dates from the 1890s. It was the site of what was apparently the first night college football game played outdoors on Nov. 18, 1905. St. Vincent's College (now Loyola Marymount University) shut out the University of Arizona, 54-0. In 1916, a rebuilt Fiesta Park served as USC's home grounds. The following year, however, its bleachers were transported to USC to revamp Bovard Field.

At the turn of the century, Washington Park, at the corner of Washington and Grand, was primarily a baseball field. It was sometimes referred to as Chutes Park, after the adjacent amusement park. St. Vincent's College was located across the street. Washington Park was the early home of the Los Angeles Angels of the Pacific Coast League.

A larger ball park for the Angels was built in 1911. Also known as Washington Park, this structure was located at Washington and Hill.

Prager Park served as USC's home in 1903. It was located near Chutes Park.

Tournament Park, located at the southeast corner of California and Wilson in Pasadena, served as the initial home of the "East-West" game, as the Rose Bowl was originally known. The Tournament of Roses Association acquired the property in 1901, and Michigan and Stanford played there in the first Rose Bowl game on Jan. 1, 1902. After a series of other sporting activities, football returned to the New Year's Day celebration in 1915, and continued at Tournament Park through 1922.

Sportsman's Park, located at North Los Robles and Colorado, was the site of USC's first Pasadena appearance, its first Thanksgiving game, and its first varsity football game outside of Los Angeles--all in 1889 against Pasadena. The game occurred just a month before Sportsman's Park hosted the initial Tournament of Roses.

Prior to 1893, USC's campus games were played on a field adjoining Jefferson. This field might have been the site of USC's first official football game in 1888 (although a 1951 letter from Henry Goddard, USC's coach in 1888, to then-SID Tom Lawless, stated the field that first year "was a vacant block, I would guess just S. or S.W. of (Bovard Field)."). In early 1893, the University's then-existing athletic grounds were developed, apparently for neighborhood housing. According to the Rostrum, USC's earliest student newspaper, the students petitioned for a replacement athletic field. Eventually they were granted space on the "northwest portion of campus."

These grounds, while appropriate for practice and practice games, were not suitable for major games. As a result, most of USC's important "home" games up until 1904 were played in rented space: Athletic Park, Fiesta Park, Washington Park, and Prager Park.

In the summer of 1904, USC's football field was "upgraded." Bleachers were constructed on the south side of the field, and a small stand was placed on the north side. A "kid-proof" fence was built around the site. At the start of the season, the site was referred to as "College Campus" in a published football schedule, but by the end of the year it had become "Bovard Field."

Bovard never appears to have been a very adequate home. USC still used Fiesta Park for some of its more important games up until 1908. In 1915, USC's first Los Angeles game against California was played at the new Washington Park, which was primarily a baseball venue. The following year, USC attempted to use a revitalized Fiesta Park as its home base. In the summer of 1917, the new bleachers at Fiesta Park were transported to USC's Bovard Field. These new seats increased Bovard's capacity to about 10,000.

The "new" Bovard was quickly obsolete. Interest in USC football, under Coach Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson, outpaced the limits of even the expanded Bovard. By 1920, USC was playing its more important games in Pasadena, first at Tournament Park, and then at the Tournament of Roses' new stadium in the Arroyo Seco.

USC's last on-campus varsity football game was played on Sept. 29, 1923, against Cal Tech. The following week the Trojans played their initial game at the Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum.

DRAMATIC FINISHES

Over the years, USC has been involved in many games featuring dramatic finishes. Here's a sampling of some of the more famous such contests that USC won.

1931--USC 16, Notre Dame 14. Johnny Baker kicked a game-winning 33-yard field goal with 1:00 remaining. All of USC's points came in the fourth quarter. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was USC's first-ever win in South Bend. Troy won the national championship.

1938--USC 7, Duke 3 (1939 Rose Bowl). Al Krueger, a second-team end, and fourth-string quarterback Doyle Nave came off the bench to connect on 4 straight passes, the last a 19-yard TD with about 40 seconds left to upset previously unbeaten, untied and unscored-upon Duke.

1939--USC 0, UCLA 0. Bobby Robertson knocked down Ned Matthews' 4-yard pass in the end zone with less than 5 minutes to play to preserve the tie for USC, sending the Trojans to the Rose Bowl.

1941--USC 13, Oregon State 7. Doug Essick caught a game-winning 6-yard pass from Ray Woods with 13 seconds to play.

1951--USC 21, California 14. Leon Sellers scored on a 2-yard run with 2:44 left to snap Cal's 38-game regular season winning streak.

1953--USC 23, Stanford 20. Sam Tsagalakis kicked a victorious 38-yard field goal with 14 seconds left.

1958--USC 15, UCLA 15. Luther Hayes returned a kickoff 74 yards for a TD and Tom Maudlin ran in for the 2-point conversion with 6:50 to play to get the Trojans a tie.

1964--USC 26, California 21. Behind 21-14 in the fourth quarter, USC scored twice late, the second time (while trailing 21-20) on a 22-yard pass from Craig Fertig to Rod Sherman with 50 seconds to culminate a 95-yard drive.

1964--USC 20, Notre Dame 17. Rod Sherman caught a 15-yard TD pass from Craig Fertig with 1:33 to play to upset unbeaten and top-ranked Notre Dame. USC was down, 17-0, at halftime.

1967--USC 21, UCLA 20. O.J. Simpson ran 64 yards for a TD with 10:38 left in the fourth quarter to give USC a Rose Bowl berth and the national championship. It is one of the most famous runs in college football history.

1969--USC 26, Stanford 24. Ron Ayala kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 0:00 on the clock.

1969--USC 14, UCLA 12. Jimmy Jones hit Sam Dickerson with a 32-yard TD pass in the corner of the end zone with 1:32 left, putting USC in the Rose Bowl.

1973--USC 27, Stanford 26. Chris Limahelu kicked a game-winning 34-yard field goal with 3 seconds to play.

"THE COMEBACK"

1974: USC 55, Notre Dame 24

In what is regarded as one of the most dramatic and incredible comebacks in the history of college football, the 1974 Trojans erased a 24-point deficit to beat Notre Dame, 55-24, in the Coliseum. In a December 1998 list by SPORT magazine, the game was ranked as the No. 6 top college football moment of the 20th century.

USC trailed the Irish, 24-0, late in the first half, and the Trojans' chances looked bleak because Notre Dame sported the nation's top-ranked defense. But with 10 seconds remaining before halftime, Anthony Davis scored on a 7-yard pass from Pat Haden (Troy's extra point kick was blocked) to send the Trojans into the lockerroom behind 24-6...but with a glimmer of hope.

Davis took the opening kickoff of the second half and raced 102 yards for a score, opening the floodgates as USC rallied for 35 points in the third quarter. Davis scored 2 more times that quarter, both on short runs, and Haden threw TD passes of 18 and 45 yards to Johnny McKay.

Then, before 2 minutes had elapsed in the fourth quarter, Haden hit Shelton Diggs for a 16-yard score and Charles Phillips returned an interception 58 yards for a touchdown.

In all, USC blitzed to its 55 points in under 17 minutes.

"We turned into madmen," was how Davis described the comeback.

Added receiver Johnny McKay, son of USC coach John McKay, right after the game: "I can't understand it. I'm gonna sit down tonight and have a beer and think about it. Against Notre Dame? Maybe against Kent State...but Notre Dame?"

The victory propelled USC, which then beat Ohio State in the Rose Bowl, 18-17, to the national championship.

Interestingly, that Rose Bowl win was dramatic, too. USC trailed, 17-10, with just minutes left. Then Haden teamed with McKay on a 38-yard TD pass with 2:03 to go, and followed that with a 2-point conversion toss to Diggs for the victory.

USC: AMERICA'S BOWL TEAM

USC has a remarkable record in bowl games. The Trojans have the nation's seventh highest bowl winning percentage (.660) among the 89 schools that have made at least 10 bowl appearances (behind Marshall's .846, Utah's .789, Miami of Ohio's and San Jose State's .700, Boise State's .688 and Toledo's .667). USC's 33 bowl victories is second behind Alabama's 36 for the most in the nation (not including 1 win for both teams vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 34 for USC, 37 for Alabama). Troy's 50 bowl appearances are sixth most, behind Alabama (64), Texas (53), Nebraska (52), Tennessee (51) and Georgia (51) (not including 2 USC appearances and 1 Alabama appearance vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 52 for USC, 65 for Alabama). USC once won 9 consecutive bowl games (the 1923-30-32-33-39-40-44-45 Rose Bowls and 1924 Christmas Festival); only Florida State has won more in a row (11).

USC's overall post-season record is 33-17 (not including 1 win and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 34-18). The Trojans were a bowl participant each year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

USC has appeared in an unprecedented 32 Rose Bowls, where it has a 24-8 mark (.750) (not including 1 appearance and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 33 Rose Bowls, 24-9, .718). That is not only the most Rose Bowl wins of any team, but also the most wins by a school in a single bowl. USC has won 11 of its last 13 Rose Bowls (not including 1 appearance and 1 loss later vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 11 of its last 14). USC is the only team to win 3 consecutive Rose Bowls (2007-08-09). USC twice played in 4 consecutive Rose Bowl games (1967 to 1970 and 2006 to 2009); Ohio State (1973 to 1976) is the only other team to have done so.

USC has also appeared in 13 other bowls--the Christmas Festival, Liberty Bowl, Bluebonnet Bowl, Fiesta Bowl, Aloha Bowl, Florida Citrus Bowl, Sun (John Hancock) Bowl (3 times), Freedom Bowl (twice), Cotton Bowl, Las Vegas Bowl (twice), Orange Bowl (twice), Emerald Bowl and Holiday Bowl (twice).

USC made 5 BCS bowl appearances (2003 Orange, 2004 Rose, 2007 Rose, 2008 Rose, 2009 Rose) (not including 2 appearances--2005 Orange and 2006 Rose--vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: an unprecedented 7 consecutive BCS bowl appearances). USC's 5 overall BCS bowl trips tied for seventh most, behind Ohio State's 9, Oklahoma's 9, Florida State's 8, Florida's 7, Virginia Tech's 6 and Alabama's 6 (not including 2 appearances vacated by NCAA penalty; original record: 7 appearances, tied for fourth most; also, 1 Ohio State appearance vacated by NCAA penalty). USC's 5 BCS bowl victories tied with Ohio State for the most of any school (not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 6 victories, tied with Ohio State for most; also, 1 Ohio State win vacated by NCAA penalty).

Auburn 16, USC 7

In Ted Tollner's final game as USC's head coach, his Trojan defense held down a high-powered Auburn offense (led by Brent Fullwood, the nation's top runner). But Troy's offense was ineffective and the Tigers won, 16-7, in chilly Orlando. Outside linebacker Marcus Cotton provided USC with its only score on a spectacular 24-yard scoring interception return early in the game. Two long second-quarter drives by Auburn, plus a safety late in the game, gave Auburn its only points. USC made it interesting at the end after Louis Brock blocked a Tiger punt, but the Trojans couldn't score on fourth-and-inches at the goal line. Fullwood had 152 yards rushing and one TD for Auburn, which had just 290 total yards on the day.

1988 Rose Bowl
Michigan State 20, USC 17

For just the fifth time ever, teams that had played each other earlier in the season (Michigan State had beaten USC in the 1988 season opener, 27-13) faced off in the Rose Bowl. The Spartans prevailed again, this time 20-17, breaking a six-game Big Ten losing streak in Pasadena. Despite getting more total yards (410 to 276) and first downs (21 to 11) than Michigan State, the Trojans were hurt by five turnovers, including a lost fumble on a mishandled snap on the Spartan 30 with 1:37 to play as Troy was marching downfield on an impressive drive. USC trailed 14-3 at halftime, but two touchdowns passes from quarterback Rodney Peete to split end Ken Henry eventually evened the score at 17-17 midway through the last quarter. On the next series, Michigan State moved into its winning field goal position with the help of a spectacular 36-yard jump pass from quarterback Bobby McAllister to split end Andre Rison. USC had to play Michigan State for the second time that season without star Trojan tailback Steven Webster (he sat out the opener with a sprained ankle and tore knee ligaments in the regular season finale against UCLA).

1989 Rose Bowl
Michigan 22, USC 14

In a "teacher-versus-pupil" matchup (USC coach Larry Smith served under Wolverine coach Bo Schembechler at both Miami of Ohio and Michigan), the teacher got the better of it as Michigan came back from a 14-3 halftime deficit to win 22-14. It was a disappointing way for USC to conclude its 100th anniversary of football. After falling behind 3-0 on a Mike Gillette field goal, USC charged back as quarterback Rodney Peete ran for a pair of short touchdowns (1 and 4 yards) in the second quarter. But it was all Michigan in the second half, as the Wolverines amassed 230 of their 352 total yards then. They scored 3 times on long drives, the first on a 6-yard Demetrius Brown-to-Chris Calloway aerial that capped a 67-yard drive to open the third quarter. Then Rose Bowl MVP Leroy Hoard scored twice for Michigan on 1-yard runs in the final period, coming off of 92 and 70-yard drives. Hoard had 142 yards rushing (the first time anyone broke the century rushing mark against the Trojans all year), including a key 61-yard run to set up the Wolverines' final score. USC, which managed a season-low 296 total yards, didn't help its cause with 5 turnovers, 11 penalties and numerous missed tackles. The win was only Schembechler's second in 9 tries in Pasadena.

1990 Rose Bowl
USC 17, Michigan 10

After losing the previous 2 Rose Bowls, USC beat Michigan, 17-10, in a rematch of the 1989 game. The win, in Bo Schembechler's final game as Wolverine coach, ended Michigan's national title hopes. It was a bittersweet victory for USC coach Larry Smith, who served 6 years as an assistant under Schembechler at Miami of Ohio and Michigan. Trojan tailback Ricky Ervins, the Rose Bowl MVP, scored the game-winning TD on a 14-yard run with 1:10 to play. Ervins, who lives 5 minutes from the Rose Bowl and used to park cars there on New Year's Day, ran for 126 yards on 30 carries and caught 5 passes for 44 yards. USC, which dominated the stats, pulled off a key play early in the second quarter when defensive guard Dan Owens blocked a punt. Six plays later, quarterback Todd Marinovich, who was 22-of-31 passing for 178 yards, scored on a 1-yard run. Kickers J.D. Carlson of Michigan (19 yards) and USC's Quin Rodriguez (34 yards) then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run then matched field goals prior to halftime. Michigan tied the score on a 2-yard run by tailback Allen Jefferson in the third quarter and the game looked like it would end deadlocked. But, with less than 6 minutes to go, Michigan was called for holding on a successful Wolverine fake punt and USC took over at its 25-yard line. Troy then went 75 yards in 11 plays for the winning score. Michigan tailback Leroy Hoard became the first player to run for 100-plus yards against USC all season (he had 108 yards on 17 carries).

1990 John Hancock Bowl
Michigan State 17, USC 16

Playing in its eighth different bowl, USC lost to Michigan State, 17-16, in the John Hancock Bowl in El Paso, Tex., on New Year's Eve day. It was the 900th game in Trojan gridiron history. USC dominated the stats, getting more total yards (336-215), plays (76-52), first downs (21-12) and possession time (35:45-24:15). Troy limited the powerful Spartan rushing attack (which averaged 253.9 yards a game to rank 10th nationally) to an MSU season-low 84 yards. Big Ten rushing champ tailback Tico Duckett got just 18 yards. But Troy had 4 costly turnovers (including 2 in MSU's end zone) and converted only 5 of 14 first downs. USC scored first when quarterback Todd Marinovich hit flanker Gary Wellman with a 7-yard TD pass late in the opening quarter. Marinovich was 18-of-30 for 174 yards, but threw 3 interceptions (including 1 in the end zone) and also fumbled the ball on fourth-and-goal at the Spartan 1-yard line in the middle of the second quarter (which MSU recovered in the end zone). Michigan State marched 80 yards to a TD after that fumble recovery, with tailback Hyland Hickson scoring on an 18-yard run to tie the score at 7-7 at halftime. After placekicker Quin Rodriguez hit a 20-yard field goal on USC's opening possession of the second half (which ended on the MSU 3-yard line), the Spartans countered with a 21-yard TD pass from quarterback Dan Enos to flanker Courtney Hawkins (the first TD reception by a MSU wide receiver all year), who was the game's MVP with 6 catches for a season-high 106 yards, and a career-long 52-yard field goal by John Langeloh. Rodriguez capped USC's next series with a career-long 54-yard field goal early in the fourth quarter. Then, down 17-13, cornerback Stephon Pace intercepted an Enos pass to give USC the ball near midfield. But the Trojans could get no closer than the MSU 17 before backup quarterback Shane Foley's errant pitch stalled the drive and USC had to settle for another Rodriguez field goal, this one 43 yards with 5:54 to play. Troy, however, could never get the ball back. Tailback Mazio Royster had a game-high 125 yards on 32 carries, only the second player to break the century rushing mark against Michigan State in 1990. USC rushed for 156 yards versus an MSU defense which was ranked 17th nationally against the run (allowing just 113.2 yards a game). Trojan outside linebacker Craig Hartsuyker, who had 2 quarterback sacks and forced a fumble, was named the game's Most Valuable Lineman.

1992 Freedom Bowl
Fresno State 24, USC 7

USC, making its 35th bowl appearance, was stunned by unranked, 8-point underdog Fresno State, 24-7, in the ninth Freedom Bowl in Anaheim Stadium. It was the first meeting ever between the Trojans and Bulldogs. Fresno State dominated, particularly in the second half. FSU, with the nation's No. 1 scoring offense (40.5) and No. 2 total offense (482.9), held the ball 15-plus minutes more (37:32-22:28), had 322 more total yards (405-183), 10 more first downs (24-14) and 34 more plays (84-50). USC's 183 total yards were its fewest since getting 163 at Washington in 1990 and its 95 passing yards were its fewest since getting 74 at Oregon in 1991. The Trojans had 4 turnovers (FSU had none) and converted just 1-of-9 third downs. The first half, played in a steady rain, ended in a 7-7 tie. It was the fewest points FSU had scored in a half all season (and it was the first time the Bulldogs were shut out in the first quarter in 1992). USC tailback Deon Strother opened the scoring with a 1-yard plunge early in the second quarter, but FSU answered when fullback Lorenzo Neal ran for a 1-yard TD. While attempting to catch a pass on the last play of the half, USC flanker Curtis Conway sprained his right knee and missed the second half (it was the first time in 23 games that he didn't catch a pass). After a 43-yard field goal by placekicker Derek Mahoney in the third quarter, FSU scored twice late in the game on runs by tailbacks Anthony Daigle (2 yards) and Ron Rivers (5 yards). Rivers had a game-high 104 yards on 19 carries, while Freedom Bowl MVP Neal had 75 yards on 19 tries. Bulldog quarterback Trent Dilfer was 13-of-28 for 164 yards. Tailback Estrus Crayton, USC's game MVP, led Troy with 79 yards on 19 attempts. Defensively, safety Jason Sehorn had a game-high 10 tackles, while inside linebacker Brian Williams added 9 stops, cornerback Jerald Henry had 8, and cornerback Jason Oliver had 7 along with a blocked field goal.

1993 Freedom Bowl
USC 28, Utah 21

USC, exorcising the demons of Anaheim Stadium, scored 28 points in the first 17 minutes of the game and then held off a furious Utah second-half rally to win Freedom Bowl X, 28-21, before 43,150 fans and a national Raycom television audience. The Trojans, making their 36th bowl appearance, were playing in Anaheim Stadium for the third time in 14 games, but had yet to win there (losing in the 1992 Freedom Bowl to Fresno State and the 1993 season-opening Disneyland Pigskin Classic to North Carolina). It was the first USC-Utah meeting in 45 years. USC, a 17-point favorite, scored easily on its first 4 possessions. In the first quarter, quarterback Rob Johnson hit All-American wide receiver Johnnie Morton on TD throws of 31 and 9 yards, and tailback David Dotson dove over from 2 yards out. Then, Johnson connected with tight end Johnny McWilliams on a 5-yard scoring toss just 1:26 into the second quarter. But after that, USC's offense--hampered by an ineffective running game (the Trojans ran for just 91 yards)--stalled. Utah, playing in just its fourth bowl game, came alive after halftime, scoring on 3 of its first 5 possessions: a 59-yard TD pass from quarterback Mike McCoy to slotback Henry Lusk, a 34-yard run by fullback Jamal Anderson and a 1-yard run by tailback Keith Williams. But USC got the ball with 3:19 to play and held it until just 8 seconds remained, when McCoy's desperation pass was intercepted by cornerback John Herpin (Herpin's second pick of the game). Morton was named the game's MVP as he caught a Freedom Bowl-record 10 passes for 147 yards and the 2 scores (to tie a Freedom Bowl TD catch mark) despite playing weakened with the flu (7 of his catches for 121 yards and both TDs were in the first half). Johnson, who also had come down with a slight case of the flu, completed a Freedom Bowl-record 30 passes in 44 attempts for 345 yards and the 3 TD aerials (in the first half, he was 17-of-25 for 255 with the 3 TDs). Morton became the Pac-10's No. 2 career receiver with 201 grabs, while Johnson set USC's season pass completion percentage mark (68.6%). USC tailback Shawn Walters ran for a game-high 70 yards on 19 carries, while fullback Deon Strother added 50 rushing yards on 9 attempts and caught 6 passes for 63 yards. USC wide receiver Ken Grace, who had 4 catches for 48 yards, returned a punt 31 yards, a Freedom Bowl mark. USC generated 436 yards of total offense on 82 plays and held the ball 32:14. Utah threatened 3 times inside the USC 30-yard line in the opening half, but USC's defense held each time, including an impressive goal line stand and an interception in the end zone by cornerback Jason Sehorn. Utah came into the game averaging 484.6 total yards (fifth in the U.S.), 324.3 passing yards (seventh in the U.S.) and 30.8 points, but was limited to 350 total yards (286 through the air). McCoy, who was second nationally in total offense (330.8), was 23-of-40 for 286 yards, 1 TD and 3 interceptions (at the half, he was 10-of-20 for 81 yards with 2 picks). Lusk had 6 catches for 140 yards and the TD, while Anderson ran for 67 yards and the TD on 16 carries and caught 7 passes for 61 yards. Outside linebacker Brian Williams and safety Mike Salmon topped USC in tackles with 9 each (both had 2 for losses). USC coach John Robinson, who has led USC to at least 8 wins in each of his 8 seasons there, upped his bowl record to 5-1.

1995 Cotton Bowl
USC 55, Texas Tech 14

USC (ranked 20th by UPI, 21st by AP and 22nd by USA Today/CNN) made quite an impression in its first visit to the Mobil Cotton Bowl Classic, smashing Texas Tech, 55-14, in a record-filled performance before a sellout crowd of 70,218 and an NBC-TV national audience. It was USC's 24th bowl victory, its 37th bowl appearance (in 10 different bowls), its 17th win in the last 19 games against Southwest Conference opponents, its third win in 3 tries over Texas Tech, and coach John Robinson's sixth bowl win in 7 trips (giving Robinson at least 8 wins in each of his 9 seasons at Troy). After 59 years, it was also the last Cotton Bowl where an SWC team served as host. Texas Tech was making only its second visit to the Cotton Bowl (the first was in 1939). The game was over quickly, as it was 28-0 after the first quarter and 34-0 at halftime. USC led 48-0 before Texas Tech scored against the Trojan reserves late in the third quarter. USC set Cotton Bowl records for most points in a game, most points in a quarter (USC's most since also scoring 28 in the second quarter against California in 1978) and most touchdowns (7), while scoring its most points ever in a bowl and posting its biggest bowl victory margin (second in Cotton Bowl history). It was the most points scored against Texas Tech since Miami had 61 in 1986. Troy's first 3 scores came in a 1:16 span. After tailback Shawn Walters, 1 of 8 Texans on the Trojan roster, ran 11 yards for a TD, USC recovered a fumble on the ensuing kickoff and, on the next play, quarterback Rob Johnson hit fullback Terry Barnum for a 19-yard score. Three plays later, cornerback John Herpin, another Texas native, intercepted a Zebbie Lethridge pass and returned it 26 yards for a TD. Herpin, who intercepted another pass in the second quarter to set up a field goal, was named the game's Outstanding Defensive Player. USC's next 3 TDs came on aerials to wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson of 12, 22 and 86 yards (the 86-yarder was 1 yard shy of the longest pass in Cotton Bowl and USC history), the first 2 from Rob Johnson and the third from quarterback Brad Otton. Keyshawn Johnson, selected as the game's Outstanding Offensive Player, had 8 catches overall for a Cotton Bowl-record 222 yards (just 7 yards shy of the Trojan single game record). His 3 TD catches set a Cotton Bowl record and equalled a Trojan mark. Rob Johnson, who became USC's career passing yardage leader and the Pac-10 and USC recordholder for career completion percentage, was 16-of-21 for 289 yards (the second most yards in Cotton Bowl history). The other Trojan scores came on a late 2-yard Otton pass to tight end Jeff Diltz and second quarter field goals by placekicker Cole Ford of 39 and a career-best 42 yards. Ford's 7 PAT kicks was a Cotton Bowl record. Walters ran for a game-best 82 yards on 14 carries. Otton was 8-of-14 for 146 yards. USC thoroughly dominated the statistics, more than doubling Texas Tech in total yardage (578-260) and possession time (40:02-19:58) while also having more first downs (21-14) and plays (80-63). USC, which averaged 7.2 yards per play, set Cotton Bowl records for total yards, passing yards (a USC record 435) and completions (24). USC did this against a Texas Tech defense which entered the game third nationally in pass efficiency defense (88.6), 10th in scoring defense (17.4) and 22nd in total defense (311.0). The Red Raiders had held 5 foes to single digits in scoring and had given up just 47 points in their previous 5 games. Inside linebacker Jeff Kopp led USC in tackles with 7, while safety Sammy Knight added 6. Texas Tech, which punted 10 times, advanced into USC territory on just 4 of its 16 possessions.

1996 Rose Bowl
USC 41, Northwestern 32

Behind the stellar play of wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson and quarterback Brad Otton, USC (ranked 15th by UPI and 17th by USA Today/CNN and AP) put an end to No. 3-ranked Northwestern's Cinderella season with an exciting 41-32 Rose Bowl win before a sellout crowd of 100,102 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was the 50th anniversary of the Pac-10/Big Ten agreement in the Rose Bowl. It was USC's 20th victory in its unprecedented 28th trip to Pasadena (but its first since the 1990 game) and Troy's first win over a Top 3 team since defeating Michigan in that 1990 Rose Bowl, while Northwestern--having its first winning season since 1971 (the Wildcats came in with a 10-1 record)--was playing in only its second-ever bowl (its first since winning the 1949 Rose Bowl). It also gave USC coach John Robinson a 4-0 Rose Bowl record (and 7-1 in all bowls). The Trojans jumped off to a quick start, driving 83 yards with the opening kickoff while using a no-huddle offense as running back LaVale Woods scored on a 1-yard plunge. But Northwestern answered on its first possession, as running back Darnell Autry ran 3 yards for a TD to cap a 68-yard drive. USC then scored 17 unanswered second quarter points: a scrambling 21-yard TD pass from Otton to running back Terry Barnum, a 30-yard field goal by placekicker Adam Abrams and, on Northwestern's next possession, cornerback Daylon McCutcheon's 53-yard fumble return after safety Sammy Knight knocked the ball loose from Wildcat wide receiver Brian Musso. Northwestern got a 29-yard field goal from placekicker Brian Gowins with 2 seconds to go in the half following a Trojan fumble, but Troy led 24-10 at intermission (it was USC's most first half points since scoring 34 against Texas Tech in the 1995 Cotton Bowl). The Wildcats then scored on their first 4 possessions of the second half: another Gowins field goal (this one from 28 yards), a 9-yard Autry run (after Northwestern recovered a surprise on-side kick), a 1-yard sneak by quarterback Steve Schnur (which followed a 56-yard Trojan scoring strike from Otton to Johnson), and a 2-yard Autry run early in the fourth quarter that gave Northwestern its first lead of the day, 32-31. But USC came right back, getting a 46-yard Abrams field goal (the longest by a Trojan since Quin Rodriguez hit a 54-yarder against Michigan State in the 1990 John Hancock Bowl). Safety Jesse Davis then sealed the victory for USC with an interception which led to a 5-yard TD by running back Delon Washington. Johnson, who served as a Trojan ballboy at the 1985 Rose Bowl, was named the Rose Bowl MVP, as he grabbed 12 passes (all for first downs) for a Rose Bowl record 216 yards (his 17th 100-yard outing in his career and the eighth of 1995). Otton played the entire game for the first time in the 1995 season, hitting 29-of-44 passes for 391 yards (all career highs) with 2 TDs and no interceptions; the yardage was 1 yard shy of Rob Johnson's USC record and was the third most in Rose Bowl history. Autry had his 13th consecutive 100-yard rushing game, getting 110 yards on 32 carries with the 3 TDs, while Schnur was 23-of-39 for a career-best 336 yards (including 7 completions for 145 yards to wide receiver D'Wayne Bates). Northwestern outgained USC in total yards, 475-520, and limited Troy to just 29 rushing yards (its fewest since getting 7 yards against UCLA in 1993), but the Wildcats' uncharacteristic 2 turnovers led to 14 Trojan points, proving costly to a team which was third nationally in turnover margin (1.82). The Wildcats also had a TD pass called back because of a penalty late in the game and missed 2 field goals, including a 49-yard attempt that hit the upright with 35 seconds to go. USC, on the other hand, had 11 penalties (including 9 in the second half). Trojan cornerback Brian Kelly had a game-high 11 tackles (along with 2 deflections), while Knight and linebacker Scott Fields added 7 stops each.

1998 Sun Bowl
TCU 28, USC 19

In a stunning upset, 16-point underdog TCU—which barely qualified for post-season play with a 6-5 record—used a potent option attack and a stingy run defense to beat USC, 28-19, in the 65th Norwest Sun Bowl before 46,612 fans and a national CBS-TV audience. The Horned Frogs' option offense gained 314 yards on the ground (the most against the Trojans since Notre Dame had 330 in 1992) and their defense limited Troy to a USC and Sun Bowl record low -23 rushing yards. It was TCU's first bowl win since 1957. TCU, which scored touchdowns on its first 3 possessions of the opening half on runs of 3 and 60 yards by TB Basil Mitchell and 7 yards by QB Patrick Batteaux, led 21-3 at intermission. USC's only first-half points came on a 35-yard field goal by PK Adam Abrams late in the second quarter. The Horned Frogs opened up a 25-point lead on their initial drive of the second half as Batteaux scored on a 3-yard run. USC battled back by scoring on its first 3 drives of the second half, first on a 23-yard pass from QB Carson Palmer to WR Billy Miller, then on a 1-yard run by TB Petros Papadakis and a 46-yard Abrams field goal early in the fourth quarter (Abrams was the game's Special Teams MVP). The Trojans got the ball back twice more, but those drives resulted in a loss of 30 yards as Palmer was sacked 3 times. Mitchell, the game's MVP rushed for 185 yards on 19 carries (including 114 in the first half) for a 9.7 average per carry. Batteaux added 94 yards on 28 tries while executing the option to perfection (he also completed 4-of-5 passes for 51 yards). TCU stayed mainly on the ground, as 61 of its 67 plays were runs (the most rushes against USC since Penn State had 66 in 1993). The Horned Frogs threw for only 51 yards (the fewest allowed by USC since Oregon State had 29 in 1995). TCU amassed 365 total yards, converted 10-of-16 third downs (including 7-of-9 in the first half) and held the ball 35:51. USC managed just 257 total yards and 12 first downs on only 49 plays. Troy converted just 1-of-11 third downs (that came in the first quarter). Palmer was 17-of-28 for a career-best 280 yards, but was sacked 6 times (all in the second half). WR R. Jay Soward had a game-best 6 catches for 64 yards, WR Larry Parker added 4 for 104 yards and Miller had 3 for 67 yards. LB Chris Claiborne had a game-best 13 tackles and S Grant Pearsall added 11 stops.

2001 Las Vegas Bowl
Utah 10, USC 6

Behind a time-consuming, powerful running attack and a dominating defense, Utah beat USC, 10-6, in the 10th Sega Sports Las Vegas Bowl before 22,385 fans and a national ABC-TV audience. The outcome–the Trojans' fifth loss of 2001 by 5 or less points–snapped USC's 4-game winning streak and Utah's 2-game losing skid. It also ended the Utes' 6-game losing streak to USC (Utah last beat Troy in 1916). The defensive struggle produced the lowest scoring Las Vegas Bowl ever. But that figured, as both squads were highly-ranked nationally in scoring defense (USC was 11th at 17.9 and Utah was 13th at 18.6). Utah, which entered the game ranked in the Top 25 nationally in all 4 defensive categories, limited the Trojans to just 151 total yards, including only 1 yard rushing. It was USC's fewest total yards since getting 124 against Washington in 1996 and its fewest rushing yards since having -20 at Arizona in 1999. USC had just 12 first downs, converted only 2-of-12 third downs and was sacked 4 times (including twice by ROV Sheldon Deckart, who had a team-high 6 tackles). USC punted on 8 of its 11 possessions (including on its first 4 drives and its final 4), went 3-and-out 5 times and penetrated Utah territory only 4 times (getting inside the 30 just once). At halftime, USC had just 15 total yards (with -53 on the ground) and 3 first downs. On offense, Utah–which was 12th nationally in rushing offense at 218.9–controlled the clock (holding the ball 16 minutes more than USC, 38:01 to 21:59) by running 54 times for 222 of its 358 total yards. The Utes ran off 75 plays (USC had just 51). HB Adam Tate ran for a game-best 103 yards on 23 carries, while fellow HB Dameon Hunter (a 1,000-yard runner in 2001) rushed for 94 yards on 17 tries and was named Utah's game MVP. Utah QB Lance Rice was 12-of-21 for 136 yards while hitting some timely passes, including a game-best 4 to WR Josh Lyman (for 41 yards) and 3 to TE Michael Richardson (for 35 yards). Utah scored on its second possession of the game as Tate ran for a 3-yard TD to cap a 7-play, 48-yard drive late in the first quarter. Then, after USC PK David Davis–the Pac-10's most accurate field goal kicker in 2001–missed a 47-yarder (breaking his string of 12 consecutive successful field goals), the Utes drove 61 yards in 12 plays to set up PK Ryan Kaneshiro's 26-yard field goal with 29 seconds to play in the half. USC came alive to start the second half, taking the opening kickoff and driving 80 yards in 12 plays, finishing with a 2-yard scoring run by FB Sunny Byrd (but Davis missed the PAT). But despite getting a pair of turnovers–CB Kris Richard recovered a fumble and LB John Cousins intercepted a pass–on Utah's next 2 possessions, the Trojans couldn't get any closer than the Ute 40-yard line the rest of the way. Trojan QB Carson Palmer was 15-of-26 for 150 yards, while WRs Kareem Kelly (33 yards) and Devin Pitts (32 yards) each had 3 receptions. Trojan All-American safety Troy Polamalu–picked as USC's game MVP–had a Las Vegas Bowl record and career-high 20 tackles (with a game record 12 solo), including 3 for losses, while S DeShaun Hill (14 stops and a forced fumble) and LB Frank Strong (12 tackles, including 4 for losses) also posted career bests in tackles. It was USC's first game in the state of Nevada and its sixth contest on Christmas Day (but its first since 1934). The crowd was the smallest ever to see USC in a bowl and the fewest at a Trojan game since 20,938 showed up at Oregon State in 1997.

2003 Orange Bowl
USC 38, Iowa 17

No. 5-ranked USC–behind a balanced offense and a stingy defense–staked its claim as one of the nation's top teams as it swamped No. 3 Iowa, 38-17, in the 69th FedEx Orange Bowl before a sold out crowd of 75,971 fans under the lights in Pro Player Stadium and a national ABC-TV audience. It was Pac-10 co-champion USC's eighth win in a row (giving Troy its first 11-win season since 1979) and it snapped Big Ten co-champ Iowa's 9-game winning streak. It was the first meeting between the teams in 26 years and the first trip to the Orange Bowl for either school. It also was Troy's first win ever in Florida in 5 tries and came against the ninth AP-ranked squad the Trojans played in the 2002 season. And USC scored at least 30 points for a school-record eighth consecutive game. USC dominated the Hawkeyes statistically, getting more total yards (550-323), first downs (30-18), plays (80-58) and possession time (38:06-21:54). It was the ninth game in a row that USC had at least 400 yards of total offense. Despite facing an Iowa defense that was second nationally against the run (68.2), Troy rushed for a season-best 247 yards and scored 4 TDs on the ground. And USC–playing without 2-time All-American S Troy Polamalu, who was held out with a sore hamstring–kept in check a Hawkeye offense that was sixth nationally in scoring (38.9). At the start, it looked like Iowa would provide a stiff challenge as WR C.J. Jones ran back the opening kickoff an Orange Bowl-record 100 yards for a TD. But USC responded quickly as QB Carson Palmer's 65-yard bomb to WR Kareem Kelly on Troy's first play set up TB Justin Fargas' 4-yard scoring run just 3 plays later. Then, after Iowa had to settle for a 35-yard field goal by PK Nate Kaeding after advancing to the USC 2-yard line on the ensuing drive, USC reeled off 31 unanswered points. First, PK Ryan Killeen atoned for an earlier missed field goal by nailing a 35-yarder late in the half (DT Bernard Riley then blocked Kaeding's 28-yard field goal try at the end of the half to keep the score knotted at 10-10). Next, USC scored on its first 3 possessions of the second half, first an 18-yard Palmer TD pass to WR Mike Williams, then a career-long 50-yard TD run by Fargas (to cap a 99-yard drive) and a 5-yard run by TB Sultan McCullough at the top of the fourth quarter. FB Sunny Byrd added a 6-yard scoring run late in the game before Iowa added a touchdown against USC's reserves on an 18-yard pass from QB Brad Banks to WR Maurice Brown. Palmer proved his Heisman Trophy was no fluke as he hit 21-of-31 passes for 303 yards to earn Orange Bowl MVP honors, while Heisman runnerup Banks–the nation's passing efficiency leader–was just 15-of-36 for 204 yards and an interception (his first pick in his last 104 attempts). Fargas ran for 122 yards on 20 carries and McCullough added 76 yards on 12 tries, while Iowa RB Fred Russell–12th in the nation in rushing–was held to just 45 yards on 9 carries. Florida native Williams (game-high 99 yards) and WR Keary Colbert (81 yards) each had 6 receptions, while Kelly had 3 for 74 yards to set an NCAA record for consecutive games with a catch (47) en route to becoming USC's career reception leader (204). Williams set NCAA freshman records for receptions (81), receiving yards (1,265) and receiving TDs (14). Brown had 6 catches for 63 yards for Iowa. LBs Mike Pollard and Matt Grootegoed each had a team-best 6 tackles for USC, while S Jason Leach had an interception and fumble recovery while filling in for Polamalu. Iowa hurt itself with 13 penalties and turned the ball over twice.

USC 28, Michigan 14

QB Matt Leinart threw 3 touchdowns and caught another and the relentless Trojan defense recorded a season-high 9 sacks as No. 1 USC dominated No. 4 Michigan, 28-14, in the 90th Rose Bowl before a soldout crowd of 93,849 and an ABC-TV national audience. The victory (USC's 21st Rose Bowl win) virtually guaranteed Troy the AP national championship, 25 years after its last national crown, and gave USC its first 12-win season since 1978. And it snapped Michigan's 6-game winning streak. The Trojans built a 21-0 lead before Michigan scored late in the third quarter. After DT Shaun Cody blocked a Wolverine field goal attempt early in the game, USC scored 4 plays into its first possession when WR Keary Colbert made an over-the-shoulder fingertip grab of Leinart's 25-yard aerial. Then, late in the first half following LB Lofa Tatupu's interception (he grabbed a ball that bounced off of SE Braylon Edwards' foot and returned it 26 yards to the Michigan 3), TB LenDale White took a Leinart toss 6 yards for another TD. Then, on the opening drive of the second half, Colbert made a spectacular one-handed grab of a 47-yard Leinart bomb (despite being interfered with) to up Troy's cushion. However, Michigan answered on its next series with a scoring drive that took nearly 8 minutes, capped by QB John Navarre's 5-yard pass to TE Tim Massaquoi. But USC responded right back, scoring on a tricky 15-yard reverse pass from WR Mike Williams to an unguarded Leinart. Wolverine TB Chris Perry ran 2 yards for a TD early in final quarter, but Michigan had the ball for only 4:12 in that quarter and never threatened again. Leinart was named the Rose Bowl MVP as he connected on 23-of-34 passes for 327 yards with the 3 scores (and no interceptions), along with his TD catch. Colbert, who became USC's career reception leader (with 207 catches), had 6 catches for a career-best 149 yards. Williams added a team-best 8 catches for 88 yards. White's TD was his 14th of the year, tying the USC freshman season record, while TB Reggie Bush–who had 41 yards rushing, 42 receiving and 49 on returns–set the USC freshman season all-purpose yardage mark (1,331 yards). Tatupu had a team-high 12 tackles, CB Will Poole added 10 stops (including 2 sacks) with 5 deflections and DE Kenechi Udeze had 3 sacks. USC's 9 sacks were its most since getting 13 against Oregon in 1992. Although Michigan held the ball 34:26 and had more plays (84 to 60) and first downs (25 to 19), the Trojans accumulated 410 total yards to UM's 320 (only 49 rushing). Michigan came into the game having allowed just 15 sacks and 5 TD passes all season. Navarre was 27-of-46 for 271 yards, Perry ran for 85 yards on 23 tries and Edwards had a game-high 10 receptions for 107 yards. USC set school overall attendance (946,482) and average (72,368) records.

2005 Orange Bowl
USC 55*, Oklahoma 19

Top-ranked USC won its 11th national championship–and second consecutive–in overwhelming fashion by thumping No. 2 Oklahoma, 55-19, in the BCS Championship Game in the 2005 Orange Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 77,912 in Miami's Pro Player Stadium and a national prime time ABC-TV audience. USC became just the second team ever to hold the AP No. 1 ranking from the pre-season through the bowl (Florida State did it in 1999). The Trojans also became the 10th team to win consecutive AP national championships. It was Troy's 22nd victory in a row, including a school-record 13 in 2004. USC's 55 points tied its most ever in a bowl (and were the most ever allowed in a bowl by Oklahoma). It was a school-record eighth time in the season that USC won by 30-plus points. USC scored 38 of its points off of OU turnovers. QB Matt Leinart, the game's MVP, threw an Orange Bowl record (and USC record-tying) 5 touchdowns, including 3 to WR Steve Smith (tying both an Orange Bowl and USC record). PK Ryan Killeen set the USC career scoring record (with 329 points). Oklahoma looked impressive early, driving 92 yards for the game's first score midway through the opening quarter on a 5-yard pass from QB Jason White to WR Travis Wilson. But USC countered on the ensuing possession to start a 28-point scoring run, as TE Dominique Byrd made a spectacular one-handed TD grab of a 33-yard Leinart aerial. Then, late in the quarter, USC S Josh Pinkard recovered a botched OU punt return and TB LenDale White ran for a 6-yard TD on the next play. S Jason Leach intercepted White's desperation heave on Oklahoma's next series and Leinart soon after hit WR Dwayne Jarrett on a 54-yard scoring bomb. White was picked off again on OU's next drive, this time by CB Eric Wright, and 3 plays later Leinart hit Smith for a 5-yard score with 9:17 to go in the half. After Oklahoma responded with a 29-yard field goal by PK Garrett Hartley, USC took just 4 plays to score again, this time on Smith's impressive one-armed reception of a 33-yard Leinart pass. When Oklahoma fumbled the ball away on its following possession (LB Matt Grootegoed had the recovery), Killeen nailed a 44-yard field goal with 3 seconds to go to put USC up 38-10 at halftime. USC scored on its first 2 drives of the second half: a 4-yard Leinart-to-Smith pass and a 42-yard Killeen field goal. The Trojans capped a 27-point scoring outburst when White ran for an 8-yard TD just 5 plays after Grootegoed intercepted White early in the fourth quarter. The Sooners scored twice late in the game against mostly Trojan reserves, getting a safety when Leinart fell on a fumbled snap in the end zone and then on White's 9-yard pass to Wilson. USC piled up 525 total yards (averaging 8.3 yards per play) to the Sooners' 372, even though OU ran off 13 more plays (76 to 63) and held the ball for 35:06. But USC didn't turn the ball over, while Oklahoma had 5 giveaways. For USC, Leinart was 18-of-35 for 332 yards, White ran for 118 yards on 15 carries, Smith had 7 catches for 113 yards, Jarrett had 5 receptions for 115 yards and TB Reggie Bush had 149 all-purpose yards (75 yards on 6 rushes, 36 yards on 2 kickoff returns, 31 yards on 2 catches and a 7-yard punt return). LB Lofa Tatupu had a game-best 12 tackles, S Darnell Bing added 10 stops and Leach and Grootegoed each had 7. OU's White was 24-of-36 for 244 yards, but threw 3 interceptions, Wilson caught 7 passes for 59 yards and TB Adrian Peterson ran for 82 yards on 25 tries. It marked the first time that a pair of Heisman Trophy winners (Leinart and White) faced each other in a game (in fact, 4 of the 2004 Heisman finalists played in the game, including Bush and Peterson).

2006 Rose Bowl
Texas 41, USC 38*

QB Vince Young ran for a pair of touchdowns in the final minutes—including an 8-yard scrambling game-winner on fourth-and-5 with 19 seconds to go—to help No. 2 Texas overcome a 12-point deficit and upend top-ranked USC, 41-38, in the BCS Championship Game in the 2006 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,986 and a national prime time ABC-TV audience. The win was Texas's 20th in a row and snapped USC's 34-game winning streak, denying the Trojans an unprecedented third consecutive national championship (it was also Troy's first loss after 16 straight non-conference wins and 16 consecutive victories over AP Top 25 teams). Young, the 2005 Heisman Trophy runnerup and Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, accounted for 467 yards of total offense, including 200 rushing (the most by a runner against USC since Oregon State's Ken Simonton had 234 in 2000) with 3 TDs and 267 through the air on 30-of-40 passing. After USC took a 38-26 lead with 6:42 to play on QB Matt Leinart's 22-yard scoring pass to WR Dwayne Jarrett (Jarrett's USC season record-tying 16th touchdown reception), Young marched the Longhorns down the field in 8 plays as he scrambled for a 17-yard TD with 4:03 to play. Then, after USC failed to convert a fourth-and-2 run at midfield on the ensuing possession, Texas took over with 2:09 remaining and took 11 plays to score the clincher. After USC opened the game's scoring on a 4-yard run by TB LenDale White following LB Kaluka Maiava's recovery of a fumbled Texas punt return, the Longhorns scored the next 16 points on 3 straight possessions. First, PK David Pino hit a 46-yard field goal after Texas recovered a USC fumble at the UT 19-yard line, then TB Selvin Young took a lateral from Young and went the remaining 12 yards for a score (coming after Texas intercepted a Trojan pass in the end zone), but Pino's PAT missed. Then, TB Ramonce Taylor raced 30 yards for a TD. USC responded as PK Mario Danelo nailed a career-long 43-yard field goal with 2 seconds to go in the half. The teams scored 53 points in the second half (the most points in a half ever at the Rose Bowl), when there were 4 lead changes. After White ran 3 yards for a TD early in the half to give Troy a 17-16 edge, Young answered with a 14-yard scoring run, but the Trojans came right back on White's 12-yard TD rumble late in the third quarter. After Pino missed a field goal on the first play of the fourth quarter, USC drove 80 yards, culminating in TB Reggie Bush's 26-yard scoring run. Texas narrowed the gap to 31-26 on its next series as Pino hit a 34-yard field goal with 8:46 to play, but USC responded on the ensuing drive with the Leinart-to-Jarrett TD for what appeared to be a comfortable lead before Young took over. The teams produced a Rose Bowl-record 1,130 yards of combined total offense (the 9 combined rushing TDs and 60 combined first downs were also Rose Bowl marks). USC had a Rose Bowl-record 574 total yards (including 365 passing) and averaged 7.0 yards per play. Its 38 points were the most by a losing team in the Rose Bowl. Texas had 556 total yards (the most against USC since California's 601 in 1991), including 289 rushing (the most allowed by USC since Kansas State had 340 in 2001), while averaging 7.3 yards per play (8.0 rushing). UT's 30 first downs were the most against the Trojans since UCLA had a USC opponent record-tying 32 in 1970. White ran for 124 yards and 20 carries with the 3 touchdowns (setting USC and Pac-10 records for season and career rushing and overall TDs), Leinart was 29-of-40 for 365 yards (he was 16-of-19 for 218 yards in the second half) and at one point connected on a Rose Bowl-record 11 consecutive passes, Bush had 279 all-purpose yards (82 on 13 carries, 95 on a season-best 6 receptions and 102 on 5 kickoff returns) and Jarrett had 10 catches for 121 yards. Bush and White set an NCAA record for career touchdowns by teammates (99). S Darnell Bing led USC with 9 tackles, CB Josh Pinkard added 7 stops and LB Oscar Lua had 6. USC limited Texas to just 3-of-11 third down conversions. Texas TE David Thomas had 10 catches for 88 yards, while WR Limas Sweed added 8 receptions for 65 yards. S Michael Huff, the 2005 Thorpe Award winner and Rose Bowl Defensive MVP, had a game-best 12 tackles with a fumble recovery. The game marked the first time that a team fielded a pair of already-named Heisman winners (Leinart and Bush). It also was USC's first loss to Texas in 5 meetings, its first defeat in 6 bowl appearances when ranked No. 1 and its first post-season loss to a Big 12 team in 6 bowl trips. USC set a school record for overall season attendance (1,037,565), the first time it was over the million mark, and overall season attendance average (79,813). The game was viewed on ABC-TV by 35.6 million fans, making it the highest-rated college football game since the 1987 Fiesta Bowl.

USC 32, Michigan 18

No. 8 USC used a second half offensive explosion behind 4 touchdown passes from QB John David Booty and a game-long stifling defense to dominate No. 3 Michigan, 32-18, in the 2007 Rose Bowl in front of a sold-out crowd of 93,852 and a national ABC-TV audience. It was USC's most points and biggest victory margin ever over the Wolverines. It gave Troy 5 consecutive 11-win seasons. The win exorcised the close losses Troy had in its previous 2 visits to the Pasadena stadium (to Texas in the 2006 BCS Championship Game and to UCLA at the end of the 2006 regular season). It took 30 minutes for USC—making an unprecedented fifth straight BCS bowl appearance—to shake off the disappointment of the UCLA upset that knocked the Trojans out of the BCS Championship Game. And by game's end, USC's victory quashed any talk that Michigan should have been playing in the BCS Championship Game instead of the Rose Bowl. The teams traded field goals (a 26-yarder by Trojan PK Mario Danelo late in the first quarter and a 41-yarder by PK Garrett Rivas on Michigan's ensuing possession early in the second quarter) in a mundane first half that saw USC collect just 122 total yards (20 rushing) to the Wolverines' 76 (minus 9 on the ground). But after DE Lawrence Jackson intercepted a screen pass by QB Chad Henne near midfield on Michigan's first possession of the second half, USC took just 4 plays to get into the end zone as Booty hit WR Chris McFoy for a 2-yard score. Sensing Michigan's staunchness against the run (the Wolverines led the nation in rush defense at 43.0 and allowed USC just a season-low 48 rushing yards) but its susceptibility to the pass, Booty's first toss of that series was the start of 27 passes in the Trojans' next 29 plays, as they scored on 5 consecutive drives. Late in the third quarter, Booty hit WR Dwayne Jarrett—the game's Offensive MVP with 11 catches (giving him USC's career receptions record) for 205 yards, both personal bests—on a quick slant and Jarrett broke free for a 22-yard TD (Danelo missed the PAT). In his Rose Bowl career, Jarrett's 21 receptions, 326 yards and 3 TD catches were all Rose Bowl records. Then, on Michigan's following possession, LB Brian Cushing sacked QB Chad Henne and forced a fumble that Jackson recovered, leading to a 26-yard Danelo field goal with 48 seconds to go in the quarter. The Wolverines responded, however, as Henne hit WR Adrian Arrington on an 11-yard scoring pass and TB Mike Hart ran for a 2-point conversion to pull the Wolverines within a score, 19-11, early in the final quarter. But the Trojans continued their aerial assault, with Booty lofting a season-long 62-yard pass over a pair of Michigan defenders for Jarrett's second TD of the game (Danelo's PAT kick missed again). Next, WR Steve Smith—who caught 7 passes for 108 yards to go over the 1,000-yard receiving barrier for the season—got into the act by catching a 7-yard TD pass from Booty on USC's 4-play, 85-yard drive with less than 7 minutes to go. The Wolverines added a late touchdown on a 41-yard Henne pass to WR Steve Breaston. Booty completed 27-of-45 passes en route to his 4 TDs (all career bests, with the 4 TDs tying a Rose Bowl mark) and his 391 passing yards were the most surrendered by Michigan since the Michigan State's 400 in 1999. USC's 439 yards of total offense far surpassed what Michigan had been allowing (254.1, sixth in the nation). The Trojan defense posted 6 sacks against a UM squad that had allowed just 18 all season and limited the Wolverines to just 12 rushing yards (they had averaged 189.2 rushing yards in 2006). Michigan TB Mike Hart, who had run for at least 90 yards in every game of 2006, was limited to 47 yards on 17 carries. Henne completed 26-of-41 passes for 309 yards, but 14 of those completions and 185 of the yards came in the fourth quarter when the game was virtually decided. Breaston had 7 grabs for 115 yards, while WR Mario Manningham (79 yards) and TE Tyler Ecker (78 yards) each had 6 receptions. USC LB Keith Rivers had a game-best 9 tackles, while 4 of Cushing's 7 tackles were for losses (including 2.5 sacks) and he forced a fumble to help him earn the game's Defensive MVP trophy. USC played before a school-record 11th sellout crowd of the season.

2008 Rose Bowl
USC 49, Illinois 17

No. 6 USC piled up a Rose Bowl-record 633 yards of total offense and took advantage of 4 turnovers by No. 13 Illinois to post a dominant 49-17 victory in the 2008 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,923 and a national ABC-TV audience. It equalled the most points scored in the Rose Bowl (Michigan scored 49 points in the 1902 and 1948 games) and the 32-point victory margin was the Rose Bowl's largest since UCLA's 36-point win over the Illini in the 1984 game. The victory gave USC an NCAA record 6 consecutive 11-win seasons. QB John David Booty, the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, completed 25-of-37 passes for 255 yards and 3 TDs to set a Rose Bowl career record for touchdown passes (7). TB Joe McKnight had 206 all-purpose yards (125 on 10 rushes, 45 on 6 receptions and 36 on 3 punt returns). TBs Stafon Johnson (104 yards on 9 carries) and Chauncey Washington (75 yards on 12 attempts) also helped USC run for a season-best 344 yards. TE Fred Davis had a game-high 7 receptions for 87 yards. USC's defense posted a season-high 15 tackles for a loss (including 5 sacks) against Illinois' spread offense. The Illini converted just 4-of-14 third downs. CB Cary Harris had a team-best 10 tackles, plus 2 turnovers, while LB Rey Maualuga won Rose Bowl Defensive MVP honors with 3 sacks, an interception and a forced fumble and DE Lawrence Jackson added 3 tackles for a loss among his 5 stops. USC built up a quick 21-0 lead. Troy scored on its opening drive as Booty hit Washington for an 8-yard TD. Then, after Maualuga intercepted a pass from QB Juice Williams on Illinois' next series, USC used some trickery on its first play as WR-QB Garrett Green took a lateral and fired a 34-yard scoring strike to TB Desmond Reed. The Trojans added to their lead late in the half on a 3-yard Washington TD run, but Illinois got on the board with 38 seconds to go in the half on a 28-yard field goal by Jason Reda. The Illini made a run at the Trojans early in the second half when TB Rashard Mendenhall burst 79 yards for a score on Illinois' first series (it was the longest run against USC since 2004). Illinois was driving again on its next possession before LB Kaluka Maiava punched the ball out of WR Jacob Willis' grasp at the USC 1-yard line and LB Brian Cushing recovered the ball in the end zone for a touchback. Troy then drove 80 yards, capped by a 2-yard Booty TD pass to Davis (on the drive, McKnight scooped up a bobbled lateral and raced 65 yards to the Illinois 12-yard line). The Illini turned the ball over on their next 2 possessions (Harris had an interception and then a fumble recovery) and USC converted both, with McKnight running for a 6-yard score and WR David Ausberry catching a 15-yard TD pass from Booty early in the fourth quarter. After USC stopped Illinois on downs at the Trojan 12 late in the fourth quarter, Troy drove 87 yards and scored on a 3-yard run by TB Hershel Dennis late in the game (his first TD since 2004). Illinois then got a touchdown against USC's reserves as QB Eddie McGee hit WR Arrelious Benn for a 56-yard score. The teams combined for 1,078 yards of total offense, as the Illini had 445 total yards. Mendenhall ran for 155 yards on 17 carries (he also caught 5 passes for 59 yards), Williams hit 21-of-35 passes for 245 yards and Benn had 5 catches for 59 yards.

2009 Rose Bowl
USC 38, Penn State 24

QB Mark Sanchez threw 4 touchdown passes and ran for another score as No. 5 USC opened up a 24-point halftime lead and beat No. 6 Penn State, 38-24, in the 2009 Rose Bowl before a sold-out crowd of 93,293 and a national ABC-TV audience. USC, appearing it its record-tying fourth straight Rose Bowl, became the first team to win 3 consecutive Rose Bowls. It was the second-most points Penn State allowed in its 41 bowl appearances and the most points surrendered by the Nittany Lions in their past 37 games. It was also the most points USC scored against PSU in the 9-game series. It was USC's ninth win in a row over Big Ten opponents (and sixth in a row against the league in the Rose Bowl). The teams exchanged touchdowns late in the first quarter, as Sanchez hit WR Damian Williams on a 27-yard scoring toss to cap an 11-play, 86-yard drive and then Penn State put together a 9-play, 80-yard drive, culminating with a 9-yard TD run by QB Daryll Clark. USC then went on a 24-point scoring binge on 4 consecutive possessions in the second quarter: Sanchez had a 6-yard TD run early in the quarter to finish an 80-yard drive, PK David Buehler followed with a 30-yard field goal, WR Ronald Johnson caught a 19-yard touchdown bullet from Sanchez and, following S Will Harris' recovery of a PSU fumble, Sanchez hit TB C.J. Gable on a short toss that Gable turned into a 20-yard score with 36 seconds to go. That 31-7 score at intermission was USC's most first-half points in any of its 33 Rose Bowl appearances (the 24-point lead was USC's second-largest Rose Bowl halftime margin, behind a 26-0 halftime lead against Pittsburgh in the 1930 game). The 31 points also eclipsed the most points Penn State had allowed in a game in 2008. USC held decisive halftime edges in first downs (19 to 7), total yards (341 to 177, including 276 to 117 passing), plays (41 to 27), possession time (17:15 to 12:45) and third down conversions (6-of-8 to 1-of-5). After a scoreless third quarter, Penn State came alive, beginning with a 2-yard Clark scoring pass to WR Derrick Williams at the top of the quarter. After USC responded on its ensuing possession with a 45-yard Sanchez TD bomb to Johnson, the Nittany Lions tallied on their next 2 series: a 25-yard field goal by PK Kevin Kelly and a 9-yard Clark pass to WR Jordan Norwood. Penn State got the ball 2 more times, but interceptions by Will Harris and CB Cary Harris (in the end zone at the gun) thwarted those drives. Sanchez, named the Rose Bowl Offensive MVP, completed 28-of-35 passes for 413 yards, career highs for completions and yardage. It was the second most passing yards in a Rose Bowl game (behind 456 by Oregon's Danny O'Neil in 1995) and the fourth highest in USC history (the most since Carson Palmer's 425 versus Notre Dame in 2002), while his touchdowns (4) and completion percentage (80.0%) tied Rose Bowl game records. Sanchez did this against a Penn State defense that had given up only 6 touchdown passes in 2008 and was allowing only 168.0 passing yards. His 4 TD passes gave him 34 on the season, second most in USC history behind Matt Leinart's 38 in 2003. Damian Williams had career bests with 10 receptions for 162 yards, the most by a Trojan since Dwayne Jarrett had 11 for 205 in the 2007 Rose Bowl against Michigan. TE Anthony McCoy added 5 catches for 48 yards, while Johnson (82 yards) and WR Patrick Turner (74 yards) each caught 4 passes. TB Stafon Johnson led USC with 63 yards on 15 carries. USC rolled up 413 total yards against a PSU defense that was allowing only 263.9 yards and 12.4 points. LB Brian Cushing had a USC-best 7 tackles, LB Rey Maualuga added 6 stops and Will Harris had 6 tackles to go with his fumble recovery and interception. USC LB Kaluka Maiava was named the Rose Bowl Defensive MVP as he had 4 tackles and 2 deflections. Penn State's 410 total yards and 273 passing yards were the most against USC in 2008. Clark hit 21-of-36 passes for 273 yards, while TB Stephfon Green led the Nittany Lions in rushing (10 carries for 57 yards) and receptions (5 for 67 yards). Butler (97 yards) and Williams (34 yards) each had 4 catches for PSU. LB Josh Hull had a game-high 10 tackles, 5 of LB Navorro Bowman's 8 tackles were for losses and CB Tony Davis had 8 stops and a fumble recovery. PSU was penalized 9 times, including 7 in the first half. Legendary Penn State coach Joe Paterno, college football's winningest coach, coached from the press box after having hip surgery several weeks prior. The game was a rematch of the 1923 Rose Bowl that was the first played in the current Rose Bowl stadium. It was just the third time that USC played back-to-back games in the stadium.

2009 Emerald Bowl
USC 24, Boston College 13

QB Matt Barkley threw a pair of touchdown passes to FB Stanley Havili and ran for another score while the USC defense shut out Boston College in the second half to lead the Trojans to a 24-13 win in their first-ever Emerald Bowl appearance on a chilly, soggy night in front of a capacity crowd of 40,121 in AT&T Park in San Francisco and a national ESPN cable audience. USC, which entered the game unranked for the first time since the end of the 2001 season when it last played in a non-BCS bowl, won its 16th consecutive non-conference game and its 32nd bowl game. It was Troy's first game against BC since 1988 and its first in San Francisco since 1943. The Trojans scored on their first 2 possessions with a pair of drives that exceeded 80 yards, with Havili weaving 53 yards with a Barkley pass on the first series and then catching a 5-yard Barkley pass on the second series early in the second half. But the Eagles responded on their next 2 drives, with RB Montel Harris getting a 7-yard TD run (the extra point kick missed) and then, after getting an interception, WR Rich Gunnell jetting 61 yards with a pass from QB Dave Shinskie late in the half (it was the longest reception against USC since BYU's Todd Watkins had a 69-yarder in 2004) to pull within 14-13 at intermission. But the Trojans limited BC to only 91 total yards in the second half, including just 19 in the third quarter. USC converted a pair of turnovers into scores in the second half. After DT Jurrell Casey recovered a fumble, PK Jordan Congdon hit a 38-yard field goal midway through the third quarter. Then after an interception by CB Shareece Wright (seeing his first action of 2009 after being academically ineligible), Barkley scored on a 1-yard sneak early in the fourth quarter. Barkley was 27-of-37 (a career best for completions) for 350 yards and hit 13 of his first 14 passes (including his first 7). WR Damian Williams was voted the game's Offensive MVP after catching 12 passes for 189 yards (both personal bests) and he set up USC's last 2 TDs after hauling in bombs. Havili added 6 receptions for 83 yards (both career highs) and WR Ronald Johnson had 6 for 58 yards. TB Allen Bradford ran for 72 yards on a personal-best 17 carries. DT Christian Tupou led USC with 7 tackles, including 1.5 for losses, while LB Malcolm Smith added 6 stops. For Boston College, Shinskie was 14-of-33 for 218 yards, Gunnell caught 6 passes for 130 yards and Harris ran for 102 yards on 23 tries (his fifth straight 100-yard outing). LB Luke Kuechly had 16 tackles and was named the game's Defensive MVP. USC had 438 total yards (with a season-low 88 on the ground) to BC's 312, held the ball 34:23 and limited the Eagles to just 4-of-12 on third down conversions. It rained for 2 hours before kickoff and then lightly again during the third quarter. The Trojans played without 4 starters: CB Josh Pinkard (knee injury), TB Joe McKnight (held out by USC's NCAA compliance office) and TE Anthony McCoy and OT Tyron Smith (both academically ineligible).

2012 Sun Bowl
Georgia Tech 21, USC 14

QB Tevin Washington ran for a touchdown while throwing for another and Georgia Tech used a staunch defense to propel the Yellow Jackets to a 21-7 upset over USC in the 79th Hyundai Sun Bowl in El Paso on a cold (low 40s), windy (20 mph gusts) day before 47,922 fans and a national CBS-TV audience. USC became the first AP pre-season No. 1 team ever to end up with 6 losses and the first to finish unranked since 1964. It was the Trojans' third straight loss of 2012, their longest losing skid since 2001. Troy lost 5 of its final 6 games after a 6-1 start to snap a streak of 10 straight 8-win seasons. USC, playing in the post-season after a 2-year NCAA-imposed bowl ban, remained winless in 3 visits to the Sun Bowl. Georgia Tech, which needed an NCAA waiver (because of a sub-.500 record) to qualify for a bowl berth, broke a 7-bowl game losing streak. It was the first meeting between the schools since 1973. USC's offense was stymied by a Yellow Jacket defense that was allowing an average of 29.9 points and 387.0 total yards. The Trojans got just 205 total yards (their fewest since also getting 205 versus California in 2004), including 107 passing (fewest since getting 7 against Penn State in 2000), and 10 first downs (fewest since getting 8 versus Florida State in 1998) while converting only 3-of-15 third downs (and 0-of-1 on fourth downs). Troy had just 59 plays while holding the ball only 23:35. USC failed to get a first down in 8 of its 14 possessions. In the second half, the Trojans had just 89 total yards and were shut out on 32 plays. Georgia Tech, using a spread option attack that averaged 312.5 rushing yards, had 294 of its 369 total yards via the run. The Yellow Jackets passed just 10 times (with only 5 completions) among its 73 plays (the fewest pass attempts against USC since Washington State's 9 in 2008 and the fewest completions since Colorado's 2 in 2002). Tech's 75 passing yards were the fewest versus the Trojans since Notre Dame's 41 in 2008. After a scoreless first quarter, both teams scored a TD in the second quarter. The Yellow Jackets went 74 yards in 14 plays, capped by a 3-yard pass from QB Vad Lee to RB David Sims early in the quarter. Then, after DE Morgan Breslin forced a fumble that DE Wes Horton recovered, QB Max Wittek hit TB Silas Redd on a 9-yard score with 50 seconds to play. Georgia Tech took advantage of a 56-yard punt return by CB Jamal Golden to the USC 1-yard line on its first possession of the second half, with Washington getting the 1-yard TD run 2 plays later. Washington then hit RB Orwin Smith on a 17-yard TD pass early in the fourth quarter. USC got in the red zone on its last 2 possessions in the game's final 7 minutes, but Wittek had passes picked off in the end zone both times. Wittek, starting his second straight game for injured QB Matt Barkley, completed just 37.8% of his passes (14-of-37) for 107 yards with 1 TD and 3 interceptions while every throw was seemingly affected by the wind. He was 7-of-24 (29.2%) for 49 yards in the second half. Redd ran for 88 yards on 17 carries. WR Marqise Lee caught 6 passes for 41 yards, while WR Robert Woods added 3 grabs for 33 yards. LB Hayes Pullard had a game-best 16 tackles (the most by a Trojan since Troy Polamalu had 20 against Utah in 2001), DT Leonard Williams had 14 stops and S T.J. McDonald had 13. LB Lamar Dawson had an interception. For Tech, Sims rushed for 99 yards on 17 tries and RB Zach Laskey added 60 yards on 6 tries. Washington ran for 56 yards on 16 carries and was 3-of-5 passing for 49 yards, while Lee ran for 52 yards on 10 tries and completed 2-of-5 passes for 26 yards.

2013 Las Vegas Bowl
USC 45, Fresno State 20

QB Cody Kessler threw a Las Vegas Bowl-record and career-high 4 touchdown passes, including a pair each to WRs Marqise Lee and Nelson Agholor, and TB Javorius Allen ran for 2 more scores, while USC's defense throttled No. 21 Fresno State's potent aerial attack as the Trojans posted a convincing 45-20 victory in the 22nd Royal Purple Las Vegas Bowl in front of a sold out crowd of 42,178 fans (the second most in Sam Boyd Stadium and game history) and a national ABC-TV audience. USC, which recorded its 25th 10-win season despite a season of adversity that included 4 head coaches, was led in Las Vegas by interim head coach Clay Helton, who took over the reins after former interim head coach Ed Orgeron resigned after the regular season (incoming head coach Steve Sarkisian watched the game from the press box). It was Troy's first 14-game season in history. Fresno State, which entered the game with a school-record 11 wins (and just one loss) after capturing the inaugural Mountain West Conference championship game, will meet the Trojans again to open the 2014 season in the Coliseum. USC limited a Bulldog offense, which led the nation in passing (409.8) and was third in total offense (45.3) and fifth in scoring offense (45.3), to just 216 passing yards and 253 total yards. FSU QB Derek Carr came in leading the nation in passing (305.5)

but was held to 216 yards on 29-of-54 passing (just 53.7%, well shy of his 70.1% prior to the game) with an interception. Bulldog WR Davante Adams entered the game leading the nation in receptions (10.2) and was second in receiving yards (137.1), but had just 73 yards on 9 catches. Fresno State held the ball just 18:33 and had only 61 plays (it ran the ball just 6 times for 37 yards, the fewest opponent rushes ever against USC) while converting only 2-of-14 third downs and 1-of-3 fourth downs. The Bulldogs went 3-and-out on 6 of their 14 possessions. All of FSU's scores came following USC miscues in Trojan territory, including twice on drives of less than 40 yards. The Bulldogs' 55 pass attempts were the most against USC since Oregon State's 60 in 2003. USC had 499 yards of total offense on 76 plays with 24 first downs. Its 41:27 possession time was its most since getting 41:57 against Stanford in 1989. Game MVP Kessler outplayed Carr, his longtime friend from his Bakersfield hometown, as he hit 73.3% of his passes (22-of-30) for a career-best 345 yards. He was sacked just once by the nation's leading sack team. Lee had 7 receptions for 118 yards and Agholor added 5 grabs for 94 yards, while Allen ran for 86 yards on 27 carries and caught 4 passes for another 33 yards. CB Kevon Seymour, who led USC with 7 tackles, was named the Defensive Outperformer of the Game, while sixth-year senior walk-on C Abe Markowitz, making his first start of the season, was the Offensive Outperformer of the Game. USC opened up a 35-6 lead at halftime, including scoring the final 28 points of the half. USC drove 65 yards on the game's opening series, capped by a 10-yard Kessler TD pass from Lee. After USC's ensuing onside kick recovery was negated by a penalty, the Bulldogs took only 3 plays to get in the end zone on an 8-yard Carr pass to WR Isaiah Burse. Troy came right back on its next possession, as Kessler hit Agholor with a 40-yard TD pass. The Trojans scored on their first 3 series of the second quarter, first on a 17-yard Kessler-to-Agholor pass (after FSU didn't convert a fourth down run), then on a 24-yard Allen run (following a failed FSU fake punt deep in its territory) and finally on Kessler's 40-yard throw to Lee. At halftime, USC had rolled up 326 total yards and 15 first downs to FSU's 138 total yards with 8 first downs (and just 1-of-8 on third downs), and Kessler was 14-of-18 for 244 yards passing. The Bulldogs scored early in the third quarter after recovering a USC fumbled punt, with Carr hitting Allen for a 23-yard TD. But USC responded on the next series as PK Andre Heidari nailed a 39-yard field goal. FSU S Derron Smith returned an interception 41 yards for a score at the top of the fourth quarter, but the Bulldogs went 3-and-out on their final 2 possessions. Allen's 1-yard scoring run late in the game finished the scoring.

2014 Holiday Bowl
USC 45, Nebraska 42

No. 24 USC—behind QB Cody Kessler's 3 touchdown passes, a pair of scores by both TB Javorius Allen and CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson, a pair of fourth quarter fourth-down defensive stops and a batted-down Hail Mary pass at the gun—held off No. 25 Nebraska, 45-42, in a wild shootout on a chilly evening in Troy's first appearance in the Holiday Bowl before a crowd of 55,789 fans in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium and a national ESPN audience. It was USC's 33rd bowl victory (not including a win vacated by NCAA penalty), including its eighth in the past 9 bowls. The win kept USC undefeated against Nebraska in 5 meetings (it was the first time the teams met in the post-season). It was USC's 13th straight win over a Big Ten team, including 8 in a row in a bowl. The teams combined for 1,040 total yards and 87 points, with 4 touchdowns measuring more than 40 yards. There were 27 points scored in the first quarter and 38 in the third. After USC built a 45-27 lead late in the third quarter on Kessler's 20-yard TD pass to TE Bryce Nelson, Nebraska countered with a 65-yard scoring pass from QB Tommy Armstrong Jr. to WR Jordan Westerkamp. Nebraska was stopped on fourth down on the USC 34 on its next possession, but Armstrong raced 15 yards for a score (and then hit WR Kenny Bell on the conversion) on the Cornhuskers' next drive with 6:52 to play to pull within 3 points. USC then went 3-and-out for its third straight possession and Nebraska drove to the Trojan 31, only to be stopped short again on fourth down with 2:31 remaining. Nebraska got the ball back with 17 seconds to play and drove to its 44, but Armstrong's Hail Mary pass with 1 second to go was knocked away by WR Nelson Agholor, who was inserted to defend the play. After Nebraska opened the game's scoring on PK Drew Brown's 34-yard field goal when it took over at midfield following a partially blocked punt, Jackson ran back the ensuing kickoff a Holiday Bowl-record 98 yards for a TD. Nebraska answered with a 18-yard Armstrong-to-Bell TD pass, then USC countered with a 42-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari to tie the game at 10-10 midway through the opening quarter. Armstrong hit WR De'Mornay Pierson-El with a 9-yard scoring pass late in the quarter, but USC responded again as Kessler found Agholor for a 17-yard TD early in the second quarter. The Trojans then took a 24-17 lead into halftime on Allen's 2-yard scoring run to cap an 80-yard drive. Nebraska benefitted from outstanding field position in the opening half, as the average start of its 9 first-half possession was its 45-yard line. USC extended its margin to 31-17 early in the second half when Kessler threw a short pass to Jackson, who raced 71 yards for a TD. The teams then traded TDs, with RB Ameer Abdullah getting a 20-yard TD run and Allen scoring on a 44-yard run. After Nebraska blocked another USC punt late in the third quarter and took over at the USC 16, Brown nailed a 24-yard field goal to pull the Cornhuskers within 38-27. USC won despite Nebraska having more total yards (525 to 515), passing yards (381 to 321), first downs (28 to 22), plays (94 to 73) and possession time (34:26 to 25:34). The Trojans were penalized 12 times for 97 yards and converted just 3-of-14 third downs (0-of-6 in the second half). Kessler, the game's Offensive MVP, completed 23-of-39 throws for 321 yards and 3 TDs with an interception, and he tied the USC season records for TD passes (39) and 300-yard passing games (7) and set season marks for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1) and interception rate (1.11). Allen ran for a game-best 152 yards on 26 carries and had a 16-yard reception, giving him at least 100 all-purpose yards in every game of 2014. Jackson, who became the first Trojan since R. Jay Soward in 1996 with 2 scoring kick runbacks in a season, had 203 all-purpose yards (3 receptions for 73 yards and 3 kick returns for 130 yards) along with 7 tackles. Agholor caught 7 passes for 90 yards, giving him 104 catches in 2014 (third best in USC history). DE Leonard Williams, the game's Defensive MVP, and CB Josh Shaw each had a team-high 9 tackles (Williams had a sack), while LB Hayes Pullard added 8 stops to become the first Trojan since Dennis Johnson in 1977-79 to lead USC in tackles for 3 seasons. For Nebraska, Armstrong hit 32-of-51 passes for 381 yards with 3 TDs and an interception and he ran for 41 yards on 12 tries, Abdullah had 269 all-purpose yards (88 on 27 carries, 61 on 6 receptions and 120 on 3 kickoff returns), Pierson-El had 8 catches for 102 yards and Bell had 7 grabs for 71 yards. The Cornhuskers were led by interim head coach Barney Cotton, filling in after head coach Bo Pellini was released after the regular season. It was just USC's seventh game in San Diego and the first since 1992.

2015 Holiday Bowl
Wisconsin 23, USC 21

PK Rafael Gaglianone kicked 3 field goals, including a 29-yarder with 2:27 to play, to give No. 23 Wisconsin a 23-21 victory over USC in the National Funding Holiday Bowl on a chilly evening before 48,329 fans in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium and a national ESPN audience. It was USC's first loss to Wisconsin in 7 meetings (the teams last played in 1966) and it snapped Troy's 13-game winning streak over Big Ten squads (including 8 straight in bowls). USC trailed the entire game before taking a 21-20 lead with 10:19 to play on a 7-yard touchdown pass from QB Cody Kessler to WR Darreus Rogers. But later in the final quarter, the Badgers drove 42 yards into position for Gaglianone's game-winning 3-pointer. Overall, USC had only 286 total yards (just 65 rushing) and 16 first downs (all season lows) on 61 plays against a Wisconsin defense that came into the game ranked first nationally in scoring (13.1), third in total yards (267.1), fourth in rushing (97.9) and sixth in passing (169.2). Troy converted just 5-of-14 third downs. Wisconsin ended up with 394 total yards on 75 plays while posting 37:18 of possession time. After a scoreless first quarter, Wisconsin built a 10-0 lead on Gaglianone's 28-yard field goal early in the second quarter and then a 6-yard scoring run by RB Corey Clement on the Badgers' next possession. USC responded on its ensuing drive with a 1-yard TD run by TB Justin Davis, but Wisconsin answered right back by driving 71 yards on 12 plays to set up Gaglianone's 33-yard field goal with 26 seconds to play in the half to give the Badgers a 13-7 edge. Wisconsin had 238 yards on 39 plays in the first half to USC's 114 yards on 24 plays (Troy had the ball just 9:49). Wisconsin scored on its first series of the second half as QB Joel Stave hit TE Austin Traylor with a 4-yard TD toss. But the Trojans got a 4-yard Davis TD run on the next series to pull within 20-14 late in the third quarter. Kessler was 18-of-32 for 221 yards, WR JuJu Smith-Schuster had 4 catches for 65 yards, TB Ronald Jones ran for 47 yards on 8 carries and DT Delvon Simmons had a game-best and career-high 11 tackles (2 for losses). For Wisconsin, Stave was 18-of-27 for 217 yards to earn Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP honors, while WR Alex Erickson had 5 receptions for 54 yards and Clement ran for a game-best 66 yards on 19 tries. OLB Jack Cichy, the game's Defensive MVP, led Wisconsin with 9 tackles, including 3 consecutive sacks on a third quarter series right after USC had closed to 20-14 (he also hit Kessler's arm to force an interception with 1:44 to play).

There have been 50 matchups between the No. 1 and No. 2 teams in the Associated Press poll (23 times during the regular season, twice in a conference playoff and 25 times in bowls). The No. 1 team has won 28 times, the No. 2 team has won 20 times, and there have been 2 ties. USC is 3-3 in such matchups, winning 3 of the 4 times it was No. 1 and losing both times it was No. 2. The AP poll began in 1936.

USC in AP Rankings

Since the AP poll began in 1936, the weekly rankings have been published 1,103 times. USC has been ranked in the poll 742 times (67.3% of the time). Here's the list of the 10 most frequently ranked teams (according to CollegePollArchive.com):

1.	Ohio State	854
2.	Michigan	807
3.	Oklahoma	783
4.	Notre Dame	767
5.	Alabama	743
6.	USC	734
7.	Nebraska	716
8.	Texas	702
9.	Penn State	591
10.	LSU	575

In those 1,103 AP polls, USC has held the No. 1 ranking 91 times. The 10 teams ranked No. 1 most often are:

1.	Ohio State	105
2.	Oklahoma	101
3.	Notre Dame	98
4.	USC	91
5.	Alabama	74
6.	Florida St.	72
7.	Nebraska	70
8.	Miami (Fla.)	68
9.	Texas	45
10.	Florida	41

USC has the longest streak of consecutive weekly AP No. 1 appearances, with a national record 33 (from Dec. 8, 2003 to Dec. 4, 2005). The Trojans also had an earlier streak of 18 (from Sept. 12, 1972 to Sept. 25, 1973). Here's the list of the 10 teams with the longest streaks of top-ranked appearances:

1.	USC	33
2.	Miami, Fla.	21
3.	USC	18
4.	Florida State	17
5.	Army	15
	Nebraska	15
	Oklahoma	15
	Nebraska	15
	Ohio State	15
	Alabama	15

In 2004, USC became only the second team ever to be ranked No. 1 in the AP pre-season poll and hold that top ranking the entire season (Florida State did it in 1999). Four other teams--Notre Dame in 1943, Army in 1945, Nebraska in 1971 and USC in 1972--were No. 1 in every regular season ranking, but either did not start off No. 1 in the pre-season poll (Nebraska and USC) or there was no pre-season poll (Notre Dame and Army).

USC's back-to-back AP national championships in 2003 and 2004 marked the 10th time that a team won consecutive AP national titles. The others: Minnesota (1940-41), Army (1944-45), Notre Dame (1946-47), Oklahoma (1955-56), Alabama (1964-65), Nebraska (1970-71), Oklahoma (1974-75), Alabama (1978-79) and Nebraska (1994-95). Since then, Alabama did it in 2011-12.

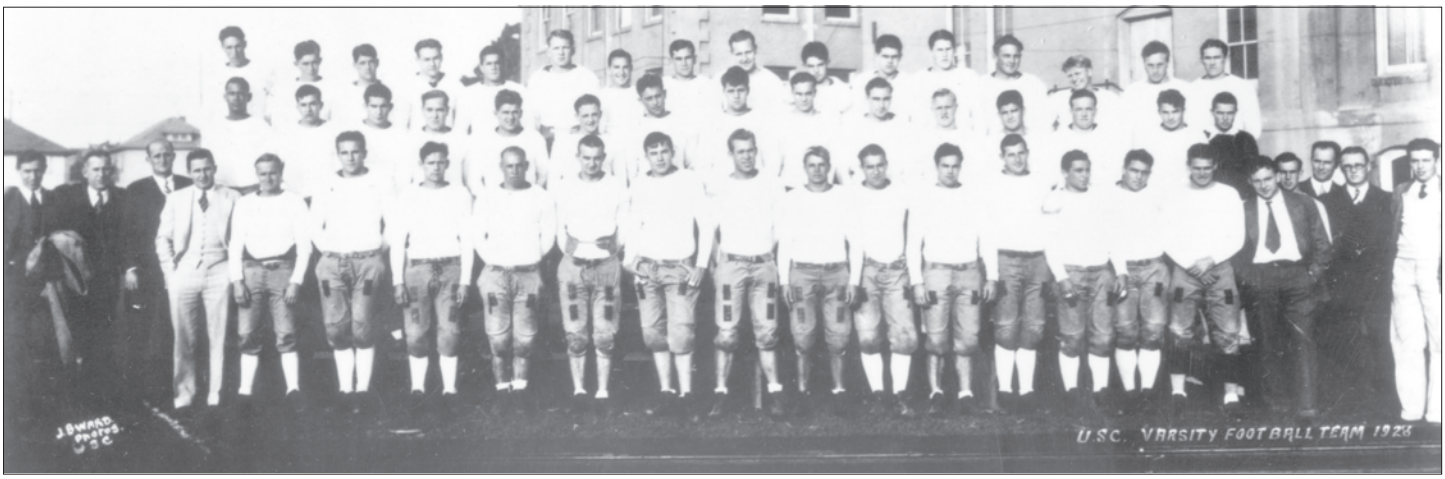
1928 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



They whip the ends, they buck the guards, the line begins to yield
And the "greatest team in history" backs slowly down the field
And finally comes the whistle as a seal to Stanford's fate,
And the "greatest team in history" goes staggering through the gate
--Excerpt from a 1928 poem about the USC-Stanford clash.

The "Thundering Herd," under Hall of Fame coach Howard Jones, galloped to the Trojans' first national championship in 1928. A swarming defense, led by tackle Jesse Hibbs and end Garrett Arbelide, gave up only 59 points all season, while an offensive backfield of Harry Edelson, Russ Saunders, Don Williams and Marshall Duffield rolled over, under, and through their opponents.

USC finished the season with nine wins and no losses, with the only blemish being a 0-0 tie with Cal as the Golden Bears continued to be a nemesis for Troy in the 1920s.

The Trojans beat Glenn "Pop" Warner's Stanford Indians, 10-0, forcing five fumbles in the process. Warner had never lost to Jones and he considered his 1928 team to be his best. But USC used a special strategy called the "quick mix" to disrupt Stanford's offense and help offset the Indians' 10-pound-per-man weight advantage. The strategy worked in what was a landmark game for the Trojans, who established themselves as the preeminent football power on the West Coast. Warner never beat Jones again.

The 1928 season also saw USC beat Notre Dame and Knute Rockne for the first time, 27-14. Williams passed for 111 yards and two touchdowns and rushed for 93 more as the Trojans clinched the national title.

1931 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"I've waited for two years for this day — but, boy, what revenge!"
— USC's Erny Pinckert after beating the Irish.

The 1931 edition of Howard Jones' "Thundering Herd" was the team that captured the imagination of college football fans everywhere, and the hearts of the citizens of Los Angeles. More than 300,000 welcomed the Trojans home from a thrilling 16-14 victory over Notre Dame in South Bend—a victory clinched by what sportswriter Maxwell Stiles called "Johnny Baker's 10 little toes, and three BIG points."

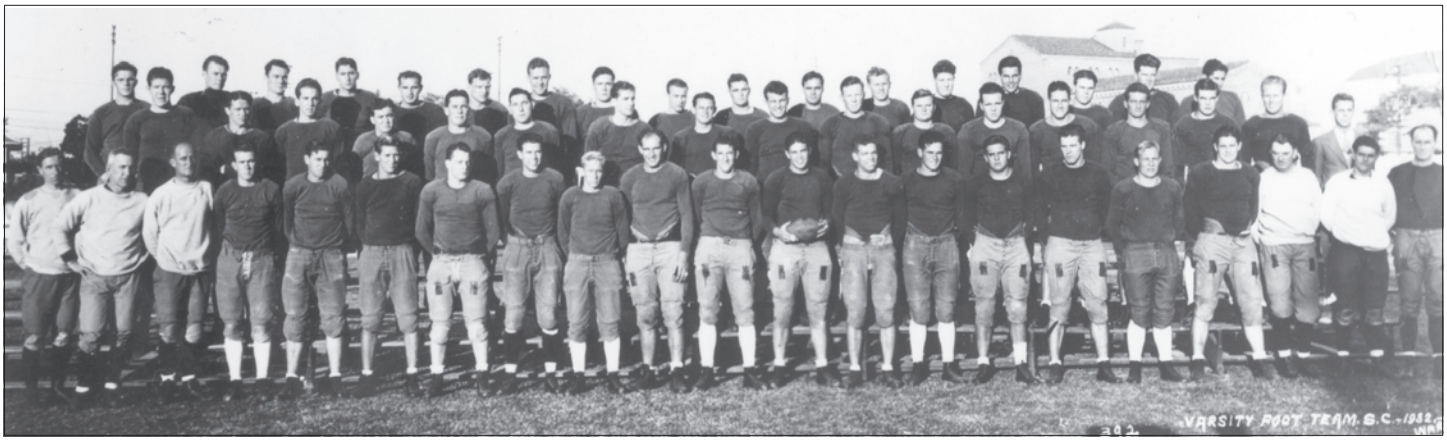
USC trailed the Irish14-0 at the outset of the final stanza, but stormed back behind the running of Gus Shaver and the passing of Orv Mohler. Baker's 33-yard field goal with one minute remaining made the difference. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten streak and was the Trojans' first victory in South Bend.

The season started inauspiciously enough with a 13-7 loss to St. Mary's. "I have no alibis to offer," said Jones afterward. But Troy then proceeded to roll over its next 10 opponents by a combined score of 356 to 39. There were six shutouts.

"(USC is) the greatest team I have ever seen," said Georgia coach Harry Mehre, after his Bulldogs were blanked, 60-0. The usually taciturn Jones agreed, calling his team "the greatest offensive machine I have ever coached."

USC capped the season with a 21-12 victory over Tulane in the Rose Bowl. Four Trojans garnered All-American acclaim: Baker, Shaver, Erny Pinckert and team captain Stan Williamson.

1932 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



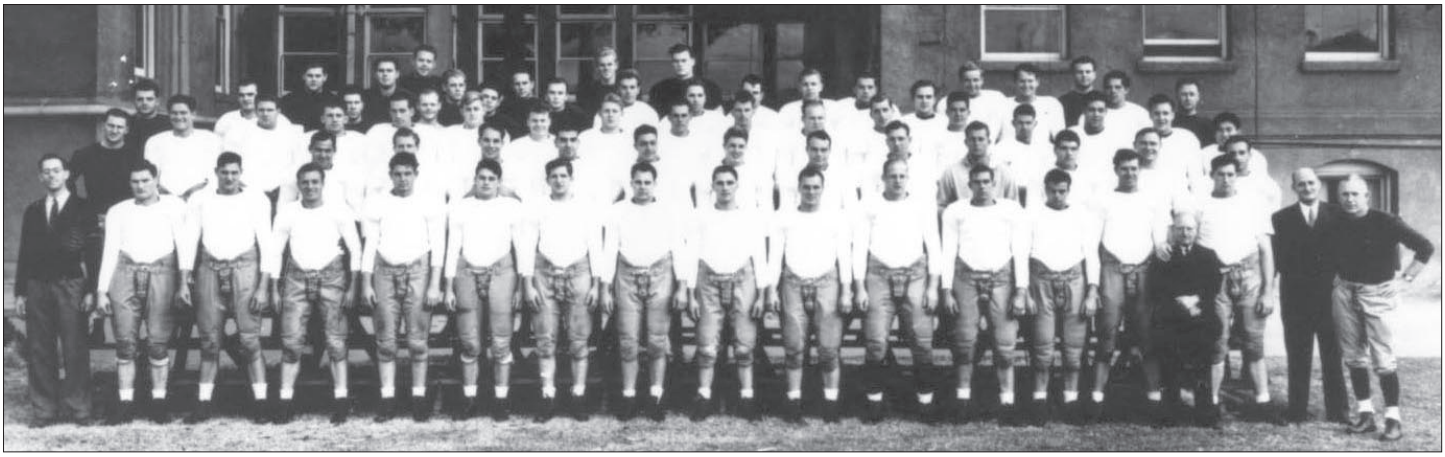
"Fortunately, I have a strong line to start with. I have Mohler, and if anything happens to him, I have Griffith and Warburton."
— Howard Jones to famed sportswriter Grantland Rice before the 1932 season.

The Trojans breezed to their second consecutive national championship in 1932 as the Howard Jones era reached its pinnacle. But at the start of the season, future greatness was not apparent for this team. Seven regulars had graduated from the 1931 squad, including three All-Americans. By the end of the season, however, it was hailed as perhaps Jones' finest squad. In fact, some still regard this as USC's best team.

The line, one of the greatest in Trojan history, included All-Americans Tay Brown, Aaron Rosenberg and Ernie Smith. The offense, directed by Homer Griffith and featuring back Cotton Warburton and ends Ray Sparling and Ford Palmer, was potent despite losing star Orv Mohler to injury. Meanwhile, the defense shut out its first five opponents, before finally being scored upon in the fourth quarter of game six. Jones' squad allowed only 13 points all season while scoring 201. USC defeated Notre Dame 13-0 and smashed Pittsburgh 35-0 in the Rose Bowl.

The masterful 1932 season firmly placed Jones in the upper echelon of collegiate coaches. He even appeared on the cover of TIME magazine, where he was compared to the legendary Amos Alonzo Stagg and Glenn "Pop" Warner. In 1999, Athlon magazine rated the 1932 team among the greatest of the 20th century.

1939 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"We weren't off form, stale or crippled. We were just outclassed."
— Tennessee coach Bob Neyland after his undefeated, unscored-upon Vols lost, 14-0, to USC in the 1940 Rose Bowl.

The year 1939 witnessed Howard Jones' Thundering Herd capture its fourth national championship. The head man remarked at the team banquet that this team--his next to last at Troy--was his finest (at least in terms of depth) in his 16 years at USC.

As tanks rolled in Europe, Jones' team rolled to an 8-0-2 record, shutting out six teams and allowing just 7 points to three others. Only 33 points were scored upon Troy that year--a mark no Trojan defense has topped since.

The season had its share of huge games. There was a 19-7 win over No. 11 Oregon State in Portland and a 20-12 win over No. 7 Notre Dame at South Bend (USC wouldn't win again at Notre Dame Stadium until 1967). The regular season finale was an epic 0-0 tie with No. 9 UCLA in front of 103,303, the second-largest crowd in Coliseum history. The capper was a 14-0 win over No. 2 Tennessee in the Rose Bowl against a Volunteer team that hadn't been scored upon in 16 games and hadn't lost in 24 games.

Lineman Harry Smith was a unanimous All-American, while quarterback Grenny Lansdell--who led the team with 742 rushing yards and 54 points--was also named to some teams.

At season's end, the Trojans were given the Knute Rockne Trophy, awarded each year to the No. 1 team in the country by Professor Frank G. Dickinson, a respected analyst who declared, "The Trojans were the best team in the best section…and the nation's other top teams did not play as strong a schedule as USC."

1962 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"Our intention was to win today....and what does the scoreboard say?"
— John McKay after the 1963 Rose Bowl.

In 1962, John McKay led USC to its first national championship in 23 years and inaugurated one of the greatest dynasties in college football history. From 1962 to 1981, the Trojans won five national titles, played in 11 Rose Bowls, collected four Heisman Trophies and contributed dozens of All-Americans to what was already a remarkable football heritage

McKay's third team featured the talented quarterback tandem of Pete Beathard and Bill Nelsen, who combined to pass for 18 touchdowns while tossing only three interceptions. A then-school-record 11 of those touchdowns went to consensus All-American end Hal Bedsole, who also set the standard for passes caught (33) and yards receiving (827). The ground attack was run from the I-formation, led by the versatile Willie Brown at tailback and co-captain Ben Wilson at fullback. Brown led the team in rushing, interceptions, punt returns and kickoff returns, and was the second leading receiver.

The Trojan defense allowed only 92 points all season. All-American linebacker Damon Bame led a unit that had three shutouts (including a 25-0 blanking of Notre Dame) and allowed more than 10 points only twice during the regular-season.

Troy capped the year by outlasting Wisconsin, 42-37, in one of the most exciting games in Rose Bowl history. McKay was named Coach of the Year by the American Football Coaches Association and the Football Writers Association of America.

1967 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"Well, gentlemen, I guess I wasn't so stupid today."
—John McKay after beating UCLA, 21-20.

The 1967 Trojans relied on the running of tailback O.J. Simpson, the blocking of Outland Trophy-winning tackle Ron Yary, and a stifling defense to win USC's sixth national championship.

Simpson's weaving 64-yard touchdown run, pehaps the most famous run in college football history, was the difference in a 21-20 victory over UCLA. The showdown between the top-ranked Bruins and the No. 4-ranked Trojans remains one of the greatest games in the history of the crosstown series.

USC's only blemish on the season was a 3-0 loss in the rain and mud to Oregon State in Corvallis. The Trojans would not be shut out again for 26 years and did not lose again to the Beavers until 2000. The other key victory for Troy, a 24-7 win over Notre Dame, was USC's first win at South Bend since 1939. Linebacker Adrian Young's four interceptions (a USC record) helped to repel the Irish. The Trojans celebrated New Year's Day 1968 with a 14-3 victory over Indiana in the Rose Bowl.

The incomparable Simpson, the Heisman runner-up that year, ran for a then-NCAA-record 1,543 regular-season yards (1,709 overall) to go with 13 touchdowns. Mike Battle, Tim Rossovich, and Young led a defense which allowed only 87 points. A record five Trojans were selected in the first round of the 1968 NFL draft, with Yary going first overall.

1972 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"USC's not the number one team in the country. The Miami Dolphins are better."
-- Washington State coach Jim Sweeney.

The 1972 national champions averaged 39 points per game and never trailed in the second half. In going 12-0-0, the Trojans scored 467 points, second most in school history. The defense intercepted 28 passes, limited their opponents to 2.5 yards per rush, and never gave up a run longer than 29 yards.

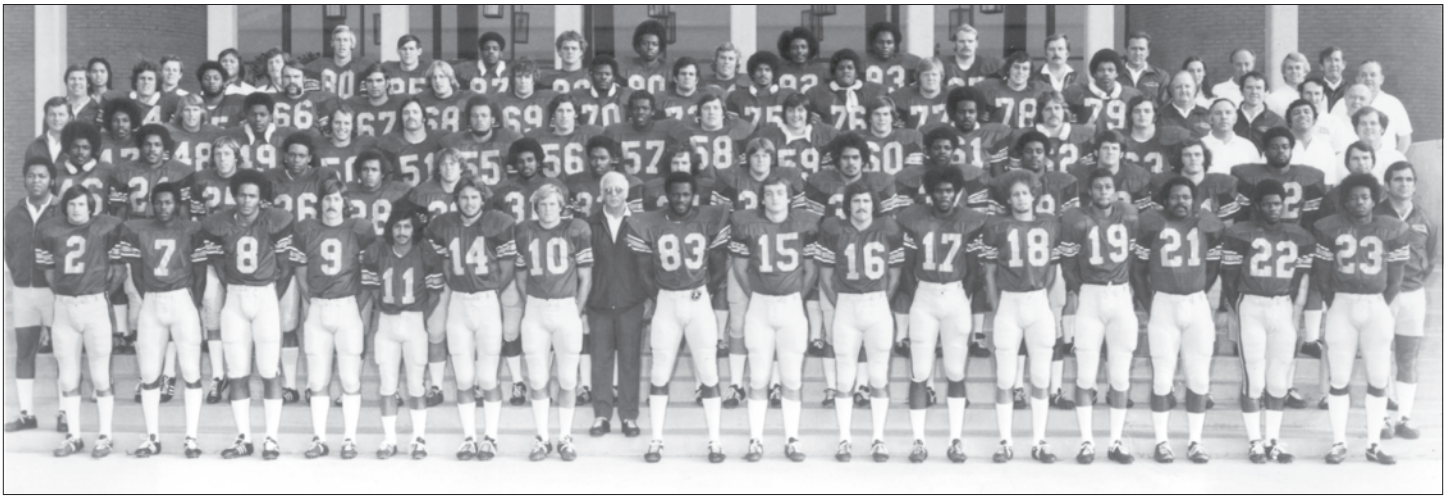
The roster was a perfect blend of talent, youth, and experience. Senior Mike Rae and sophomore Pat Haden handled the quarterback duties. Sophomore Anthony Davis rushed for 1,191 yards despite not starting until the eighth game. All-American fullback Sam "Bam" Cunningham was an outstanding blocker and a tremendous leaper, especially in goal-line situations. Tight end Charles Young was equally adept blocking and receiving, while split ends Lynn Swann, Edesel Garrison and J.K. McKay were excellent pass catchers.

The defense was fast and strong. Sophomore linebacker Richard Wood burst onto the scene with 18 tackles in the season-opener on his way to garnering All-American honors. John Grant and Jeff Winans anchored the defensive line, while Artimus Parker, Charles Phillips and Charles Hinton led the secondary.

USC's smallest margin of victory was nine points (versus Stanford). The Trojans beat No. 4-ranked Arkansas 31-10, No. 18 Washington 34-7, No. 14 UCLA 24-7, No.10 Notre Dame 45-23 and No. 3 Ohio State 42-17. USC was unanimously chosen No. 1 in the final AP and UPI polls, the first team to be so honored.

The 1972 team is considered to be John McKay's finest at USC and one of the greatest college teams of all time.

1974 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS



"We turned into madmen."
-- Anthony Davis, after USC came back to beat Notre Dame.

The 1974 team earned John McKay his fourth national title behind the big-play heroics of All-American tailback Anthony Davis, the steady leadership of quarterback Pat Haden and the clutch play of a defense that forced the second-highest interception total in USC history.

Davis, the runner-up for the Heisman Trophy, rushed for 1,421 yards and 13 touchdowns. His three-year yardage total of 3,724 yards and 52 touchdowns was a Pac-8 record. He set an NCAA record for most kickoffs returned for TDs in a season (3) and career (6). He scored four touchdowns to lead the Trojans to an amazing 55-24 comeback win over Notre Dame in the regular season finale. In his career, Davis scored 11 touchdowns against the Fighting Irish.

Pat Haden threw 13 touchdown passes, but his biggest completions came with the Trojans trailing Ohio State 17-10 in the 1975 Rose Bowl. His 38-yard TD strike to J.K McKay with two minutes to play and his subsequent 2-point conversion to Shelton Diggs gave USC an 18-17 victory and the writers' share of the national championship.

Senior linebacker Richard Wood, Troy's only three-time All-American, led the defense. Defensive back Charles Phillips set NCAA records for most interception return yardage in a season (302), most interception return yardage in a game (181), highest average gain per interception for one game (90.5), and most touchdowns on interception returns in a season (3).

The win over Notre Dame, dubbed "The Comeback," was sparked by Davis' 102-yard kickoff return to start the second half. Trailing 24-0 late in the second quarter, the Trojans scored 55 unanswered points in just under 17 minutes to win going away.

USC had five players selected to the All-American team for the third consecutive year. A school-record 12 Trojans were selected to the All-Conference squad (since equalled by the 1989 Trojans). Fourteen players from the 1974 team were taken in the NFL draft—an all-time record also shared by the 1976 Trojan team.

1978 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"I don't remember ever playing against a tailback who can run like White."
—Paul 'Bear' Bryant, after witnessing Charles White rush for 199 yards against his Alabama team.

The 1978 national champions, coached by John Robinson, were a USC team stocked with great college players and several future NFL stars.

The Trojans finished 12-1, including a solid 24-14 road victory over co-national champion Alabama, a nail-biting 27-25 win over Notre Dame, and a 17-10 victory over Michigan in the Rose Bowl.

All-American tailback Charles White rushed for 1,859 yards to become the Pac-10 career rushing leader as a junior. Freshman tailback Marcus Allen provided depth. Quarterback Paul McDonald led the conference in passing and tied a USC record with 19 touchdown passes. Fullback Lynn Cain rushed for 977 yards, the most ever by a Trojan fullback. Flanker Kevin Williams had 17 receptions, 10 of them for touchdowns. The offensive line included All-American guard Pat Howell, All-Pac-10 tackle Anthony Munoz (considered by many to be the game's greatest tackle ever) and All-Pac-10 guard Brad Budde (a four-year starter and the 1979 Lombardi Award winner). The back-ups on the line included future All-Pros Roy Foster and Keith Van Horne.

The defense featured the talented safety duo of Dennis Smith and Ronnie Lott. Linebackers Dennis Johnson (the team's tackle leader) and Riki Gray manned the middle, while Larry McGrew and Chip Banks roamed the outside. Rich Dimler, Myron Lapka and Dennis Edwards keyed the defensive line.

The Trojans' only loss was at Arizona State, 20-7. They would remain unbeaten for the next 28 games. USC took the top spot in the coaches poll, but finished second in the writer's poll to Alabama despite beating the Crimson Tide earlier in the season.

2003 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"If you stay with me, I'll take you places you've never been."
—Pete Carroll, at a team meeting to open 2003 fall practice.

After a 25-year hiatus, USC returned to the top of the college football world when it won the 2003 AP national championship.

Head coach Pete Carroll, in just his third year at Troy, guided his Trojans to a 12-1 record and their second consecutive Pac-10 title. USC closed the season by winning its last 9 games, including a dominating victory over No. 4 Michigan in the Rose Bowl. USC scored at least 30 points in 11 consecutive games, including 40 points in 7 in a row (both Pac-10 records), en route to tallying 534 total points (another Pac-10 mark). For just the second time in history, USC swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame in consecutive years.

Not many predicted the 2003 team's success. After all, these Trojans had to replace a Heisman Trophy winner (Carson Palmer) and an All-American safety (Troy Polamalu), among others. But Trojans fans got an inkling of the team's potential when USC opened its season at No. 6 Auburn with a 23-0 whitewash. The only loss came in triple overtime at California.

Five players won All-American first team honors: quarterback Matt Leinart, wide receiver Mike Williams, defensive end Kenechi Udeze, offensive tackle Jacob Rogers and punter Tom Malone. Leinart and Williams finished sixth and eighth, respectively, in the Heisman Trophy voting. And Carroll was recognized as the National Coach of the Year.

Leinart, who had never thrown a pass in his USC career before the 2003 campaign, was the Pac-10's Offensive Player of the Year (Stanford's John Elway was the only other sophomore so honored) and set a Pac-10 record with 38 TD passes. Williams, another sophomore, caught 95 passes with a school-record 16 TDs. Udeze tied for the national lead in sacks with 16.5, while soph Malone shattered the USC season punting average record (49.0). Other key contributors were wide receiver Keary Colbert, who became USC's career receptions leader, the rotating tailback threesome of Hershel Dennis, LenDale White (the first true freshman to top Troy in rushing) and Reggie Bush, cornerback Will Poole, center Norm Katnik, defensive tackles Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, placekicker Ryan Killeen and linebacker Lofa Tatupu.

The Trojan defense topped the nation in rushing defense and was second in turnover margin, forcing 42 turnovers and scoring 8 TDs.

2004 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

"USC Leaves No Doubt"
—Los Angeles Daily News headline after USC's Orange Bowl win.

From the start of training camp, the motto for the 2004 USC football team was "Leave No Doubt." The Trojans did just that, winning their second consecutive national championship. And, unlike 2003, this title was undisputed, as USC demolished Oklahoma in the BCS Championship Game in the Orange Bowl, 55-19. Troy went 11-0 overall (not including 2 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 13-0, a school record for victories) and became just the second team ever to hold the AP No. 1 ranking from pre-season through the entire campaign. It was only the 10th time that a team won back-to-back AP crowns. At 7-0, USC won its third consecutive Pac-10 title(not including 1 win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 8-0). The Trojans swept traditional rivals UCLA and Notre Dame for an unprecedented third year in a row (UCLA win vacated due to NCAA penalty).

USC concluded the season riding a 20-game winning streak, as well as 21 straight home games, a Pac-10 record 15 consecutive league home games, 14 straight Pac-10 games and 8 road games in a row (not including 2 overall wins, 1 Pac-10 win and 1 road win vacated due to NCAA penalty: original record: 22-game winning streak, 15 Pac-10 games, 9 road games) .

Troy was in the national Top 10 in every defensive statistical category (its total defense average was USC's lowest in 15 years), including first in rushing defense and turnover margin and third in scoring defense. USC outscored opponents by 25.2 points (including a school-record 8 games with a margin of at least 30 points). USC played before 3 home sellouts, 7 regular-season sellouts and 8 season sellouts, all school marks. And Troy set a USC and Pac-10 record for home attendance average, as well as school records for total home attendance, overall attendance average and total overall attendance.

A school-record 6 Trojans (Heisman Trophy quarterback Matt Leinart, Heisman finalist tailback Reggie Bush, defensive linemen Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson, and linebackers Matt Grootegoed and Lofa Tatupu) were named All-American first teamers. Leinart and Bush were named the Pac-10 Co-Offensive Players of the Year, while Cody was the Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year.

USC'S "HISTORY-SHAPING" GAMES

(When USC football reached a milestone in its illustrious history on Oct. 2, 1999, by playing its 1,000th game, former Trojan assistant sports information director Chris Huston wrote the following since-updated story in Troy's game program that day on USC's "most important" games...not necessarily the best games or most dramatic, but those that made USC football what it is today.)

Looking back, who would have thought that a tiny school founded by the Methodist Church would emerge to become one of the top football powers in the country?

There have been so many accomplishments in these 1,000-plus games: 11 national titles, 6 Heisman Trophy winners, 33 Rose Bowls and 160 All-Americans. Trojan football history is packed with heroic moments and legendary names.

The names are etched clearly in our memories: Gloomy Gus. The Thundering Herd. John McKay. Iron Mike. And the famous games still resonate: the twin comebacks versus Notre Dame, the recurring nail-biters against UCLA, the triumphant Rose Bowls.

But what about the "most important" games out of the past 1,000-plus -- the games that helped make USC what it is today? Which games started trends, broke streaks or changed history? Some you'll remember, some you won't. Here are a few of the contests that shaped USC's football history:

1888 - USC 16, Alliance Athletic Club 0 The first game. Who could have imagined how the future would unfold? In those days a touchdown scored four points, while the conversion was worth two points, a field goal five points and a safety scored two. Frank Suffel and Henry Goddard were the playing coaches for this first team.

1905 - Stanford 16, USC 0 This was USC's first game ever against major college competition. Prior to this, USC had played Southland colleges, high schools, academies and athletic clubs and had rivalry games with Pomona and Occidental. Stanford, however, was big-time on the gridiron long before USC was. The Stanford-Cal game annually made bigger headlines, even in Los Angeles, than any USC game. USC fans looked forward to this game all year and the Trojans managed to hold their own on a dreary day in Palo Alto, but the result was a shutout loss. Significantly, USC did not play another major opponent in college football for nine years after this Stanford loss.

1924 - California 7, USC 0 Elmer "Gloomy Gus" Henderson's undefeated Trojans met Andy Smith's undefeated Bears before 60,000 in USC's first appearance at Memorial Stadium in Berkeley. Jim Dixon scored the game's only touchdown on a 12-yard run around left end in the second quarter. USC's loss pushed its record against Cal to 1-8-1. The pressure from the alumni for Henderson's ouster grew intense, and after an upset loss to St. Mary's the next week, the decision was made to buy out Gloomy Gus' contract at the end of the year. The way was thus cleared for the arrival of Howard Jones, arguably Troy's greatest head coach.

1925 - Nebraska 17, Notre Dame 0 The greatest intersectional college football rivalry--USC versus Notre Dame--might never have commenced but for this game. USC was looking for a national rival and dispatched graduate manager Gwynn Wilson (akin to the modern day athletic director) and his wife to Lincoln, where Notre Dame was playing Nebraska on Thanksgiving Day. Knute Rockne was cool to the idea of a home-and-home series with USC because of the travel involved, but Mrs. Wilson was able to persuade Mrs. Rockne that a trip every two years to sunny Southern California was better than one to snowy, hostile Nebraska. Mrs. Rockne spoke to her husband and shortly thereafter Notre Dame became an annual fixture on USC's schedule.

1928 - USC 10, Stanford 0 Howard Jones had not beaten Glenn "Pop" Warner's Stanford Indians in three tries until his Thundering Herd did it before 80,000 at the Coliseum this year. The legendary Warner considered this Stanford team to be his best, but they lost five turnovers to USC that day. Stanford's 10-pound per-man weight advantage was offset by the Trojans' "quick-mix" defense and a speedy backfield comprised of Don Williams, Russ Saunders and Marshall Duffield. This was a landmark game as it signaled Troy's emergence as the preeminent power on the West Coast. USC went on to win its first national title that season and Jones never lost to Warner again.

1931 - USC 16, Notre Dame 14 This game captured the imagination of football fans everywhere--and the hearts of the citizens of Los Angeles. More than 300,000 fans welcomed the Trojans home from this thrilling victory in South Bend--a victory clinched by what sportswriter Maxwell Stiles called "Johnny Baker's 10 little toes and three BIG points." USC trailed 14-0 at the outset of the final stanza, but stormed back behind the running of Gus Shaver and the passing of Orv Mohler. Baker's 33-yard field goal with one minute remaining made the difference. The win snapped Notre Dame's 26-game unbeaten string and was the Trojans' first win in South Bend. Called "...the biggest upset since Mrs. O'Leary's cow knocked over that lantern" by El Rodeo, Troy's student yearbook, it clinched USC's second national title and firmly established the Trojans as a national power.

1944 - USC 38, Washington 7 This was USC's first home night game in the Coliseum. The game program reported: "This may well be the one and only Coliseum night game in Trojan varsity football history." That year, Washington was under wartime travel restrictions and was forced to schedule two California games in seven days. A schedule conflict resulted and an exception had to be made to USC's longstanding policy of playing Saturday afternoons. The game was a success. The attendance of 62,865 was USC's largest for a home game that year. As a result, home night games became a regular part of the USC schedule.

1956 - USC 44, Texas 20 In 1925, guard Brice Taylor, an African-American, was named USC's first All-American. It would be about 30 years before another black man made his mark on Trojan football. Fullback C.R. Roberts was that man. He rumbled for 251 yards versus Texas, setting the USC single-game rushing record in the process. The record stood for 20 years. It was sweet redemption for Roberts and his teammates. The game was played in Austin and the hotel the Trojans had booked was segregated. Head Coach Jess Hill moved his team to a lodging that was integrated and the Trojans seemed to take it out on the Longhorns on game day.

1959 - Notre Dame 16, USC 6 This was the last game played between the two teams in South Bend in November. The freezing cold affected the Trojans so much that Athletic Director Jess Hill proposed moving USC's games at Notre Dame Stadium to October, while continuing to play the Coliseum games in late November. Notre Dame agreed and it has been that way ever since.

1961 - Iowa 35, USC 34 The Hawkeyes came into this game ranked No. 1 in the country. The Trojans, in their first season using John McKay's I-formation, were struggling. The critics in the press box said the "I" stood for "incompetent," "intolerable" and "ineffective." But on this day, after falling behind 21-0, USC exploded for 34 points and lost only in the last minute, 35-34. The Trojans totaled 220 yards on the ground and 156 in the air. For the first time, the I-formation proved its worth. Soon, USC and John McKay became synonymous with this tailback-led rushing attack.

1967 - USC 24, Notre Dame 7 The 1967 USC-UCLA game is the game everyone remembers from this season, but it never would have had the same importance if the Trojans hadn't first defeated defending national champion and No. 5 Notre Dame on a sunny October day in South Bend. The previous year, the Irish handed the Trojans their worst defeat ever, 51-0, and despite USC's No.1 rank in the 1967 polls, Notre Dame was a heavy favorite. Weighing heavy on the oddsmakers' minds was the fact that USC had not won in South Bend since 1939 (it didn't matter much to them that McKay, after the '66 debacle, vowed never to lose to the Irish again). It was on this day that most of the country first heard of a tailback named O.J. Simpson. The junior from San Francisco rushed for 160 yards on 38 carries and tacked on all three USC touchdowns. A tenacious Trojan defense intercepted seven passes (four by a true Irishman, Adrian Young) and recovered two fumbles. USC trailed at the half, 7-0, but roared back in the second half to win the game. The victory solidified Troy's place at the top of the final rankings.

1970 - USC 42, Alabama 21 It's a rare feat when a football game helps to change societal attitudes. The 1970 USC win over Alabama may have done just that. The Trojans traveled to Birmingham where they faced an all-white Crimson Tide team coached by Paul "Bear" Bryant. Thanks to dominating performances for USC by a trio of African-Americans (Sam Cunningham, Clarence Davis and Jimmy Jones), Bryant was convinced that he needed to recruit black players for his program. The rest of the Southeastern Conference soon followed suit and opportunities for black athletes in the South began to improve tremendously. Bryant was so impressed by Cunningham (who had 135 yards and two touchdowns on just 12 carries) that he invited the sophomore fullback into the 'Bama locker room after the game. He brought his players to Cunningham one-by-one and introduced him, saying: "This is what a football player looks like."

1996 - USC 27, Notre Dame 20 At long last, after 13 years of futility, the Trojans defeated the Irish. In what seemed the unlikeliest of streaks, USC had found every possible way to not defeat Notre Dame. And in what seemed like the unlikeliest of days for it to happen, Troy finally ended that streak. USC was struggling at 5-6 after a wild double-overtime loss to UCLA the previous week while Notre Dame was standing tall with an 8-2 record and a New Year's Day bowl bid in the works. The Trojans somehow managed to stay in the game despite playing without starting quarterback Brad Otton for large chunks of regulation, as he was bothered by an injury. When Notre Dame scored a touchdown to go ahead 20-12 (with the PAT pending) in the fourth quarter, things looked bleak for USC. But Irish kicker Jim Sanson shanked the extra point and the margin stayed at eight. The Trojans responded with an eight-play, 67-yard drive culminating in Delon Washington's 15-yard touchdown scamper. Washington also ran in the two-point conversion and the score was knotted at 20. Neither team could score before the end of regulation and overtime ensued. On USC's first drive, Otton hit Rodney Sermons with a five-yard touchdown pass and the Trojans went ahead for the first time, 27-20. Jubilation erupted in the Coliseum when Mark Cusano then batted down Ron Powlus' fourth-down pass and the streak ended.

2001 - USC 27, UCLA 0 This game was the regular season finale of the 2001 season, but it exemplified the attitude and style that first-year head coach Pete Carroll brought to Trojan football. The message sent that day was clear: Nothing beats a great defense. Furthermore, the game signalled a sea-change in the L.A. sports scene as USC under Carroll was increasingly viewed as the healthiest program in town. There was nothing complicated about the contest. The Trojan offense hit on a couple big plays—namely, a 66-yard catch-and-run by tight end Kori Dickerson off a Carson Palmer aerial and a 34-yard touchdown run by tailback Chris Howard. But USC managed just 276 yards of total offense and 12 first downs. However, the Trojan defense was spectacular, holding UCLA to a paltry 114 yards and 10 first downs. USC picked off three UCLA passes, including an amazing between-the-legs snatch by cornerback Antuan Simmons which he returned 36 yards for a touchdown. It was USC's first shutout of UCLA since 1947. While the Trojans would later stumble in the Las Vegas Bowl, it was clear that something special was starting to go on at Troy.

USC'S HISTORY-SHAPING GAMES

2002 - USC 44, Notre Dame 13 While the 2001 UCLA game was about re-establishing USC in Los Angeles, the 2002 Notre Dame game was about re-establishing USC on a national level. The Trojans had not played in such a high-stakes game since the 1988 No. 1 vs. No. 2 showdown against the Irish—a bitter 27-10 loss. On this day, three important things happened for USC. First, the Trojans clinched their first-ever BCS bowl berth. Second, they completed their first season sweep of UCLA and Notre Dame since 1981 and, probably most important of all, Trojan quarterback Carson Palmer showed the nation why he deserved to be named USC's fifth Heisman Trophy winner. Through it all, Troy put another feather in the cap of what would become its most magical and successful season since 1979. A capacity crowd and a near-national television audience saw first-hand the magnificent "Carson Show," as USC's senior quarterback threw for 425 yards and four touchdowns—both Notre Dame opponent records. What's more, he led the Trojan offense to 610 total yards—again, the most yards ever against the Irish. While there were a couple nail-biting moments for USC fans in the second quarter as Notre Dame briefly took a 13-10 lead, Palmer allayed those fears by leading a masterful 75-yard drive that took just over a minute and culminated in a pass that sailed over the outstretched hands of two Irish defenders and into the waiting arms of Mike Williams for a 19-yard touchdown. Hence, the Trojans sprinted into the locker room with a 17-13 lead and never looked back in the second half on their way to scoring the most points against the Irish by a USC team since 1974's legendary 55-24 onslaught. The jubilant looks on the faces of the Trojan coaches, players and fans afterwards—as well as the sight of the future Heisman winner holding aloft the Shillelagh—said it all: USC was back.

Other "important" games in Trojan history

1951 - Notre Dame 19, USC 12 (USC's first appearance on national television)

1953 Rose Bowl - USC 7, Wisconsin 0 (breaks Big Ten Rose Bowl win streak)

1964 - USC 20, Notre Dame 17 (Fertig to Sherman shocks the No. 1 Irish)

1978 - USC 24, Alabama 14 (key game in the national title season)

1983 - Washington 24, USC 0 (first shutout of USC in 187 games, a then-NCAA record)

2004 Rose Bowl - USC 28, Michigan 14 (despite being snubbed from the BCS Championship Game in the Sugar Bowl, USC dominates Michigan to win its first national championship in 25 years)

2005 Orange Bowl - USC 55, Oklahoma 19 (USC puts on an overwhelming display of power in its first-ever appearance in the BCS Championship Game, although the win was later vacated due to NCAA penalty)

2011 - USC 23, Utah 14 (not only was this the first game in Pac-12 history, but the final score was updated 2 hours after the game by Pac-12 clarification to include a USC touchdown that occurred during a penalty on the contest's final play)

USC'S ALL-AMERICANS

The following is a complete listing ot all USC football players who have ever received first team All-American honors. Although there are numerous teams selected throughout the country, the NCAA now recognizes only five in determining whether a player is a unanimous or consensus choice--AP, Football Coaches Association, Football Writers Association, the Walter Camp Foundation and The Sporting News.

From 1962 to 1990, USC had at least one first team All-American every year. From 1972 to 1987, there was at least one consensus All-American Trojan every year. Also, there have been 30 first team All-American Trojan offensive linemen since 1964.

KEITH VAN HORNE

USC HEISMAN SALUTE

MIKE GARRETT — 1965

Two-time All-American Mike Garrett was the man who began the great legacy of USC's I-formation tailbacks.

He was the Trojans' first — and only the West Coast's second — Heisman winner when he whipped an outstanding field of candidates in 1965.

Mike set 14 NCAA, conference and USC records in his three-year career, including an NCAA career rushing record of 3,221 yards in the days when 1,000-yard-a-season rushers were almost non-existent. He later starred for the Kansas City Chiefs and San Diego Chargers.

O.J. Simpson became USC's second Heisman Trophy winner in 1968 when he captured the award by the most one-sided margin in history.

During the regular 1968 season, O.J. established an NCAA record for yards rushing — 1,709 — in a single season (since bettered). A two-time unanimous All-American, he equaled or bettered 19 NCAA, conference and USC records.

A December 1998 SPORT magazine ranking listed him among the Top 10 college football players of the 20th century.

Simpson also held the NFL single season rushing record of 2,003 yards set in 1973 and finished his 11-year pro career as the second leading NFL career rusher.

Playboy Pre-Season All-Americans

USC landed more players on the prestigious Playboy Magazine pre-season college All-American football team than any other university. Since Playboy first picked a team in 1957 through its last official team in 2012, there were a national-best 77 Trojan players selected, as well as 2 Coaches of the Year and 1 Scholar-Athlete. Next with 52 selections was Texas, followed by Michigan with 49, Oklahoma with 47 (plus 3 Coaches of the Year), Notre Dame with 42 (plus 1 Coach of the Year) and Nebraska with 40 (plus 2 Coaches of the Year and 1 Scholar-Athlete). During a 16-year period (1972 through 1987), at least 1 Trojan player was selected annually to the Playboy squad. On 8 different occasions (1970-76-79-80-2004-05-08-12), 3 USC players made that year's Playboy team. USC's Tony Boselli, who was selected in 1992-93-94, was the first 3-time Playboy selection from any school. (NOTE: An unofficial team was selected beginning in 2013.)

ALL-TIME LETTERWINNERS

Various standards have been used to determine USC letterwinners over the years, but since 1976, squad members who have played at least 30 minutes have been listed here as lettermen. There have been many exceptions to that rule, including kickers and others who contributed significantly to the team's success without playing 30 minutes.

In addition, senior squad members who have been on the team for several years have generally been awarded letters for their senior season, as long as they appeared in at least one game. This has been a long-standing policy.

The list is confined to lettermen who actually played on USC's varsity teams of American Rules Football, and does not include individuals who lettered only in rugby.

Positions, heights, and weights are generally those listed in USC publications and other sources in the player's final letterwinning year. Positions are primarily listed in the terminology of the era in which the letterwinner played. "Hometowns" by longstanding custom are usually the places from which players came to USC, and are located in California unless noted. Parenthetical notations contain a letterwinner's high school, and junior or senior college, attended before USC, where known, and are in the state of the letterman's hometown, unless noted. This list was expanded by Michael J. Glenn (with input from Gary Wright). USC appreciates their invaluable efforts.

A Note on USC's Records

The records material on these pages has been compiled from a number of sources. Although official national individual records commenced only in 1937 (nearly 50 years after USC's first team), USC's game-by-game records generally extend back to the mid-1920s. Newspaper accounts of individual games, including some extraordinary individual performances, date back to 1889. Unfortunately, for some games in USC's first 20 years, only the final result has survived to the present.

These records have been compiled by USC's Sports Information Office (previously known as the Athletic News Service). Special mention should be made of the efforts of Tom Lawless, Dick Nash, Harley Tinkham, Chuck Weinstock, Al Wesson, Deke Houlgate, H.D. Thoreau and Mike Glenn, as well as Benny Artiaga, Nick Schenck, Gabriel Alvarez, Meghan McElroy, Michelle Laug and Robbie Ellison.

* - USC Record  - USC and Pac-10 Record

# - Excludes first 3 games + - Excludes Pomona game

Between 1888 and 1921, an estimated 500,000-plus people attended home and away USC games.

The largest single-game crowd in USC history was the estimated 120,000 at Soldier Field in Chicago for the 1927 USC-Notre Dame game. The largest USC home crowd was 104,953 for the 1947 USC-Notre Dame game in the Coliseum. The largest USC post-season bowl game crowd was 106,869 at the 1973 Rose Bowl in Pasadena (USC versus Ohio State), which is an NCAA bowl game record.

In all, USC has played before at least 60,279,154 people since it first started playing football in 1888.

Jim Farrell of Long Beach, Calif., became the 50 millionth fan to see a USC football game, home and away, when he came through the Coliseum gates at the 2004 USC-Arizona State home game.

In 1988, USC not only set a since-broken school record for home attendance average per game (76,063, which ranked eighth best in the nation), but Troy also registered the greatest increase in average home attendance of any school in the nation that year (up 22,416 per game over 1987). That increase was 7,996 more than the next closest school.

TROJANS IN THE NFL

With its outstanding football heritage, it's no surprise that USC players have made quite a mark in the pros.

At the start of training camp this summer, there were 51 ex-Trojans on National Football League rosters, including 11 rookies. In fact, USC players were on the rosters of 25 of the NFL's 32 teams. Most of the Trojans were linebackers (10), defensive backs (9), defensive linemen (9), offensive linemen (7), quarterbacks (5) and tight ends (5).

In 2015, there were 35 Trojans on opening day NFL rosters, more than from any other school except LSU's 40 and Miami's 37 (since records were available, USC has been No. 1 in 19 of the last 40 years). The Trojans had more quarterbacks (4) on opening day rosters in 2015 than any other school. USC also had the most linebackers (8) and tied for the most of any school at center (3).

USC has produced more NFL draft picks (496) than any school (Notre Dame is next at 493), along with 28 picks by the AFL before it merged with the NFL. USC and Michigan are the only schools with an NFL draftee every year since 1939. There have been 485 USC players who since 1920 played in the NFL (or its sister leagues, the AFL or All-America Football Conference).

USC has had more first round NFL draft picks (79) than any school (Ohio State is next with 76). USC is tied with Notre Dame and Auburn for most players (5) selected as the top pick of the NFL draft (Ron Yary in 1968, O.J. Simpson in 1969, Ricky Bell in 1977, Keyshawn Johnson in 1996 and Carson Palmer in 2003). USC is the only school to have the No. 1 pick for 2 consecutive years (Yary and Simpson). USC has had three of the most highly-drafted classes in history. The 1953 class (following the 1952 season) had 15 players drafted while both the 1975 and 1977 classes had 14 players selected. USC had more players selected in the 2011 (9), 2009 (11), 2008 (10), 2006 (11) and 1990 (10) drafts than any school. USC had more players drafted than any school in the 10-year period from 2002-11 and 5-year period from 2007-11. USC's 12 first round picks in the 1990s tied for third most in the nation with Tennessee; 8 of those Trojan first rounders were selected in the Top 10. In the decade of the 1980s, Troy had more first round picks than any school (16). USC's 5 first round picks in the 1968 draft was an NFL record that lasted 36 years.

A Trojan has appeared in all but 5 of the 50 Super Bowls (there have been 110 USC representatives overall). Three Trojans (Lynn Swann in 1976, Marcus Allen in 1984 and Malcolm Smith in 2014) have been the Super Bowl MVP. In 1977, 9 USC alums played in the Super Bowl. Trojans have been selected to play in the Pro Bowl 228 times.

Twelve former USC players (tied with Notre Dame for most of any other school) and 3 ex-assistant coaches are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame.

In 2016, Lynn Swann and Ronnie Lott were named to the Super Bowl 50 Golden Team by the Pro Football Hall of Fame Board of Selectors.

According to a 2015 NFL.com report, USC had more players drafted in the previous 10 drafts (2005-14) than any school, with 69 (6 more than runnerup LSU).

A 2010 ESPN.com survey ranked USC as "the most fertile NFL draft pipeline" from 1979 to 2009. In 2010, Lindy's Sports listed USC as the "football factory" for quarterbacks, running backs and offensive linemen.

In 2009, ESPN NFL draft analyst and former NFL head coach Herm Edwards said: "If you want to play pro football and you're a young high school athlete, you know going to USC is going to give you the best opportunity system-wise and competitive-wise on the field. That's what USC brings to the table. That's why historically, year after year, you see all these players coming into the league." Fellow ESPN NFL draft analyst and ex-NFL quarterback Ron Jaworski added: "It's fierce competition every day you go out on the USC practice field. Not only on Saturday when they play the game. Every day they're competing at the highest level."

In 2008, NFL Network named USC the No. 1 "football factory" in college football.

Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott were selected on the NFL's All-Time Team in August 2000, as chosen by the 36 Pro Football Hall of Fame voters.

A December 1999 story in The Sporting News listed 4 Trojans among the 100 Greatest Pro Football Players: Anthony Munoz (17th), Ronnie Lott (23rd), O.J. Simpson (26th) and Marcus Allen (72nd). Anthony Munoz was picked among the NFL's Top 10 players of the 20th century by SPORT in 1999.

In December 1999, the Dick Butkus Football Network named a pair of ex-Trojans on its NFL All-Century First Team: Anthony Munoz and Ronnie Lott.

A January 1999 article in ESPN Magazine said that "one of the best ways to win a Super Bowl is to (have a USC player on the team). The alma mater most often represented on winning teams is USC."

A Dec. 13, 1999 article in the San Diego Union-Tribune, which examined Pro Bowl selections since 1950 to determine the schools that have supplied the most pro players at various positions, found that USC had the most Pro Bowl selections and produced more Pro Bowl running backs and safeties than anyone.

A May 1999 SPORT magazine article pointed out that USC sent more players to the Pro Bowl in the 1990s (14) than any other school. "The most measurable sign of a player's success--and thus his pedigree--comes in the form of the NFL's highest annual honor: the Pro Bowl. It's not enough to make it to the league, you've gotta make it in the league." In the article, then-New York Jets Pro Bowl wide receiver Keyshawn Johnson, the former USC All-American, said: "USC is a football factory. Every kid in L.A. grows up wanting to play there, and the coaches know how to translate that into elite athletes."

In a Dec. 1994 College Sports magazine ranking of the schools which have been the top sources over the years of football talent by position (on a combined college and NFL level), USC was listed first at running backs, offensive linemen and defensive backs, and third at linebackers.

In a 1985 Sports Illustrated poll of NFL player personnel directors, USC was ranked first overall among all schools in preparing players for the pros. By position, USC received top marks for running backs, offensive linemen and tight ends.

TROJANS IN THE NFL DRAFT

Listing includes NFL drafts from 1936-2016 (which followed the 1935-2015 collegiate seasons). From 1960-1966, both the NFL and AFL had drafts and this listing includes both drafts because the AFL later merged with the NFL. (F) indicates "future selection," based on an old NFL rule prior to 1967 in which a player could be chosen if his class had graduated, even if he hadn't completed his eligibility (he could be drafted after his fourth year and his rights would remain with the team which selected him even if he didn't sign for a year). The AFL held a separate "redshirt" (or futures) draft in 1965-1966 and it is also included in this listing.

First round draft picks are listed in CAPITAL LETTERS. The "overall draft selection" figures were not available for the 1960 AFL draft or the 1965 and 1966 AFL Redshirt drafts, however players are listed in correct order of selection in those years (also, no round-by-round records were available for the 1960 AFL draft). The positions listed are those projected by the pros at the time of selection.

List compiled with the assistance of Beau Riffenburgh, NFL Properties.

In 1901, USC didn't play any home games. Since USC played its first night game at the Coliseum in 1944, there have been only 5 seasons that the Trojans started their season with 2 consecutive home day games (1947-49-51-2001-11, with 1949 starting with 3 in a row).

USC's most recent football games in such a stadium were the 2003 and 2005 Orange Bowls in Pro Player Stadium in Miami (beating Iowa and Oklahoma, respectively), 2005, 2010 and 2013 wins over Hawaii in Honolulu's Aloha Stadium (the Trojans also beat Hawaii there in 1978 and 1999 and lost to Auburn in the 1985 Aloha Bowl), a win over Boston College in the 2009 Emerald Bowl in AT&T Park (when both teams were on the same sideline because of the field configuration)and over California in 2011 in AT&T Park (the Bears played there that season while Memorial Stadium in Berkeley was being renovated), although the infield skin was covered with some form of grass for those games. (Note: The 2005 Orange Bowl and 2005 Hawaii wins were later vacated due to NCAA penalty.) During 1992 and 1993, USC played 4 games in stadiums with a baseball field: Troy opened 1992 in Jack Murphy Stadium in San Diego (tying San Diego State), then played in Anaheim Stadium in the 1992 Freedom Bowl (loss to Fresno State), 1993 Disneyland Pigskin Classic (loss to North Carolina) and 1993 Freedom Bowl (win over Utah). In its early days, USC played a number of games on campus at Bovard Field, where the Trojans also played baseball (USC went 45-6-3 there from 1904 to 1923). USC also played several games at venues in Los Angeles that were primarily used for baseball: at Athletic Park (going 0-3-1 from 1895 to 1898), the first Washington Park/Chutes Park (0-1-1 in 1900), the second Washington Park (0-2 in 1915 and 0-1 in 1917) and Prager Park (4-2 in 1903).

GRID/HOOPS — USC is 11-7-1 against schools that won the NCAA men's basketball title the previous year.

HOLLYWOOD TROJANS — Among the USC footballers who gained fame on the silver screen are: John Wayne (a tackle in 1925-26 under his real name, Marion Morrison), Ward Bond (a 1928-30 letterman best known for his role in "Wagon Train"), Mike Henry (a tackle from 1956-58 played Tarzan), Marlin and Mike McKeever (the 1959 All-American twins were in several movies), Tim Rossovich (a 1967 All-American defensive end was in various movies), O.J. HOME JERSEYS — USC wore its home cardinal jerseys for the 2000 Kickoff Classic against Penn State (even though Troy was the visiting team) and for its 1999 game at Hawaii (at the request of the Rainbows). Before that, the last time USC wore cardinal in an opponent's stadium was against UCLA in the Rose Bowl in 1982. By the way, the last time USC wore its road white jerseys at the Coliseum was the 1960 Georgia game, because the Bulldogs only had red jerseys then (USC also wore white jerseys at home on a regular basis during the 1930s).

HOME JERSEYS VS. UCLA — For the first time since 1982, both USC and UCLA wore their home jerseys in the 2008 crosstown rivalry game (it was UCLA's home game in the Rose Bowl). Per an NCAA football-playing rule, because the Trojans were not in their white road jerseys, they were charged with a timeout at the opening kickoff. UCLA responded by calling a timeout immediately after to even things up. The teams again both wore home jerseys in 2009 (that rule was repealed, so there was no consequence). The tradition of USC in its cardinal jerseys and UCLA in its blue jerseys, regardless of whose home game it was, went on from 1949 to 1951 and then 1957 through 1982 before an NCAA football rules change required the visiting team to wear white. That rule was no longer in effect beginning in 2009, so USC again wore its home jersey in the 2010, 2012 and 2014 UCLA games in the Rose Bowl.

IMPROVEMENT — USC's best one-season improvement of its record was +6, as the 1962 national champion Trojans went from 4-5-1 in 1961 to 11-0.

IN FLORIDA — USC lost its first 4 games in Florida before beating Iowa in the 2003 Orange Bowl in Miami.

RAIN OUT — The final 2:36 of USC's 1990 win (35-26) at Ohio State was suspended by the officials when a heavy thunder and lightning rainstorm hit.

SAN FRANCISCO — Although USC regularly plays in Palo Alto and Berkeley in the Bay Area, the Trojans have only played 4 games in San Francisco. The Trojans twice played in the city's Kezar Stadium (a 14-6 loss to Stanford in 1942 and a 34-0 win over USF in 1943) and twice in AT&T Park (a 24-13 win over Boston College in the 2009 Emerald Bowl and a 30-9 win over Cal in 2011 as the Bears played there that season while Memorial Stadium in Berkeley was being renovated).

SAME OPPONENT--USC has played the same opponent consecutively 8 times. On 3 occasions, it happened back-to-back in the same year: 1888 (Alliance AC), 1899 (Occidental) and 1902 (Santa Ana). The other 5 times occurred on a season finale and then the following season opener: 1893-94 (Cal Tech), 1900-01 (Pomona), 1907-08 (Los Angeles HS), 1916-17 (Arizona) and 2013-14 (Fresno State). Also, USC has played the same team twice in the same year, but not consecutively, on 11 occasions: 1898 (Los Angeles HS), 1907 (Los Angeles HS), 1921 (Sub Base), 1943 (both UCLA and California), 1944 (both UCLA and California), 1945 (both UCLA and California), 1987 (Michigan State) and Stanford (2015).

SAME STADIUM — USC's 1992 season finale and its 1993 opener, both in Anaheim Stadium, marked the first time that Troy played 2 straight games in the same stadium (besides the Coliseum) since 1935, when it played Kamehamaha High's Alumni and the University of Hawai'i in the same Honolulu location. In 1922, the Trojans played 3 straight games (versus Idaho and Washington and then Penn State in the 1923 Rose Bowl) in what was then called Tournament of Roses Stadium. USC also played consecutive games in the Rose Bowl stadium in 2006 (versus UCLA and the 2007 Rose Bowl against Michigan) and 2008 (versus UCLA and the 2009 Rose Bowl versus Penn State).

SEASON ENDERS — USC is 68-42-11 (.607) in all season finales (does not include 1 win and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 69-43-11, .606).

SELLOUT — USC's last home sellout was the 2013 Stanford game. In 2006, USC's 6 home sellouts, 10 regular-season sellouts and 11 season (including bowls) are all school records. USC's 10 consecutive home sellouts in 2005-06 (last 4 home games of 2005 and all 6 in 2006) is a school record.

SEPTEMBER RECORD — USC has a 176-45-8 (.786) all-time record while playing in the month of September (does not include 3 wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 179-45-8, .789).

7 ON ROAD — 2010 was the first season that USC played 7 games on the road in the opponents' home stadium. USC also played 7 regular-season games away from home 3 other times (1990-93-96), but 1 game in each of those seasons was at a neutral site.

SNOW — The last time USC played in snow was Nov. 30, 1957 at Notre Dame (the Irish won, 40-12). It was 20 degrees. The 1965 USC-Notre Dame game in South Bend was played in sleet and rain (the Irish won that one, 28-7).

STATE — 1998 was the first time that USC faced 4 consecutive "State" opponents (San Diego State, Oregon State, Florida State and Arizona State) in a season. Over a 2-year span, Troy also once played 4 "State" schools in a row, closing 1990 against Michigan State in the Hancock Bowl and then opening 1991 against Memphis State, Penn State and Arizona State. The 2011 season was the first since 1980 that USC played only 1 school with "State" in its name (Arizona State), and it occurred again in 2012 (Arizona State).

STREAK BUSTERS — USC has twice "busted" an opponent's 20-plus game winning streak: beating Tennessee in the 1940 Rose Bowl to end the Volunteers' 23-game streak and tying Notre Dame in 1948 to end the Irish's 21-game streak. Conversely, USC's school-record 34-game winning streak was stopped by Texas in the 2006 Rose Bowl (14 wins and the loss during that streak were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

SUNDAY — USC has played only 4 games on a Sunday, going 2-2: the 1993 opener versus North Carolina in the Disneyland Pigskin Classic (USC lost, 31-9), the 1996 opener against Penn State in the Kickoff Classic (USC lost, 24-7), the 1998 opener versus Purdue in the Pigskin Classic (USC won, 27-17) and the 2000 opener versus Penn State in the Kickoff Classic (USC won 29-5).

SUPER FAN — The late Giles Pellerin viewed in person 797 consecutive USC football games, home and away, from 1926 to 1998. His late brothers Oliver (637 games) and Max (300-plus) also had impressive streaks.

3 FOR THE ROAD — 1992 was the first time that USC started a season with 3 road games (in 1918 Troy began with 1 at a neutral site and then 2 on the road, while in 1900 USC opened with 1 road game and then 2 at a neutral site).

3-POINT GAMES — The 2010 season was the first season that USC had 5 games decided by 3 points or less.

10-POINT LOSSES — The 1999 season was the first time that USC lost 6 games all by 10 points or less.

10-WIN SEASONS — USC has had 10 wins in a season 25 times, most recently in 2013.

THANKSGIVING — USC has played 20 times on Thanksgiving, the first 19 during the first 50 years of its football existence (1889-91-97-98-99-1900-06-14-15-16-17-19-20-22-26-30-32-36-38-2007). Only 3 times have the Trojans played a Thanksgiving game away from the Southern California area (in 1914 against Oregon State in Tacoma, Wash., in 1932 at Washington and in 2007 at Arizona State). USC has an 11-6-3 record on Thanksgiving.

1,000-YARD RUNNERS — USC has the fifth most 1,000-yard season runners (28), behind Central Michigan (36), Nebraska (35), Oklahoma (32) and Ohio State (31). Troy's last rusher to hit 1,000 yards was tailback Javorius Allen (1,489) in 2014. USC's 57 1,000-yard career runners is third behind Oklahoma (71) and Nebraska (65).

THURSDAYS — USC has a 26-11-3 (.688) record on Thursday, including 11-6-3 on Thanksgiving. Ten of the Thursday games have been bowls (1924 Christmas Festival, 1948-53-70-2004-09 Rose, 1987 Citrus, 1993 Freedom, 1998 Sun, 2003 Orange), with Troy going 7-3. The 8 non-Thanksgiving/non-bowl Thursday games were wins against Oregon State (in Portland) in 1926, at Boston College in 1988, at Hawaii in 2010, at California (in AT&T Park) in 2011, at Utah in 2012, at Hawaii and home versus Arizona in 2013 and home against California in 2014, and losses at Oregon State in 2008 and home to Washington n 2015. The 2013 Arizona game was USC's first non-Thanksgiving/non-bowl Thursday game in the Coliseum. USC has opened its season 4 times (1891, 1988, 2010, 2013) on a Thursday.

TOUGH STARTS — Before Paul Hackett won his Trojan debut in 1998, USC's previous 6 head coaches — Don Clark, John McKay, John Robinson (twice), Ted Tollner and Larry Smith — all failed to win their debut.

TRAVELOGUE — USC has played football in 34 states, plus Japan. In order of appearance, USC has played in California, Washington, Utah, Arizona, Oregon, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Pennsylvania, Hawai'i, Ohio, Louisiana, Maryland, New York, Minnesota, Texas, Wisconsin, Michigan, Iowa, Colorado, Oklahoma, Florida, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia, Tennessee, Missouri, South Carolina, Japan, Massachusetts, New Jersey, Nevada, Kansas and Virginia.

TRICK OR TREAT — USC is 7-6 in games played on Halloween.

TROJANS MIKESIDE — Numerous Trojan footballers have parlayed their playing days into a sports announcing career. Some of those who have been on national broadcasts: Frank Gifford, Lynn Swann, Pat Haden, Marcus Allen, Ronnie Lott, Sean Salisbury, O.J. Simpson, Tim Ryan, Tony Boselli. Those who have been on the local airwaves: Paul McDonald, Petros Papadakis, John Jackson, Mike Garrett, Anthony Munoz, Mike Lamb, Mark Carrier, Jeff Kopp, Jeremy Hogue, Brandon Hancock, Darrell Rideaux, David Newbury, Curtis Conway, Keyshawn Johnson, Shaun Cody.

TROY — USC has had just 6 lettermen with the appropriate first name of Troy (Troy Garner, Troy Polamalu, Troy Richardson, Troy Van Blarcom, Troy West and Troy Winslow). Polamalu was the only to win All-American first team acclaim.

TURNAROUNDS — In 123 seasons of USC football, the Trojans have lost 4 or more games 40 times. Following 8 of those 4-plus loss seasons, USC "turned it around" to win the Rose Bowl the next year (1938-43-62-67-72-76-78-84).

TV OUTLETS — USC has appeared live on 34 different television broadcasting outlets. The Trojans have won on the air of all but 3 of those outlets (KTLA, Innovative and a local Memphis station).

21-14 — USC has played 1,201 football games in history and only twice--in 1951 when Troy went to Berkeley and snapped No. 1-ranked California's 38-game regular season unbeaten streak and in 2012 in an upset loss at Stanford--has the final score been a very football-like 21-14 (win or lose).

UCLA-ND — USC is 19-20-2 (.488) against UCLA in seasons when Troy's next game is against Notre Dame. Troy is 17-20-4 against Notre Dame in games immediately following the Bruin game, including 9-9-3 when the Trojans are coming off a win over UCLA. Conversely, although USC has faced its two traditional rivals in the same season 78 times, it has played the Irish and then the Bruins back-to-back in that order only 5 times (1937, 2004, 2006, 2008 and 2010).

UCLA-ND SWEEP — USC has defeated both UCLA and Notre Dame in the same season 19 times, with 9 of those occasions occuring in back-to-back Bruin/Irish games (1938-56-62-64-72-74-76-78-2002), twice on consecutive Irish/Bruin games (2004-08) and the other 8 times (1967-79-81-2003-05-07-09-11) coming when the Irish game was in October and the Bruin contest in November/December (2 of those UCLA wins--2004, 2005--were later vacated due to NCAA penalty). In years that USC swept UCLA and Notre Dame and then played in a bowl, the Trojans are 13-2 in bowls (wins in the 1938-62-67-72-74-76-78-79-2002-03-07-08-09 seasons and the losses in 1981-2005; does not include 1 win--2004--vacated due to NCAA penalty, revised record: 14-2). USC has swept UCLA and Notre Dame in 4 consecutive seasons once (2002-05; wins over UCLA in 2 of those years--2004, 2005--were later vacated due to NCAA penalty).

UNDER 100 — Since 1946, there have been 8 seasons when USC did not allow any runner to rush for 100 yards (1951-56-59-61-63-72-82-2002).

UNRANKED AT 3-0/5-1 — Since the AP poll was first established in 1936, USC has started off its season with a 3-0 record 33 times. Troy was ranked by AP the week after each of those 3-0 starts (except 1936 and 1948 when AP polls were not issued those weeks). But only 4 times has a 3-0 USC team not been ranked in the AP Top 10: 1951 (14th), 1998 (18th), 2010 (20th) and 2011 (23rd). USC has started off with a 5-1 mark 18 times, but only once (2011) has it not been ranked by AP.

USC-UCLA BAY AREA — 2006 was the first time that USC (at Stanford) and UCLA (at California) played in the Bay Area on the same day (Nov. 4). It happened again on Oct. 3, 2009 (USC at Cal, UCLA at Stanford) and Oct. 9, 2010 (USC at Stanford, UCLA at California).

VERSUS NO. 1 — USC is 7-12 all-time versus AP No. 1-ranked teams.

VERSUS RANKED TEAMS — The most AP-ranked teams USC has faced in a season is 9, in 2002. USC has 3 times faced 4 AP-ranked teams in a row in the same season, in 1952, 2002 and 2015 (on 2 other occasions, Troy faced 4 consecutive ranked foes, but those were over a 2-season span: 1973-74 and 1988-89).

VERSUS UNRANKED TEAMS — Since the AP poll began in 1936, 1956 was the only time that USC went an entire season without playing a ranked team. Conversely, USC has gone through an entire season without earning an AP ranking only 5 times (1941, 1948, 1958, 1961 and 2001).

WILD BUNCH — Known as "The Wild Bunch," USC's stellar 1969 defensive line--coached by legendary assistant Marv Goux--consisted of ends Jimmy Gunn and Charles Weaver, tackles Al Cowlings and Tody Smith and middle guards Willard 'Bubba' Scott and Tony Terry (he had a hamstring injury for much of the season and was not able to appear in the famed gunslinger photo). Cowlings dubbed the unit "The Wild Bunch"--after director Sam Peckinpah's hit 1969 Western movie of that name--for their reckless abandon and hard-nosed play. "The Wild Bunch" helped USC go 10-0-1, including a Rose Bowl win over Michigan. In the UCLA game, they sacked Dennis Dummit 10 times for losses of 75 yards. Playing in an era of powerful running games, "The Wild Bunch" allowed just 2.3 yards per carry. Gunn, Weaver and Cowlings each were All-American first teamers in their careers. Then, 34 years later, assistant coach Ed Orgeron's dominant 2003 defensive line--tackles Shaun Cody and Mike Patterson and ends Kenechi Udeze and Omar Nazel--was dubbed by the media as "The Wild Bunch II." They were instrumental in helping USC to its first national championship since 1978. They led a defense that finished first in the nation in rushing yards allowed per game (60.2) and per carry (1.84), both school records, as well as sacks (38.5) and tackles for loss (67). Only one runner gained 100 yards that season. Udeze, the national sack co-leader (16.5), was a consensus All-American first teamer.

WORLD CUP — USC has a 159-67-8 (.697) record in the 20 seasons when the World Cup was played. In those years, the Trojans went to 12 bowl games (including 7 Rose Bowls) and won 7 of them, plus they captured 7 conference titles and were named national champion 3 times.

FACILITIES

LOS ANGELES MEMORIAL COLISEUM

The Los Angeles Memorial Coliseum is one of the greatest and largest stadiums in America. In 2005, The Sporting News named the Coliseum among the nation's 40 best stadiums to experience college football. In 2014, StadiumJourney.com ranked USC football at the Coliseum as the nation's No. 3 stadium experience.

USC has played football in the Coliseum ever since the grand stadium was built in 1923. In fact, the Trojans played in the first varsity football game ever held there (beating Pomona College, 23-7, on Oct. 6, 1923). That game was preceded that day by the USC freshman team's 30-0 win over Santa Ana High.

Construction took less than 2 years, with ground breaking held on Dec. 21, 1921, and work completed on May 1, 1923. Initial construction costs were $800,000.

The Coliseum was the site of the 1932 Olympic Games and hosted the opening and closing ceremonies and track events of the 1984 Olympics. It has been home to many sports teams besides the Trojans, including UCLA football, Los Angeles Rams, Dons, Raiders, Express and Xtreme football, and Los Angeles Dodgers baseball (the Rams will return temporarily in 2016). The Coliseum has hosted various other events, from concerts and speeches to track meets and motorcycle races.

There have been 23 seasons--1923 to 1925, 1995 to 2000, 2002 to 2015--that USC was the stadium's sole football tenant.

USC took control of the management of the Coliseum in the summer of 2013, becoming responsible for the operation, maintenance and upgrading of the facility. USC is required to spend $70 million over a 10-year period for enhancements and improvements to the Coliseum's infrastructure.

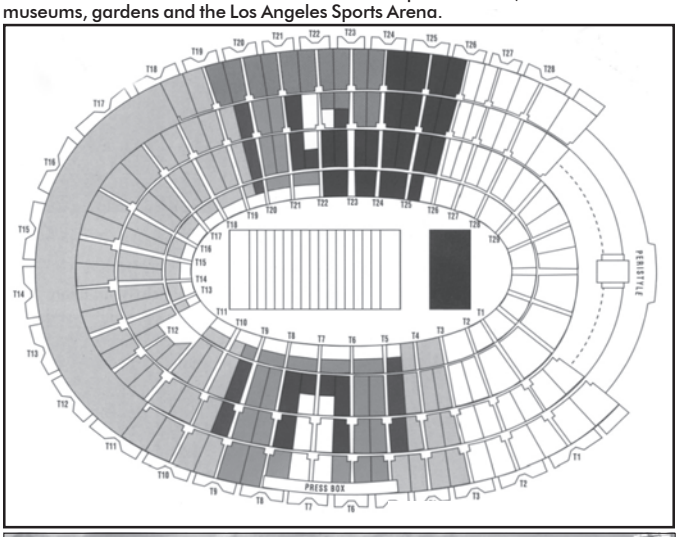
In October of 2015, USC announced preliminary plans to renovate and restore the Coliseum, including building a new structure on the stadium's south side (with suites, loge boxes, club seats, a new concourse and new press box), replacing every seat with wider ones, increasing leg room, adding aisles, restoring the iconic peristyle, upgrading Wi-Fi, improving audio and video with two new large screens, adding concession stands and installing new lighting. Work is scheduled to begin after the 2017 USC season and be completed for the 2019 home opener. The renovation will be privately funded by USC and will preserve the Coliseum's historic nature. Improvements will reduce seating capacity to approximately 77,500.

Prior to the 1993 football season, the Coliseum underwent a $15 million renovation. The floor was lowered 11 feet and the running track was removed to create a more intimate stadium. Fourteen new rows of seats (approximately 8,000 seats) were added down low, bringing fans closer to the playing field (the first rows of seats between the goalposts are no more than 54 feet from the sideline, instead of the previous 120 feet). The lockerrooms and public restrooms were also upgraded.

Southern California's January 1994 earthquake hit the Coliseum hard, requiring $93 million of repairs. In the summer of 1995, a new $6 million press box was constructed.

The Coliseum has a present capacity of 93,607 chairback seats, including approximately 25,000 seats between the goal lines on both the north and south sides.

The Coliseum is located on 17 acres in Exposition Park, which also houses museums, gardens and the Los Angeles Sports Arena.



USC'S ATHLETIC FACILITIES

Heritage Hall, which sits in the middle of the University of Southern California campus, houses the University's athletic department and celebrates the glorious Trojan athletic heritage. USC has produced 423 Olympic athletes, won 125 national team championships and developed 53 NCAA Post-Graduate Scholarship recipients.

Originally 48,000 square feet and built at a cost of $2.8 million, the 3-level brick and concrete colonnaded building opened in 1971. Heritage Hall was designed by Grillias, Savage and Alves of Santa Ana, Calif. Myers Brothers Construction Company, Inc., of Los Angeles was the general contractor. Initial construction began in Feb. 5, 1970. It was expanded three times--in 1984 (a 6,000-square foot addition to the weight room), in 1992 (a 13,500-square foot expansion that houses the Academic Resource Center) and in 1998 (a 3,000-square foot addition to the Jess Hill Weight Room)--before a $35-million year-long renovation of the facility finished in early 2014. As part of that renovation, Heritage Hall's two-story Heisman Lobby was transformed into a state-of-the-art museum space featuring interactive displays. There also is a sports performance center, a broadcast studio, a lounge for Women of Troy student-athletes, a rowing ergometer room and an indoor golf driving area, plus new locker rooms, meeting rooms and equipment room and event space.

Directly west of Heritage Hall is the John McKay Center, a $70 million, 110,000-square foot facility that opened in the summer of 2012. It houses meeting rooms, coaches offices and a locker room for the football program, as well as the Stevens Academic Center (which features tutoring, counseling, study and computer rooms for USC's student-athletes), a weight room, an athletic training room and a state-of-the-art digital media production facility for all of USC's sports.

USC's swimming and water polo coaches are located in the nearby Uytengsu Aquatics Center (formerly the McDonald's Swim Stadium, site of the 1984 Olympic swimming and diving events), which underwent a $16-million renovation before re-opening in early 2014. It now includes a new stadium entrance, diving and dryland training areas, locker rooms, coaches' offices, meeting rooms, scoreboard, permanent seating and diving tower and pool deck (surrounding the Peter Daland pool).

The baseball staff has offices at Dedeaux Field (the baseball stadium),the track and field staff has offices in the 3,000-seat Loker Stadium (which houses Cromwell Track and Field) and the men's and women's basketball and volleyball staffs have offices in the Galen Center.

Outside the northwest corner of Heritage Hall, the $3-million Galen Dining Center--a popular sports-themed dining center--opened in early 1999.

The USC football team practices at nearby Howard Jones Field, which was expanded in the fall of 1998 to include Brian Kennedy Field. In early 1999, Goux's Gate--named after the late popular long-time former assistant coach Marv Goux--was erected at the entrance to the practice field.

The 10,258-seat, $147-million on-campus Galen Center (and adjoining practice facility), completed in August of 2006, is the luxurious home to the Trojan basketball and volleyball teams, as well as various cultural events.

USC's other on-campus athletic facilities include Marks Tennis Stadium (renovated in 2016, highlighted by the Buntmann Family Tennis Center), McAlister Field (for soccer and lacrosse), Merle Norman Stadium (for beach volleyball), the 1,500-seat Lyon Center (a campus student recreation center which has hosted some Trojan intercollegiate events) and the Physical Education Building (housing the 1,000-seat North Gym).

Traveler, USC's Mascot

Traveler, the noble white horse that appears at all USC home football games with a regal Trojan warrior astride, is one of the most famous college mascots.

Traveler first made an appearance at USC football games in 1961 (in the home opener versus Georgia Tech). Bob Jani, then USC's director of special events, and Eddie Tannenbaum, then a junior at USC, had spotted Richard Saukko riding his white horse, Traveler I, in the 1961 Rose Parade. They persuaded Saukko to ride his white horse around the Coliseum during USC games, serving as a mascot. Ever since, whenever USC scores, the band plays "Conquest" and Traveler gallops around the Coliseum.

Because of poor health, Saukko stopped riding after the 1988 season (he passed away in March of 1992). His successors have been Cass Dabbs, Rick Oas, Tom Nolan, Ardeshir Radpour, Chuck O'Donnell (Saukko's stepson) and current rider Hector Aguilar. Patricia Saukko DeBernardi (Saukko's widow) was Traveler's owner and trainer until she retired following the 2002 season. She asked Joanne Asman to take over with her own Traveler in 2003 (she also trains and houses the horse for USC). She is president of Asman & Associates, an entertainment and event planning company in Burbank, Calif., and she has spent more than 30 years training and managing equestrian performers.

The current Trojan mascot is Traveler VII. Even though the breed of horse may have changed over the years — ranging from an Arabian/Tennessee Walker to a pure-bred Tennessee Walker to a pure-bred Arabian to a Spanish Andalusian — Traveler's color has always remained pure white.

In the fall of 2004, the late USC alumnus Bill Tilley ('61) and his wife, Nadine, donated $2 million to provide a permanent endowment to support Traveler. Bill was the Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of the Jacmar Companies, a multifaceted international restaurant and food service enterprise and majority owner of the highly successful B.J.'s Restaurant and Brewery. Nadine is an avid breeder of champion Andalusian horses. She hopes that a future Traveler will be bred at Tilley's Andalusians at Fieldstone Farm in Hidden Valley, now known as "The Home of Traveler."

Saukko first appeared on Traveler in the outfit that actor Charlton Heston wore in "Ben Hur." That proved to be too cumbersome, so Saukko crafted his own leather costume in 1962, modeled after the Tommy Trojan statue on the USC campus (that outfit is on display in Heritage Hall). But he still sometimes wore Heston's helmet. Interestingly, Saukko was once employed by Jim Crowley, one of Notre Dame's "Four Horsemen."

Legend has it that Heisman Trophy tailback O.J. Simpson decided to come to USC after seeing Traveler on a televised football game. And Trojan faithful swear the horse has an effect on the outcome of games.

"(Former USC coach) John McKay didn't want to admit that the horse had anything to do with his success," said Saukko, "but he'd always give me a wink when he saw me waiting in the Coliseum tunnel."

Added former USC All-American defensive back and assistant coach Nate Shaw: "The horse is one of the greatest inspirational devices USC has. It definitely got the adrenaline going when I was playing and I think it still has an effect on the players. When I was coaching against USC (at Oregon State), we hated to see that horse come down the tunnel because it got USC a little more pumped up."

Traveler not only appears at Trojan home football games (and even at some away games, including the 1995 Cotton Bowl in Dallas and the 2005 Orange Bowl in Miami, the farthest Traveler has traveled), but also at other Trojan events, as well as at grade and high schools, charity functions and parades (including the past 47 Rose Parades). Traveler has also appeared on screen (including "The Asia Music Awards," "Road To El Dorado," "The Battle of the Gunfighter" and "Snowfire"), on stage (including in the Long Beach Ballet's "Nutcracker Ballet"), in commercials, in print (Vogue magazine) and at personal appearances with many celebrities (including Janet Jackson, Jamie Foxx, LeeAnne Rimes, Fabio and Fred Roggin).

Incidentally, Traveler I was not the first equine mascot for Troy. The first appearance of a white horse at a Trojan football game occurred as early as 1927, when Louis Shields began a four-year stint aboard a horse owned by a local banker. In 1948, band director Tommy Walker once had USC colors carried by a Trojan on a palomino. Then, before kickoff of the 1954 USC-Pittsburgh game, Arthur J. Gontier III, then a member of the Trojan Knights spirit group (subbing for another rider who backed out at the last moment), shakily rode a rented gray/white horse while donning a costume once worn by actor Jeff Chandler. A more accomplished rider, USC alum Bob Caswell, and his white horse, Rockazar, took over the following game and performed until retiring in 1959.

Besides these horses, USC once even had a canine mascot. A mutt named George Tirebiter I (famous for chasing cars through the USC campus) first appeared at football games in 1940. He survived a publicized dognapping by UCLA in 1947, but succumbed under the tires of an automobile in 1950. He was succeeded by George II for 3 years (1950-52), then George III for 1 year (1953) and finally George IV for 1 year (1957).

TRAVELER FUND

The Traveler Fund is used to make sure USC's mascot continues to be a prominent part of football games and other events. Whether it's $5 or $500, donations help to secure this special USC tradition for future generations of Trojans.

Donations should be made out to the "Traveler Fund" and sent to: Justine Gilman, USC Recreational Sports, LRC 101, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-2500, (213) 740-8120. Donors will receive a beautiful picture of Traveler that is suitable for framing.

TRAVELER

Tommy Trojan

In the center of the USC campus stands one of the most famous collegiate landmarks in the country: Tommy Trojan. Since being unveiled in 1930 for USC's 50th jubilee, the statue of the bronzed Trojan warrior has served not only as a popular meeting place on campus, but as a symbol of the university's fighting spirit.

Sculpted by Roger Noble Burnham (the idea for the statue was conceived by Harry Lee Martin and Dr. James D. McCoy), Tommy Trojan cost $10,000 to build. A $1 surcharge then on season football tickets helped pay for it.

The statue is a composite of many USC football players from the late 20s, most notably 1930 Rose Bowl Player of the Game Russ Saunders and All-American Erny Pinckert.

"Burnham made more than 100 oil paintings of various football players from our squad," said Saunders, "and from them he selected the paintings of Pinckert and me. We put in a lot of hours posing, and the result you see is my head, chest and shoulders. The rest is all Erny."

Inscribed on the statue's base is "THE TROJAN" and the university's seal, with the Latin motto "Palmam qui meruit ferat (Let him who deserves it bear away the palm)." Below the seal are inscribed the qualities of the ideal Trojan: "Faithful, Scholarly, Skillful, Courageous and Ambitious."

The tradition of Tommy Trojan being painted blue and gold by UCLA pranksters was first recorded in October of 1941. Since then, Tommy has been "hit" often, but now USC maintenance crews cover him with plastic and canvas for protection during the week of the annual USC-UCLA football game.

And Tommy's sword has been stolen so often that now, instead of replacing it each time with an expensive brass one, he is given a wooden one.

By the way, where did he get the name Tommy? Of that, no one is sure!

TROJAN TRADITIONS

Victory Bell

VICTORY BELL

The winner of the annual USC-UCLA football game, perhaps America's greatest crosstown rivalry, is given year-long possession of the Victory Bell.

The 295-pound bell originally clanged from atop a Southern Pacific freight locomotive. It was given to UCLA in 1939 as a gift from the UCLA Alumni Association. For 2 seasons, cheerleaders rang the bell after each Bruin point.

At the opening game of UCLA's 1941 football season, 6 members of USC's Sigma Phi Epsilon fraternity infiltrated the UCLA rooting section. After the game, they helped Bruin students load the bell onto a waiting truck bound for Westwood. But then, one Trojan quietly removed the key to the truck, and while the Bruins went to get a replacement, the Trojans drove off with the bell.

The bell remained hidden for more than a year, first in the fraternity's basement, then in the Hollywood Hills, Santa Ana and other locations. At one point, it was even concealed beneath a haystack. Bruin students tried to locate the bell, but to no avail.

The controversy died down for a while, until a picture of the bell was printed in "The Wampus," a USC magazine. This re-ignited the rivalry, as students from UCLA retaliated by painting the Tommy Trojan statue at USC and then Trojan students burned USC initials on UCLA lawns. Police had to be called several times. The conflict got so out of hand that Dr. Rufus B. von KleinSmid, then USC's president, threatened to cancel the USC-UCLA game if any further disorders occurred.

On Nov. 12, 1942, the bell was wheeled in front of Tommy Trojan and the student body presidents of both schools — USC's Bill McKay and UCLA's Bill Farrer — signed an agreement stating that thereafter the annual winner of the Trojan-Bruin gridiron clash would keep the bell for the following year. In the case of a tie, the bell would be retained by the school that won the previous year's game. The USC Alumni Association later repaid the UCLA Alumni Association for half the cost of the bell.

At the time, the arrangement might have seemed like a bad deal for the Bruins, since they had yet to defeat USC. But that first year, 1942, UCLA beat USC, 14-7.

Since the bell became a trophy, its carriage has been painted cardinal 40 times while in USC's possession and blue 31 times while in UCLA's hold (there were 4 ties). (Does not include 2 USC wins vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 42.)

Although the Victory Bell is one of college football's most famous trophies, it is probably the least seen. For all but 2 days of the year, the bell sits in a warehouse or a vault. The universities only display the bell during the first 3 quarters of the USC-UCLA game and on the Monday following the game, when it is delivered to the winning school's campus. Then the Victory Bell, which gained its reputation from being hidden, goes back into hiding.

Crosstown Cup

To highlight the year-long all-sports competition between crosstown rivals USC and UCLA, the SoCal BMW Crosstown Cup (formerly Gauntlet Trophy) is awarded annually to the school with the most successful athletic year against the other. Points are awarded to the winner of each Trojan-Bruin head-to-head contest and the Crosstown Cup is awarded to the school with the most points at year's end. The winner of the Crosstown Cup alternated for the first 6 years of the competition. After USC captured the inaugural trophy in 2001-02, UCLA won it in 2002-03, the Trojans recaptured it in 2003-04, the Bruins won it back in 2004-05, USC claimed it in 2005-06 and then UCLA won it in 2006-07. USC then went on a 5-year winning run from 2007-08 to 2011-12 before the Bruins reclaimed it for 2012-13. USC won it back in 2013-14 before UCLA took possession in 2014-15, but the Trojans gained it back in 2015-16 to hold it for the 10th time in the competition's 15 years.

Shillelagh

SHILLELAGH I

SHILLELAGH II

A jeweled shillelagh is passed between the annual winner of the USC-Notre Dame game, perhaps the finest intersectional rivalry in college football.

A shillelagh (pronounced "shuh-LAY-lee") is a Gaelic war club made of oak or blackthorn saplings from Ireland. Those are the only woods used because, it is said, they are the only ones tougher than an Irish skull.

The foot-long shillelagh has ruby-adorned Trojan heads with the year and game score representing USC victories, while emerald-studded shamrocks stand for Notre Dame wins. For tie games, a combined Trojan head/shamrock medallion is used. On the end of the club is engraved, "From the Emerald Isle." The victor of the Trojan-Irish game gains year-long possession of the trophy.

Upon its initial presentation in 1952 by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, it was said that "this shillelagh will serve to symbolize in part the high tradition, the keen rivalry and above all the sincere respect which these two great universities have for each other."

The original shillelagh was flown from Ireland by Howard Hughes' pilot, according to legend. It was devised by the Notre Dame Alumni Club of Los Angeles, based on a suggestion by Vern Rickard. John Groen designed it. Although the shillelagh was introduced in 1952, the medallions go back to the start of the series in 1926.

When the original shillelagh ran out of space for the Trojan heads and shamrocks after the 1989 game, it was retired and is permanently displayed at Notre Dame.

A new shillelagh — slightly longer than the original — was commissioned by Jim Gillis, a former baseball player at both USC and Notre Dame and a one-time president of the Notre Dame Club of Los Angeles, and handcrafted in 1997 in County Leitrim, Ireland. It contains medallions beginning with the 1990 game.

There are now 46 shamrocks, 35 Trojan heads and 5 combined medallions on the shillelaghs. (Does not include 1 USC win vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 36 Trojan heads.)

Origin of USC's Nickname — Trojans

USC's nickname, "Trojans," originated in 1912. Up to that time the University of Southern California teams were called the Methodists or Wesleyans, nicknames which were not looked upon with favor by university officials.

So, Warren Bovard, director of athletics and son of university president Dr. George Bovard, asked Los Angeles Times sports editor Owen Bird to select an appropriate nickname.

"At this time, the athletes and coaches of the university were under terrific handicaps," recalled Bird. "They were facing teams that were bigger and better-equipped, yet they had splendid fighting spirit. The name 'Trojans' fitted them.

"I came out with an article prior to a showdown between USC and Stanford in which I called attention to the fighting spirit of USC athletes and named them 'Trojans.' From then on, we used the term 'Trojan' all the time, and it stuck.

"The term 'Trojan' as applied to USC means to me that no matter what the situation, what the odds or what the conditions, the competition must be carried on to the end and those who strive must give all they have and never be weary in doing so."

USC commemorated the 100th anniversary of its Trojans nickname during the 2012 season.

Colors: Cardinal & Gold

Before 1895, the official color of USC was gold. The official color of the College of Liberal Arts was cardinal. The college had its own official color because it was the largest academic unit in the University. In 1895, both colors were adopted as USC's official colors.

TROJAN MARCHING BAND

The Trojan Marching Band — known as "The Spirit of Troy" — is the most dynamic and innovative collegiate band in the nation. Named among the 8 best marching bands in the country by USA Today, the band is one of USC's most visible public relations tools and provides tireless support of USC athletic teams.

The band, established in 1880 and regarded as "Hollywood's Band," has played for 7 Presidents and appeared in numerous movies (including "Forrest Gump" and "The Naked Gun"), TV shows (including 3 times at the Academy Awards and with OutKast's Andre 3000 at the 2004 Grammy Awards and Radiohead at the 2008 Grammys, plus on "Glee," "American Idol," "Dancing With The Stars," "Scrubs," "How I Met Your Mother," "Las Vegas," "L.A. Law," "Hollywood Squares," "Good Morning America," MTV's "Rock and Jock" and the "Tonight Show with Conan O'Brien"), commercials and magazines (including in Sports Illustrated's Swimsuit issue). It recorded a song for the animated movie, "The Croods." The band earned 2 platinum albums recording the title track of Fleetwood Mac's 1979 album, "Tusk," and was on the group's live 1997 reunion album, "The Dance." It played at the 2010 Coachella music festival with Coheed and Cambria. It has produced numerous albums of its own music (featuring the well-known "Tribute To Troy," "Conquest" and "Fight On").

Among the musicians who played in the band as students was Herb Alpert of the Tijuana Brass (in the cornet section). Appearing with the band as guest artists have been John Phillip Souza (in 1924), Henry Mancini, John Williams, Quincy Jones, Chuck Mangione, Leonard Bernstein, Diana Ross, Neil Diamond, John Wayne, Kenny Rogers, Tower of Power, George Clinton, KC & The Sunshine Band, System of a Down, WAR, Bozo the Clown (Larry Harmon), Slash and The Offspring's Dexter Holland.

The band performs a new halftime show with precision drills, specially arranged music and dance routines at each home game. A typical football halftime show takes more than 100 hours to prepare. The band marches about 90 miles a year while traveling across the land supporting every USC team. In fact, it hasn't missed a Trojan football game, at home or away, since 1987 (its full band trips to the Bay Area and Notre Dame are much anticipated). The band appears at more than 350 engagements each year, including at pro sporting events and major corporate and special events throughout Southern California.

Approximately 20 percent of its members are music majors, with almost every school and department represented among the balance. Now 300-plus members strong, the Trojan Marching Band has tripled in size since Dr. Arthur C. Bartner became its director in 1970. A graduate of Michigan, Bartner brought with him a creative approach and the unique, contemporary "drive-it" style of marching.

Bartner directed the 800-member 1984 Olympic All-American College Marching Band (with 125 USC bandsmen) at the Games' opening and closing ceremonies. It was the second time the band was involved with the Olympics, as it formed the 10th Olympic Braid in the 1932 Los Angeles Games. The band has also performed at 4 Super Bowls, the 1988 World Series, the 1994 World Cup and the 2002 NHL All Star Weekend. Bartner has made 15 appearances with the Trojan Marching Band at the Rose Parade and Rose Bowl.

Bartner was also Director of Bands for the Japan Bowl in Tokyo and directed the All-American College Marching Band at Disneyland. During its summer vacations, the band travels the world as goodwill ambassadors of USC. In 1986, Bartner and 40 band members were part of the ceremonies of Liberty Weekend at the refurbished Statue of Liberty. In 1988, he brought the band to Australia to perform at festivities for that country's bicentennial and at World Expo 88 (one of five World Expositions it has appeared, along with Spain in 1992, Portugal in 1998, Japan in 2005 and Shanghai in 2010). The band also performed at the 50th anniversary of D-Day in France, toured Germany in 1990 to celebrate the fall of the Berlin Wall, played at the walls of the Roman Colosseum in 2006, on the Great Wall of China in 2004 and on Rio de Janeiro's Ipanema Beach in 2008 and in 2003 was the first American marching band to perform at Hong Kong's International Chinese New Year's Parade (it returned there in 2004). It performs each summer at the Hollywood Bowl.

The Trojan Marching Band is complemented by the USC Silks (tall flags) and twirlers, plus the world-famous USC Song Girls, who were ranked No. 1 in the nation by Sports Illustrated, and the Spirit Leaders.

In 2009, ESPN.com named the band and Song Girls as the nation's best: "Nothing says 'glamour school' more than the ubiquitous presence of the USC Song Girls and the Trojan Marching Band. The Spirit of Troy brings one of the most stirring sounds in college football, while the USC Song Girls give Trojan games ones of the sport's most indelible sights." In 2014, USAToday.com named the band as the "Best Band in College Football."

School Songs

"FIGHT ON"

Fight On for ol' SC
Our men Fight On to victory.
Our Alma Mater dear,
looks up to you
Fight On and win
For ol' SC
Fight On to victory
Fight On!

This song is usually played after first downs and touchdowns. The music for USC's fight song, "Fight On," was composed in 1922 by USC dental student Milo Sweet (with lyrics by Sweet and Glen Grant) as an entry in a Trojan spirit contest. In addition to inspiring generations of Trojan fans and players, the song has been used in numerous recordings and movies. Legend has it that during World War II in the Pacific, an American task force attacked an island held by the Japanese. As the Americans stormed the beach, "Fight On" blared from the deck of one of the transports. The U.S. men let out a tremendous roar and eventually won the island.

"ALL HAIL"

All hail to Alma Mater,
To thy glory we sing;
All hail to Southern California,
Loud let thy praises ring;
Where Western sky meets Western sea
Our college stands in majesty.
Sing our love to Alma Mater,
Hail, all hail to thee.

The words and music to USC's alma mater, "All Hail," were composed in the early 1920s by Al Wesson, Troy's longtime sports information director. He wrote the song as a student member of the Trojan Marching Band for the finale of a 1923 campus show.

"CONQUEST"

Another famous USC song is the regal processional march, "Conquest," by Alfred Newman. It is usually played after every USC score and victory. This stirring battle cry, from Newman's score to the 1947 motion picture classic "Captain from Castile," has become synonymous with the championship tradition of USC since the Trojans adopted it in 1954 during a basketball game against Oregon State. Newman, a legendary composer of film music, was the musical director of Twentieth Century-Fox Studios.

Other Songs

"Tribute To Troy," the incessant stanza of pounding drums and blaring horns, is played after every defensive stop. "Fanfare" is the introduction to "Tribute To Troy" and is played when the band takes the field. "All Right Now" is played after USC gets a turnover. "Another One Bites the Dust" is played after USC gets a sack. The "William Tell Overture" is played at the start of the fourth quarter. "The Emperor's Theme" from Star Wars is played when USC is flagged for a major penalty.

Tommy Walker

The trumpet "Charge," heard often at athletic contests, was composed by a post-World War II USC student named Tommy Walker. As a member of the Trojan Marching Band, he was known as "Tommy Trojan," and as a USC football player, he would shed his band uniform, come down from the stands, and kick extra points (he lettered in 1947). Upon graduation in 1948, he was hired as the band's director. He later was the first entertainment director at Disneyland and then went into business as one of the world's leading creators of show business spectacles (including Super Bowl halftimes and Olympic opening and closing ceremonies). He died in 1986.

USC'S ATHLETIC HERITAGE

USC has a proud athletic heritage — and with good reason. Arguably, Troy could be the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." Consider:

• Trojan teams have won more national championships, 125 (97 men's, including a national-best 84 NCAA titles, and 28 women's), than all but 2 schools.

• The Trojans won at least 1 national team title in 26 consecutive years (1959-60 to 1984-85).

• USC won the National College All-Sports Championship — an annual ranking by USA Today (previously the Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs from 1971 to 1994 — 6 times.

• USC won the 2015-16 Women's Capital One Cup as the nation's top women's athletic program, based on its finishes in NCAA Championships.

• USC won the Crosstown Cup (formerly Gauntlet Trophy), a year-long all-sports competition between Troy and crosstown rival UCLA, in 10 of the competition's 15 years (in its inaugural 2001-02 season, again in 2003-04 and 2005-06, then 5 straight years from 2007-08 through 2011-12, in 2013-14 and in 2015-16).

• Trojan men athletes have won more individual NCAA titles (319) than those from any other school in the nation (the Women of Troy have brought home another 72 individual NCAA crowns).

• Troy also has a long tradition of nurturing successful Olympic athletes. USC has more Olympians, medalists and gold medalists than any school. Since 1904, 423 Trojan athletes have competed in the Games (not including the 2016 Rio Games), taking home 135 gold medals (with at least 1 gold in every summer Olympics from 1912), 88 silver and 65 bronze.

• Four Trojans have won the prestigious Sullivan Award as the top amateur athlete in America: diver Sammy Lee (1953), shot putter Parry O'Brien (1959), swimmer John Naber (1977) and swimmer Janet Evans (1989).

• Two Women of Troy athletes have won the Honda-Broderick Cup as the top collegiate woman athlete of the year: Cheryl Miller (1983-84) and Angela Williams (2001-02). And Trojan women have won 16 Honda Awards, as the top female athlete in their sport.

Along with the great accomplishments on the playing fields, USC student-athletes have received 53 NCAA Postgraduate Scholarships, in the Top 10 among all schools. In addition, USC has had 34 first team Academic All-Americans and 4 athletes who were Rhodes Scholars.

Here's an overview of USC's 21 current intercollegiate sports (the school celebrated 125 years of Trojan athletics in 2013-14):

FOOTBALL — Since starting football in 1888, USC has an impressive all-time won-loss record of 813-333-54 (.700). In 2009, ESPN.com ranked USC the second-best program in college football history. (Does not include 14 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 827-334-54, .703.)

USC's record against Pac-12 opponents is a stellar 447-185-29 (.698). The Trojans have won 37 conference championships. (Does not include 9 wins and 2 titles vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record 456-185-29, .702, 38 titles.)

USC has the nation's seventh best bowl winning percentage (.660) among the 89 schools that have made at least 10 bowl appearances and its 32 Rose Bowl appearances is an all-time best. Troy's overall bowl mark is 33-17 (second for most wins nationally), including 24-8 in the Pasadena classic (does not include 1 Rose Bowl win and loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record 34-178overall, 24-9 Rose Bowl). The Trojans were a bowl participant every year they were eligible from 1972 to 1990.

Think about college football and USC's tailback in the I-formation, one of the most glamorous positions in the sport, comes to mind. Five Trojan tailbacks have won the coveted Heisman Trophy as college football's outstanding player: Mike Garrett (1965), O.J. Simpson (1968), Charles White (1979), Marcus Allen (1981) and Reggie Bush (2005, later vacated). Carson Palmer in 2002 and Matt Leinart in 2004 became the first USC quarterbacks to win the Heisman.

The Trojans have had other prominent award winners. Offensive tackle Ron Yary won the 1967 Outland Trophy, offensive guard Brad Budde won the 1979 Lombardi Award, safety Mark Carrier won the 1989 Thorpe Award, linebacker Chris Claiborne won the 1998 Butkus Award, tight end Fred Davis won the 2007 Mackey Award, linebacker Rey Maualuga won the 2008 Bednarik Award and wide receiver Marqise Lee won the 2012 Biletnikoff Award. USC players have been named first team All-American 163 times, with 53 consensus selections and 27 unanimous choices. There are 42 inductees in the College Football Hall of Fame with USC ties, including 31 players.

Many of those players have led USC to 11 national championships in football. Legendary coach Howard Jones (1925-40) guided Troy to 4 of those titles (1928-31-32-39). John McKay (1960-75) was responsible for 4 national championship teams (1962-67-72-74). John Robinson (1976-82), who captured 1 title (1978) in his first tenure, returned to Troy in 1993 and led USC to 3 more bowl wins. Pete Carroll (2001-09) led Troy to its most recent national crowns in 2003 and 2004, and had 5 Pac-10 titles, BCS bowl trips and 11-win seasons and 7 AP Top 4 finishes (does not include 14 wins and 1 loss vacated due to NCAA penalty; original record: 7 consecutive Pac-10 titles, BCS bowl trips, 11-win seasons and AP Top 4 finishes). Dick Leach succeeded Toley and posted a 535-133 (.801) mark in 23 years. His 1991, 1993, 1994 and 2002 teams won the NCAA tourney (his 2002 No. 11-seeded Cinderella team was the lowest seed ever to win the NCAA title and did so a month after Leach announced his retirement) and 8 of his other teams finished fourth or better. His successor, Peter Smith, guided USC to the 2009, 2010, 2011, 2012 and 2014 NCAA titles after an NCAA semifinal appearance in 2004 and quarterfinals in 2007 and 2008 (and again in 2013 and 2015).

USC NATIONAL TITLES

USC has long dominated the world of intercollegiate athletics. In fact, it could be argued that Troy was the "Collegiate Athletic Program of the 20th Century." USC men and women have combined for 125 national team titles.

Trojan men's teams are tops in the nation in NCAA championships with 84 — more than any other university. Overall, USC's men have won 97 national championships.

USC's women are also a force, with 28 national team titles, all since 1976.

From 1959-60 to 1984-85, USC put together an amazing streak. In each of those 26 years, at least one Trojan team won a national championship (including five crowns in both 1962-63 and 1976-77).

USC won the National Collegiate All-Sports Championship — an annual ranking by USA Today (previously The Knoxville Journal) of the country's top men's athletic programs from 1971 to 1994 — 6 times (1971-72-74-75-77-80). USC won the 2015-16 Women's Capital One Cup as the nation's top women's athletic program, based on its finishes in NCAA Championships.

TROJANS STAR IN CLASSROOM

USC is as proud of its student-athletes' achievements in the classroom as on the playing field.

After all, the Trojans not only are third in the nation in the number of national team championships (97 by the men and 28 by the women), but rank in the Top 10 in the number of NCAA post-graduate scholarship recipients (53, including 20 football players).

Also, USC athletics has had 4 Rhodes Scholars (quarterback Pat Haden, swimmer Desmond Koh, trackster James O'Toole and basketballer Reed Doucette), 34 first team Academic All-Americans (including 22 footballers, in the Top 10 in the nation and second among Pac-12 schools), 8 winners of the prestigious NCAA Today's Top 10 scholar award, 13 National Football Foundation Scholar-Athletes, 13 recipients of the NCAA Silver Anniversary Award (second most in the nation, behind Yale's 14), 3 CoSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Famers (Haden, footballer Dick Nunis and swimmer John Naber), 2 NCAA Inspiration Award winners (swimmer Mike Nyeholt and runner Louis Zamperini), an NCAA Walter Byers Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Amy Massey), an NCAA Women's Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholar (soccer player Laura Servis), 2 NCAA Ethnic-Minority Enhancement Program Post-Graduate Scholars (footballers Dong Koo and Travis Watkins), a Luce Scholar (swimmer Dennis Scannell), 2 USC valedictorians (water poloist Craig Furniss and volleyballer Alaina Kipps) and a USC salutatorian (track/cross country's Kate Neeper). In 1988, Haden was inducted into the charter 6-member class of the Academic All-American Hall of Fame and baseball star Don Buford Jr. won the first-ever Woody Hayes Academic All-American Award presented by the Columbus Touchdown Club to the top NCAA Division I male student-athlete (footballer John Jackson won the award in 1990 and volleyballer Katie Haller won the women's award in 1994). Jackson was also named a winner of the first-ever NACDA/Disney Scholar-Athlete Award in 1990, and Jeremy Hogue, Matt Keneley and Mike Van Raaphorst were 1996, 1997 and 2000 NACDA Foundation Preseason Games Scholar-Athletes, respectively (Keneley also received a NACDA Foundation Post-Graduate Scholarship in 1997). In 1997, Keith Van Horne was named to the Academic All-American All-Time Football Team. Footballer Lee Webb won a Wilma Rudolph Student Athlete Achievement Award fromthe National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics in 2005. Naber was inducted into the COSIDA Academic All-American Hall of Fame in 2012 and Dick Nunis in 2014.

The Nov. 1994 issue of The Sporting News examined the relative academic strength of the nation's top 25 football teams and found USC's players ranked second in high school GPA, sixth in SAT scores and third in ACT scores.

USC SPORTS INFORMATION OFFICE —The Sports Information Office (director Tim Tessalone, senior associate Paul Goldberg, associates Darcy Couch and David Tuttle and assistants Jeremy Wu, Rachel Caton and Katie Ryan) is located in the southeast corner of the first floor of Heritage Hall. It houses files containing USC athletic history, player and coach biographies, statistics and photographs. The office phone number is (213) 740-8480. There is a work area for media,with complimentary wireless internet access. Nearby on-campus parking is available by calling the office in advance. SID Tim Tessalone can be contacted via: USC Sports Information Office, HER 103, Los Angeles, Calif. 90089-0601, 213-740-8480, tessalon@usc.edu.

PLAYER/COACH INTERVIEWS — Please arrange all player and coach interviews through the Sports Information Office, at least a day in advance. Except for those with prior approval, all coach and player interviews are to be conducted on the football practice field immediately after practice. In season, offensive players/coaches will be available post-practice on Tuesdays and defensive/specialists players/coaches on Wednesdays. Coach Helton will be available post-practice on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays. Please do not interview coaches, players and athletic department officials in the lobby or on the patios of Heritage Hall, or at any other locations, unless approved by USC. While at Heritage Hall, media should not linger in the lobby or on the patios; there is a media workroom in the Sports Information Office. Per NCAA rules, current athletes cannot record promotional taglines for media outlets. Coach Helton will give an updated injury report at each media session, but he and his players will not address injury issues beyond that. Coach Helton also will be available on a conference call on Sunday evenings during the season (contact the USC Sports Information Office for details). There is not a weekly football media luncheon. A broadcast quality video with a Coach Helton Q&A will be posted every Monday during the season on USCTrojans.com and on USC's YouTube channel (YouTube.com/USCAthletics).

USC PRACTICES — USC will practice in-season on Howard Jones Field/Brian Kennedy Field on Tuesdays, Wednesdays and Thursdays beginning at 3 p.m. and generally lasting two hours. USC's entire Tuesday and Wednesday in-season practices will be open to local and national media who have been pre-approved via an online application (applications must be submitted by Mondays at 2 p.m. to attend that week's practice); all Thursday practices will be closed. Please call in advance to confirm the schedule. Media must remain on the east side of Howard Jones Field. Video is allowed for only the first 20 minutes. Live online posting is not allowed from the field. Media may report on injuries viewed during practice, however we ask that game strategy, formations and plays not be reported.

GAME CREDENTIALS — Because of space limitations, only members of the media who cover USC on a regular basis (plus media accompanying the visiting team and national college football media) will be considered for credentials to Trojan home games. Media credentials for USC home games will not be mailed in advance (parking passes can be mailed). Instead, credentials will be available on game days at the Coliseum media gate (located outside the press box elevator near Tunnel 6 on the south side of the Coliseum) 3 hours before kickoff. Credentials are issued on a game-by-game basis (there are no season passes). Credentials must be requested online and requests must be received by noon two days prior to each game. The online credential request form also covers NCAA compliance, personal comportment and inherent on-field safety risks. Credentials are non-transferrable. A valid ID that matches the submitted name must be shown and credentials must be picked up in person. Four types of credentials are issued: Media Press Box (press box seat during game, field access during last 5 minutes of game), plus Media Field, Broadcast and Photo (all 3 provide field access if wearing USC-provided wristband and/or vest, plus limited press box access with no seat). All credentials provide post-game interview room access. Television cameramen and still photographers are not allowed on the sidelines between the 25-yard lines in the team bench area.

PRESS BOX — Located on the south (Martin Luther King Blvd.) side of the Coliseum, the press box is for the use of the working media and guests of USC's athletic department only. Access is via the elevators near Tunnel 6. The upper level has seats for the working media, while the lower level houses radio and television broadcasting booths. The roof has limited availability for cameramen and photographers. Members of USC's Sports Information Office are located in the middle row of the upper level (seats 219-223) during games. To get from the press box to the field at the end of the game (and to enable continued viewing of the game action), most media exit through either side door and walk through the stands.

PRESS BOX SERVICES — A complimentary meal is served in the press box. Game programs, flip cards and game notes are distributed before kickoff (these are also available on the field to photographers). Quarterly play-by-plays, plus halftime and final statistics, are distributed, as are transcribed post-game locker room quotes from Coach Helton and the visiting coach. Game action is shown on indoor TV monitors posted throughout the press box. A detailed play-by-play and Coach Helton's post-game press conference are broadcast over the press box public address system. USC provides complimentary wireless internet access in the press box and field photo work area. Several charge-a-call phones are located in the visiting press section in the first row of the upper level and available on a first-come basis. To order a telephone, contact a Coliseum phone technician at (213) 765-6353. To call the press box on game day, dial (213) 741-1341.

MEDIA ON-FIELD GUIDELINES — Media with credentials who are permitted on the field during the game (generally TV camera operators and still photographers) must remain outside the dotted line that encircles the field. A special "photo alley" has been drawn between the end zones and 25-yard lines on both sides of the field and behind both end zones; photographers only are permitted inside this "alley" as long as they kneel. Photographers who choose not to kneel must stand behind the alley, along with all others on the field, including USC guests. Media should refrain from conducting post-game USC player/coach interviews on the field before the team enters the locker room, unless approved by a member of the USC Sports Information Office. No one under the age of 18 except team personnel is allowed on the field at any time.

POST-GAME INTERVIEWS — The USC and visiting team locker rooms are located inside the tunnel at the west end of the Coliseum. USC's post-game lockerroom is closed, including to the media, in order to comply with NCAA rules that prohibit impermissible contact with recruits. After a 10-minute "cooling off" period, Coach Helton and several players will be brought to the post-game interview room. Additional media interviews will be conducted in the tunnel directly outside the entrance to the USC lockerroom as coaches and players exit. USC's sports information staff will work with the media to expedite this process.

USC ATHLETICS ON THE WEB — The USC athletic department has an official home page on the web (USCTrojans.com), featuring current and historical information about Trojan sports.

Note: Records are unclear prior to Hunter's tenure. One reference source listed William Clay as "athletic manager" in 1909 and cited him as USC's first A.D. Another source listed Elmer Henderson as football coach and athletic director from 1919 to 1924. Still another source said "graduate managers" were akin to athletic directors and listed Warren Bovard, Henry Bruce, Gwynn Wilson (1921-30) and Arnold Eddy (1930 and on) in that role (that source also claimed Eddy was athletic director in 1941-44).
